BENATOR BUTLER'S SPEECH.

In the Senate, on Thursday, the 12th instant, Judge Butler, as previously announced, commen-oed his reply to the late speech of Senator Summer. The Baltimore Sun furnishes the following report of the first day's remarks:

Mr. Butler said that the necessity for his ad-Mr. Butler said that the necessity for as audressing the Zenate on this occasion was brought about by events over which he had no controlevents which have grown out of a controversy, from the commencement of which the Senator from Massachusetts, not now in his sent, (Mr. from Massachusetts, not now in his sent, (Mr. Sumner,) would be held exclusively responsible by his country and his God. He had delivered a speech, the most extraordinary that ever had utterance in any legislative body recognising the sanctions of law and of the Constitution. All that time Mr. Butler was not here, and what he would have done if he had been here it would now be perfectly idle to say, because no one can substitute the deliberations of a subsequent period for what might have taken place on the impulse of the moment.

His impression was, if he had been here he would have asked that Senator, before he had finished some of the paragraphs personally applicable ished some of the paragraphs personally applicable to him, to pause; and if Mr. Sumner had gone on, he would have demanded that he should retract or modify the offensive remarks, so as to bring them within the sphere of parlimentary propriety. If Mr. S. had refused to do this, what he would have done he could not exactly say, but one thing he knew, and that was, he would not have submitted to it. To what mode of redress he would have resorted he could not tell; he would at least have assumed upon himselfall the responsibilities of a Scha-tor from South Carolina—the consequences, let them fall where they might. But instead of that, that speech had involved a friend and kinsman to the extent that he had been obliged to put his for-tune and life at stake.

the extent that he had been obliged to put his fortune and life at stake.

Mr. Butler expressed the opinion that the speech of Mr. Sumner would be cordemned by the public mind of the country, and would be consigned to infamy by posterity, for the mischievous consequences which have flowed from it already, and which were likely in the future to disturb the peace and repose of the country. Mr. Butler had said nothing to justify the gross personal abuse and calumny with which he had been assailed; he had been very guarded in his remarks during the whole been very guarded in his remarks during the whole of this exciting debate. Independently of the perpersonalities which had distorted and disgraced Mr. Sumner's speech there was nothing in it to distinguish it from all his other abolition speeches.

Instead of making his own speech here, under the obligation of the Constitution, and in a dignified manner, the Senator from Massachusetts had acted as the conduit, the fing through which to pour out malignity and injustice. To conclude Theodore Parker, the Senator must make war on South Caro-lina and on himself, (Mr. Butler.) It was the purpose of that Senator to pander to the prejudice of a portion of Massachusetts. If the Senator were now here he would make him hang his head in shame and prove him a calumniator.

He accused Mr. Summer of having pretended to quote from the constitution of South Carolina that which is not found in it. One thing is certaineither the Senator did not read that constitution, or it he did, he could not understand it. [Laughter]
He noticed Mr. Sanner's charge of shameful ry war, in consequence of slavery, and refuted the ellegation that but for Northern and the South could not have costained itself in that struggle. South Carolina sent Massachusetts bread and seven y barrels of wine. The Maine law was not then in operation. [Laughter.] The very powder used by Massachusetts after the battie of Bunker Hill was furnished by South Carolina, which in the revolu-tion poured out hogshands of blood where Massachusetts poured out but gallons. He characterized the remarks of Mr. Summer applied to him as indecent, and utterly unfit to be, as they were, ut-tered in the presence of a gallery of ladies. Mr. Butler stoutly condemned the resolutions of the Massachusetts Legislature relative to the nasoult on Mr. Sumner, saying that Mr. Brooks had been indicted on mere newspaper rumor, and with a precipitancy of judgment incompatible with legislative dignity and justice. Mr. Brooks could not go into a drawing room or public place after Mr. Sumner's speech was delivered without the question being asked: "Has South Carolina chivalry escaped? and is there to be tame submission to such insults?"

He felt as if he could not look his constituents in the face without being daunted with dishonor. The Senate had before been profuned by the Senator from Massachusetts.
He (Mr. Bailer) would rather take ten blows than endure the gas of the rhetor chan pairing out calumnies a on his State. Something must, there fore, be parloned to the sensibilities of a man act and under the dictates of manhood and homer.

Without concluding Mr. Butler gave way for a motion to adjourn, which prevailed.

MR. BUCHANAN

Is a good candidate for his party, prec sely because the same of the fast and worst of that party's doings. Had be been at home in 1851, he would necessarily have been to ms us that he thinks the prospect of a stable servant man, affleted with So. it distributed in the pessage of the Nebraska bill and government now exists, and that Comonoct has its disastrous consequences. It is only the atibi been able to effect, in relation to the army and which can be proved in his behalf which renders church, what no other ruler has been able to do. him a more available caudid to than Pierce or Douglas. And those who will support him must treaty with Mexico, which gives us a line of steamsteps of those he has supplanted, and do the work, if elected, which they have left uncompleted. Nay, the mail. This somewhat anticipated the recomowes his nomination mainly to Northern votes, will be of much service to us commercially. constrain him to commit himself more utterly and abjectly to the slave power than another would need to do. And no man ever evinced a greater pliancy or subserviency to that power than James

And this is, after all, the only question of any consequence involved in the Presidential contest. Who cares whether this man or that is called to the White House, save as his election shall redound to the establishment of freedom or slavery in Kansue, all personal considerations fade into insignifi-cance. We ask not who is to be the dispenser of patronage, the wielder of power, but who will roll ek the tide of ruffian violence and gigantic hand which for two years have rendered the Territorial elections of Kansas a swindling farce, and crushed her beneath the iron heel of ruthless invaders, intent only on her subjugation to slavery, by any means and at all hazards. As we look out on the contest for which the hosts are now gathering, we hear not the roar of the cana n by which the partisans of Buchanan are bailing his triumph at Cincinnati, but rather that of the fe eral guns by which the chief edifice of Lawrence was battered down by a sheriff's posse, in obed ence to the diedown by a sheriff's posse, in obed ence to the doctor tates of a pro-slavery grand jury, while the offices of the journals which dared to plead for free labor the investigating committee, was detained prisoner for one day by Buford's men. Whith id's com-Pennsylvania to celebrate the nomination of Buchanan can never hide the lurid blaze of the burning dwellings of Governor Robinson and his compatriots, guilty of no crime but that of hating slavery and loving freedom. The cheers of ten thousand partisans, rejoicing that they have no longer to carry Pierce and Douglas on their immedi to shoulders, ring out on the evening air; but the low moans of those whom the "law and order" forces in Kansis have made widows and orphans, because their hus-bands and fathers desired and labored to make their chosen home a land of freemen and not slaves, will continue to be heard long after those cheers shall have died away. The wrongs of the free State leaders now imprisoned as traitors, or hunted from the Territory as rebels, shall yet be avenged by the be against slavery, usurpation and wrong, and in favor of justice, humanity and freedom. [New York Tribune.

SENATOR BUTLER.-The Washington Evening Star says: "a crowded and distinguished auditory left. listened on Thursday morning to Mr. Butler's speech in the Secate. A man named Sykes was mortally wounded, and Robert Warlick danmany shot in his back while endeavoring to protect his child, and Samuel Driggers was somewhat hurt. An officer with a posse is in search of the assailing party, who were well arm d, and it was feared more blood will be shed.

Some gentlemen from Georgia, who escorted Mr. Roach and his wounded child to their house Alabama, were crossing the river in a flat on their return, when they were fired upon by some persons concealed on the bank. Seven were wounded, one thought to be mortally. The latest ecount says some arrests have been made, and a large body of citizens are in pursuit of the balance of the party. The excitement is intense. It appears that the payment of toll to Averett is resisted on the ground that he established the toll gate without authority.

AN ENGLISH FILLIBUSTER REWARDED—The British East India Company has just voted Lord Dalhousie, late Governor General of India, a pension of $25,000 a year, as a mark of its appreciation of his services during his administration, by which four kingdoms, besides lesser territories, were added to the company's possessions, and an annual tribute of twenty two millions was imposed upon the inhabitants. One of the English journals, speaking of this matter, attempts to gloss this act of fillibustering by showing that misrule and revolution had | Call and see them. I will remain in town some tering by showing that misrule and revolution had ruined the country, and that to save it was necessary to appropriate it. "A wrong was done, but a great benefit was conferred." After the avowal of this doctrine as good political morality, we expect that the British journals will begin to project Walker. His conduct is certainly more justifiable than Dalhousie's, for Walker was invited into Nithan Dalhousie's was not w caragua by the people, and he assists them to main tain their own government, whereas the rulers of Punjaub, Pegu, Nagpore, and Oude had to be conquered before their territory was seized upon.

It was notorious at the World's Far in London that the American far out strip ped all others in the useful inventions which they supplied. We bent the English in vessels, railroads, telegraphs and manufactures by power. We are beating them in the scientific arts of 1 hemistry and Medicine, as we have long beat the rest of mankind. A new and practical proof of this as-sertion is shown in the fact that the principal remlies of the allied armics of the East are furnished from the laboratory of our own countrymen. Dr. J. C. Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

For COSTIVENESS.—Take one or two Pills, or such quartity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggregating events.

such quartity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Pilles, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. There will be insent.

doses — from one to four — to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the hearthurn, bodyburn, and southurn of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you. For a Four Stomach, or Morbid Inaction of the Bouels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the system.

For Neurousness, Sick Headacher, Nausea, Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear these and their kindred dis-do. These complaints will be swept out the system. Don't went these and their kindred disorders because your stomach is foul.

FOR SCROPPLA, ERYSTPELAS, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Fills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many deadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by dreadful uters and some have been healed up by dreadful uters and some have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. alterns' your duty to society forbids that you should parade yourself around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the rkin, because your system wants cleansing.

To PURITY THE BLOOD, they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff before the wind. By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every Where.

LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious Affections, arise from some derangement — either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the dust which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveress, or alternately costiveness and diarrhea, prevaits. Feverish symptoms, languer, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes in ability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels sore to the tonch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious distributed, dysenterly, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

Hieumatism, Gout, and all Inflammatory Feters, are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimums which they afford to the vital principal of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, but freely.

As a DINNER PILL, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take, and certainly none has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinner pill is employed.
