

The Enterprise. GREENVILLE, S. C. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1872. For President, HORACE GREELEY, OF NEW YORK. For Vice-President, B. GRATZ BROWN, OF MISSOURI.

The Constitutional Amendments to be Voted on at the Approaching State Election. The Legislature of South Carolina, at its last session, passed two Acts, proposing changes in the Constitution of the State, and each of which is to be submitted to a vote of the people for adoption or rejection. The first one is in reference to the change of time of holding the general State elections, and is as follows:

Strike out all of that portion of Section XI of Article 2 following the words "elections to be held on the 1st Tuesday following the first Monday in November, in every second year, in such manner as at such places as the Legislature may provide."

Should this amendment be ratified, the day of election for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Attorney-General, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Comptroller-General, Superintendent of Education, Adjutant and Inspector-General, and Congressmen, also members of the State Senate and House of Representatives, Solicitors of the Circuit, Judges of Probate, Clerks, Sheriffs, School and County Commissioners and Coroners, will be made to come on the same day of the month as that of President and Vice-President in Presidential years.

The manner of voting on this amendment shall be as follows: Those in favor of the amendment shall deposit a ballot with the following words written or printed thereon: "Constitutional Amendment—Yes." Those opposed to said amendment shall cast a ballot with the following words written or printed thereon: "Constitutional Amendment—No."

There can be no objection to this amendment; in fact, it is really desirable that all of these elections should be made to come at the same time. Our elections now are much too frequent, causing great distraction from business and farm work. Therefore, we think all sensible and right-minded people will vote for its adoption, which we urge them to do.

The second Amendment to the State Constitution is a much more important one, affecting the interests of the people of the State more forcibly and intimately, and it should have their close and earnest attention. If it is adopted and then honestly adhered to and executed, its ratification will be of vast advantage and protection to the entire State. This second amendment relates to the further increase of the public debt of the State, viz: ARTICLE XVII.—To the end that the public debt of South Carolina may not hereafter be increased without the due consideration and the free consent of the people of the State, the General Assembly is hereby forbidden to create any further debt or obligation, either by loan or otherwise, except as may be provided by law, and such loan, guarantee, endorsement or loan of the credit, to the people of this State, at a general election; and unless two-thirds of the qualified voters of this State voting on the question shall be in favor of further debt, guarantee, endorsement or loan of this credit, none shall be created or made.

As every intelligent man knows, there are two tickets in the field for Governor of South Carolina. And, different from what is customary in political history, these tickets are not the opposite parties, both of whom acknowledge the same duty, and combat at the same shrine. They represent factions of one organization, breathing the same atmosphere and drawing their existence from a common source. One of these factions has bolted from the other, pretending to be better; and if we are to believe those who are engaged in this struggle, the difference between them, in as well as in words, is as wide as the distance between the poles. They are both very corrupt, we have their own statements; and those who are more lookers on, certainly have a right to believe the statements of both parties.

As is well known, these tickets are supported by what are known respectively, as the Regular Republicans, who have nominated for their candidate, F. J. MOSES, JR., and the True Republicans, who have placed RUFUS TOMLINSON in the field as their choice for the same position. The Regular Republicans are known as the most corrupt and unprincipled men that ever held office in this State. If we are to believe Mr. Corbin and others; indeed, so much so, that their brethren of the same alliance in other States despise them, and refuse to speak a word in their behalf. During the canvass in North Carolina, every Republican newspaper in all of the States manifested great interest and concern for the result there; but this is not so in South Carolina, because these honest Republicans in the sister States feel they cannot become parties with thieves and scoundrels, therefore the canvass is to themselves. Their fame, or rather infamy, has become world-wide.

The True Republicans being a branch of the Regulars, the difference between them, which there is, is only one of degree. The second, although by no means clear, and not so steeped in schemes of plunder and dishonesty. This difference it is not easy to say is a small one. We judge them by their own record and words. The first thing they did after their return, placing their candidates in the field, was to announce that if the Conservatives dared place a ticket in the field and take advantage of the split in the Republican party, they would immediately withdraw and return to the fold of those they say they have such an abhorrence for. This is their honesty!

The voters in the coming election, now nearly upon us, will see the men they are called upon to choose between. It is to be presumed that one side or the other will be taken by those not in adherence with either.

Our people, when they reach the polls, will have to decide for themselves. We believe that if the Conservative vote throughout the State be cast for RUFUS TOMLINSON, the candidate of the True Republicans, his chances of election will be largely augmented; on the other hand, if thrown for Moses, the candidate of the Regulars, we have no advice or counsel to offer, in reaching a conclusion; but upon general principles the less of two evils, when presented, should always be chosen.

We observe by late issues of the Columbia Phenix, and especially that of the 1st instant, that it comes out strongly for the TOMLINSON ticket. Also the Camden Journal gives its preference for the Bolters.

Noble Words from a Noble Man. HORACE GREELEY, the Liberal-Republican Democratic candidate for President of the United States, has been visiting a number of places and cities in the West—Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Cleveland, etc., etc., and his reception as he proceeds is a continued and enthusiastic ovation. At many of the places he has made pointed and able speeches, the course of Mr. Greeley is in such marked contrast with that of Grant, the latter preferring to hang around the watering places and keep mum on every issue discussed by the American people, except when he talks horse, drinking mean liquor and smoking cigars. The effect of Mr. Greeley's presence in those Western towns will have a tremendous effect upon the people in that whole section, in the approaching State elections of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, occurring on next Tuesday, 8th inst., as well as in the Presidential contest.

The Candidates in the Field. The various candidates in the field on the Conservative ticket, have been visiting the important places throughout the County. Last week they were below, closing to-day at Chick Springs. On the 7th they will again resume the canvassing of the people by holding a meeting at the Court House, at which time there will no doubt be a very large one, and whose very anti-unionist; after this, the upper part of the County will hear from them. At all of the places at which speeches were made, there have been good turn-outs, and especially at McCullough's and Green's Store, the colored people sometimes attending in considerable numbers. As Green's Store, on the 27th ult., Governor PEARCE addressed the assembly, and it is said in his best and most impressive manner, with most telling effect. Wherever the candidates have been, they have observed a general waking up to the importance of the election, and the urgent necessity felt by the voters of attending the polls on election day and casting their votes.

The friends of the Conservative nominees feel very sanguine as to the sentiment of a very large majority of the voters of Greenville County, and if they will but turn out, the result will be as an avalanche in their favor. Our election must be carried; therefore all work should be abandoned on Wednesday, 16th of October, instant, and the day devoted to the good of the County and State.

LOCAL MATTERS. MANAGERS OF ELECTION FOR GREENVILLE COUNTY.—In another place, under the official advertisement of Governor R. K. SCOTT, will be found the list of the Managers of Election for Greenville County. Every precinct has been provided with three managers each, as will be seen.

Rev. JAMES P. ROYCE, D. D.—Our honored fellow-townman left on the 1st inst., with his family, for Louisville, Ky., where he will spend the winter in working for the endowment of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, which is to be removed from this place to Louisville next summer, if the necessary endowment is secured. Dr. Royce came to Greenville seventeen years ago, to Professor in Furman University, and from that day to this he has been one of our most public-spirited, useful and esteemed citizens. He took a lively interest in everything that tended to promote the prosperity of our town and the highest welfare of the community. Every public improvement had his hearty co-operation and support. During the war, when the constitutional provision against ministers holding office was suspended, he consented to be one of our representatives in the Legislature of the State, where he gained great reputation by his sound judgment, financial wisdom, and ability in debate.

Since the war, he has, by extraordinary exertions and sacrifices, secured enough, year by year, from different parts of the South, to support the Theological Seminary. Besides his work as Professor, he has preached much in the surrounding country. Our town and county, and the whole State, will sustain a great loss in his removal; but his respect and best wishes of our citizens will attend him wherever he may go.

UNITED STATES COURT JURY.—Two dollars, the whole amount received by this body for the trial of civil cases, was appropriated to the Greenville Bible Society. This was a wise and creditable act on the part of the jury.

COMMUNION.—There will be quarterly Communion at the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath, 6th inst.

Gov. PERRY is now attending his appointments, as published, through the Congressional District. IMPORTANT SALES.—On sales-day a number of important sales of lands will take place, both by the Sheriff and other parties. The McBoe lands are advertised for that time, and they deserve special attention from those who desire valuable real estate. Town and county property belonging to the Estate of L. M. McBER, deceased, will also be sold.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC WEIGHTS. GREENVILLE, Oct. 1, 1872. Number of bales of Cotton weighed and marked the past week, one hundred and thirty-two, (132). A. W. McDAVID.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC WEIGHTS. GREENVILLE DEPOT, Oct. 1st, 1872. Number of bales Cotton weighed and marked the week ending October 1st, eighty-two (82) bales. M. SUBER SCRUGGS.

OUR MERCHANTS.—A number of the Greenville merchants are at present buying goods—Messrs. A. A. Foster, S. A. Towns, W. Hampton Gely, J. H. Morgan, and others; also Miss Mary A. McKay and Mrs. Lou T. Jennings.

PAY UP.—Cotton is coming in pretty freely as will be seen by the reports of the Public Weighers. We ask those indebted to call at this office and settle their subscription and other dues. $2 is a small amount from the price of a bale, but it is not so with us. Pay when you have the money. We need it very much.

CITY ATTORNEY.—At a meeting of the City Council yesterday, Capt. W. E. EARLE was unanimously elected City Attorney.

GREENEY FOR EVIL.—A day or so since, whilst one of our citizens was standing on the street, accompanied by his little son, aged about three years, a friend, now residing in another State, here on a visit, asked him who he was going to vote for, for Governor. The reply was that he didn't think he would vote for either MOSES or TOMLINSON. He then turned to the little boy and asked, "Well, my little air, who are you going to vote for?" The instant reply was, "For HORACE GREELEY and B. GRATZ BROWN."

AIR LINE RAILROAD WORKSHOPS.—We publish the extract below, from the Atlanta Constitution, of a late date, merely to show the citizens of Greenville the high estimate of the value of the workshops, as viewed by the people of the large and prosperous city of Atlanta, Ga. We are simply foolish if we should be indifferent as to their location in Greenville:

"Air-Line Workshops.—We learn that Greenville (S. C.) is making strong efforts to have the workshops of the Air Line Railroad located there, proposing to give as a bonus fifty acres of land and $200,000.—The Atlanta Constitution says that the Southern Railway Security Company, we learn, favors the location at Greenville. Atlanta is too important a point to be overlooked.—The proper location for the workshops is here. The right sort of efforts would secure the location of the shops here. Let us secure it."

TAILORING. G. B. POORE & CO. ARE well prepared at present to execute all kinds of TAILORING, having in employ a number of competent and efficient workmen, and feel that they can meet the wants of the Greenville trade. Cutting done in the latest style and fashion, and on short notice. All work warranted by them. They ask a continuance of patronage. G. B. POORE & CO. Stand, near the Post Office. Oct 2 22

For the Greenville Enterprise. Fellow Citizens: The time rapidly approaches when you will be permitted to cast your ballot for County and State officers. Greenville for the past term has been very fortunate in her principal County officers, and they are before you for re-election. Should you shoulder, then, fellow citizens. Let us earnestly sustain Sam'l J. Douthit for Judge of Probate, W. A. McDaniel for Clerk of the Court, J. L. Southerton for Sheriff, and W. H. Perry for Solicitor. They have each performed their respective duties faithfully and honestly, and deserve, and ought to receive by a large majority, a re-election at the hands of their fellow-citizens. They are from amongst you, and are well known as true and faithful officers and citizens.

Then, again, the ticket for Senator, Representatives, and the other County officers, voted by our estimable fellow-citizen for Congress, Ex-Gov. B. F. Perry, claims your vigorous support. A day to the polls—old and young—and let us by persevering action, strive to preserve what little is left to us from South Carolina Radicalism, and all may yet be well. The enemy is well organized and determined. Let us, at least, be equal to the enemy. MORE ANON.

FOR THE GREENVILLE ENTERPRISE. THOMPSON, GA., Sept. 24th, 1872. Mr. C. F. Waters—Dear Sir: I have just packed and forwarded to the St. Louis Fair, one bale of Cotton, raised from the seed of your white bloom. Presuming that you would like to hear my opinion, as to the growth of the cotton, since 1862, I have given personal attention to my farm, have tried the Jethro Zipporah and other cotton, and have well concluded that there is but little difference as to value and quality, from my favorite cotton. The seed obtained from you; however, differs materially from all I have seen, the color of stalk and leaves being very different; it also grows different from any I ever saw, bolting from the beginning, and limbs more than all other cotton; is also more prolific than any I have seen; and my experiment with it, proves that it stands the heat and dry spells that we are subject to, better than any other cotton, and is the best cotton grown for dry, sandy land. You know I had but twenty four pounds of seed; with them I planted near two and a half acres, near my house, in poor land, on the 16th May. I shall make two bales with two-thirds of a stand. For fear I would lose a seed, I planted it as I wanted it to stand; not more than two-thirds came up. I have shown the cotton to a factor of experience, who pronounced it worth from 30 to 35 per cent. more than the common varieties. I shall plant my entire crop next year in the same seed, disposing of ten or fifteen bushels to my neighbors and others. Every farmer ought to have the seed. Yours very truly, J. H. STOKTON.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Oct. 2. Cotton is selling to day at 12@14. CHARLESTON, Sept-28-72 Cotton gins and firm—good ordinary 16; low middling 17 1/2; middling 17 1/2; receipts 1317 bales; sales 411; more 14,775.
