For the tears that dimmed my sight
Come up closer to me, sister,
Lut me lean upon thy breast;
For my tide of life is cobing,
And I fain would be at rest,
Read the letters he has written—
He whose voice I've often heard—
Read them over, love, distinctly,
That I lose not e'en a word.
Tell him, sister, when you see him,
That I never ceased to love;
That I dying, prayed to meet him
In a better home above;
Tell him that I ne'er upbraided,
Ne'er a word of censure spoke, Ne'er a word of censure spoke, Though his silence and his absence My heart had well-nigh broke. And heart had well-nigh broke.

Tell him that I watched his coming,
When the noon-tide sun was high,
And when at eve the angels
Lit their star lamps in the sky;
And when I saw he same not,
Tell him that I did not chide,
But that I ever loved him.

That I blessed him when I died.

When in the grave's white garments You have wrapped my form around And have laid me down to slumber In the quiet church-yard ground; Place the pictures and the letters Close against my pulseless heart, We for years have been together, And in death we may not part.

I am rendy now, door sister;
You may read the letters o'er,
I will listen to the words of him.
Whom I shall see no more;
Should I calmly fall asleep—
Fall asleep in death—and wake not,
Gentle sister, do not weep.

THE LADY'S YES. "Yes!" I answered you last night; "No!" this morning, sir, I say! Colors seen by candle light Will not took the same by day. When the labors play'd their best,

Lamps above and Laughs below Love me, sounded like a jest, Fit for Yes or fit for No! Call me false or call me free-

Vow, whatever light may shine, No man on thy face shall se e Any grief for change on mine.

Time to dance is not to woo-Wooer light makes tickle troth-Scorn of me recoils on you! Learn to win a lady's faith

Nobly as the thing is high; Bravely, as for life and death— With a boyal gravity. Lead her from the festive boards, Point her to the starry skies, Guard her, by your truthful words, Pure from courtship's flatteries.

By your truth she shall be true -Ever true, as wives of yore— And her Yes, once said to you, Shall be yes for evermore.

Trial of Mr. Brooks.

As we mentioned last week, the trial Mr. Brooks has terminated before the Criminal Court for his assault upon Sumner. The latter affected such delicacy of health the precepts of my youth, which are sanctioned by the experience and judgment of the mild tones that explained it. We were maturer years, I submit my case to the distributions of the court, with entire confidence. enough to undertake the journey to Boston, and accordingly absquatulated. The Washington Star says :

"Gentlemen who saw him [Sumner] on the morning of the day before, as he was tion. Yet, it seems that those who have judges. him in custody are determined to play out to the end the game of public deception with reference to his conditions. We shall not be surprised to learn that he enters Boston on crutches, with head shaved and bound up, and limbs trembling as though bending under the weight of a half a cen-if his appearance in the court house at the recent trial would not have exploded the frambug, he would surely have been there to confront his assailant. The act of run ning him off at such a time, pretty much as the thing is done on the under ground railroad involves positive proof of the false pretences and humbuggery of the current Republican party representations concerning his condition, and it is so appreciated in this city."

The Star gives another fact of significance, exploding abolition lies:

"In his testimony before the Criminal Court, in the trial of Mr. Bracks, of S. C., Senator Toombs stated explicitly that Mr. Sumuer's desk was in its place after Mr. S. had arisen and was standing creet. No statement from Mr. T. Now the Republiimpression that Mr. Sumner was pinioned by his desk, and overturned it from its fastenings in his effort to rise. This misrepresentation of the fact in that particular, their light on the mave of the church. Th rest by the uncontradicted testimony of Senator Toombs.

As there was no presecutor present, Mr. Books plead guilty to the indictment, and

May it please your Honor; May I be permitted to say a world! [Judgo Craw-ford—certainly.] I appear in person before this honorable court simply to receive its judgment. I would have preferred that the person upon whom the assault was committed had been present to answer whether or not his speech which libelled my State and my blood was printed before its delivery in the Senate. I feel confident that under oath he could not have denied this fact, which, with due deference to your-honor, I regard as material to my defence, inasmuch as a libel is contrary to law, and to that extent would operate in extenuation of my

> I would like to have inquired of him; in person, as to the degree of his personal injuries, and to have been informed in what way he could reconcile that part of his the assault was made with the sentence in his testimony before the Investigating compelled to answer under onth as to the violence of the first blow, which, I aver, was but a tap, and intended to put him on his guard.

But, sir, he is conveniently and delibe ratily absent, and on travel, notwithstand-ing but six days ago this case was postpon-ed on account of his extreme indisposition and the materiality of his testimony; and yet, with all these disadvantages, I prefer to receive the judgment of the court than an intelligent and wholesome public opinous jury, always has, and always will, control the law, and popular sentiment will applaud what the books may condemn.

It is the glory of the law that it is found ed in reason. But can that reasoning be just which is not regardful of human feelings? Sir, no one knows better than yourself that such a reproach does not rest upon our jurisprudence; for, even the stern letter of the law touches with tenderness the has hand who slays in the act the usurper of his bed. The child who kills in defence of its parent is excused by the law, which is

By a parity of reasoning patriotism is reward it, and to perpetuate the names of those who are its exemplars—and can it be accepted, will it be required, that I, with a heart to feel and an arm to strike, shall patiently hear and ignobly submit while my political mother is covered with insult, and obloquy, and dishonor? while her character is slandered, and her reputation libelled?

Sir, the substance which I have been gathering for my children may be squan dered, my body may be consigned to the common jail, my life itself may be forfeited, but I will be true to the instincts of my nature - true to the home of my maturity, and to the mother that bore me.

The first political lesson which my ripen ing faculties fully comprehended and appre ciated was the high moral and social obli gation of every citizen to bow himself to the majesty of the law. In obedience to that while you, sir, as a magistrate, perform your whole duty to the country and your-self, you will remember that in every regulated community public opinion distinguish es between crime and honorable resentment about leaving Washington in the cars, con-ceive that he never looked in better conditimes seek in the magnanimity of their

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Brooks' remarks, Judge Crawford announced a fine of $300.

Christoning of the Imperial Prince.

The christening of the Imperial Prince tury of premature years.

The di tant reader may rely on it, that church was gandy and magnificent. The Moniteur describes the scene at the church:

New aisles had been erected, with a vaulted roof of cerulean blue, bespangled with golden stars. The lancet arches were peaked out with green, yellow, crimson and gold. Windows of an ephemeral character, but so admirably done that they almost vied in beauty with those that were really painted, helped to fling a soft light of rich harmony over a scene which would take half of your columns adequately to describe. The centre of the cross which consti-tutes the edifice had a high altar creeted, over which was suspended from the top- of the blue vaulted roof a rich purple canopy, spangled with bees.

On one side on a row of graduated benches sat the eighty-four bishops of France in witness for the prosecution contradicted this their gorgeous robes. There were the four archbishops on a fauteuil by themselves. cans have been endeavoring to create the The cardinals, in crimson, on another opposit. In front of the altar, with a font be tween, was placed a throne for the Emperor and Empress. Thousands of lustres flung which is an important one, is thus set at sun shot its glorious rays through the colored windows, and when the imperial party, the Legislative and Senatorial bodies, the thousands of beautiful women in those delicious toilettes du soir, all with baptismal veils, were all assembled, the effect of this light was beyond measure enchanting.

The Emperor and Empress and the Prince Imperial entered with a fanfaronade of trumpets. The Cardinal Legate received them. All the congregation rose, and the church, from the roof to the floor, was one vast mass of human beings in their habits of ceremo ny. The imperial child was presented to the fout, and as the Papal Legate raised it in his arms amid the deathless silence of all, it uttered a long, loud, sharp, but still plaintive cry, which attracted the sympathy of all present. Every one hoped to break the silence, and make some exclamation indicative of human sympathy. The Emperor smiled, and the Empress, spite of the solemnity, bent her head over the little

Then took place attestation, the Emperer doing so first; the Princess Mathilde and statement as to the words used by me when the other Princesses doing the same magnificently, saluting their Majesties, as passwhich immediately succeeds this language, ing before them with their supurb trains, upheld by their retainers, they proceeded were caught up, and an air expressly com-posed for this occasion was chanted by the not suppose—this country is to remain unwhole choir, with the words: "Vive UEm- represented in America.

percur! Vive, Vive le Prince Imperial!" [London Illustrated News, June 21.

THE THEXDEARR SINGS LOW. The London Times, of June 16, says:

"The question regards Mr. Crampton per-sonally, and the American Cabinet declares that no discourtesy to England is intended. We certainly think that his conduct is far from blameless. He appears to have acted with great levity, and to have never suffito continue in suspense.

I have already accomplished more than half of the jouncey of life, and this is the first time that it has been my misfortune to be arraigned before any judicial tribunal as a breaker of any law of my country. I confess, sir, and without shame, that my his conduct had involved him in difficulties, sensibilities are disturbed by my novel po- persisted in keeping him there until it besition, and I have but to express my proposed upon me by own sense of right and ed, is an act which reflects on the Govern the sentiment of the gallant people it is my ment as well as himself. It only remains pride and honor to represent, I am con- to consider how such an act must be met. strained as a consequence to approach you In such a case a Government should not as a violator and not as a maker of the laws. certainly lose sight of its own dignity, nor In extenuation of my offence, permit me yet, on the other hand, forget that the cirto say that no extraordinary power of in- counstances of an act may alter the manner vention is requisite to imagine a variety of in which we should receive it. No doubt, personal grievances which the good of so should our Government decide on breaking ciety, and even public morality require to off intercourse with Mr. Dallas, they will be redressed; and yet no adequate legal rem- be justified by the usual practice on such edy may be had. So also are those cases occasions. But the American Government which may full under the condemnation of has, in addition to expressions of good will, the letter of the law, and yet like consider which greatly diminish the significance of rations will restrain its penalties. The villain their eact, made what we must consider who perverts the best feelings of the better great concessions on a subject of much more sox, and rewards unsuspecting devotion intrinsic importance than the culistment with ruin, may bid defiance to this honorablo court. But where a sister's dishonor is blotted out with the blood of her destroyer, ought not to disregard. After declaring throughout the whole controversy that its ion, embodied in an intelligent and virtu- own view of the Central American question admitted of no dispute, and that arbitration was inapplicable in the case, it constitutes its Minister at this Court a plenipotentiary to arrange the matter, and gives him, in case an understanding is not arrived at, the power of consenting to arbitration, and naming an arbitrator. If, then, we dismiss Mr. Dallas, we commit ourselves to an apour jurisprudence; for, even the stern letter proval of a Minister whose conduct it is im its parent is excused by the law, which is ever regardful of the virtuous impulses of difficulty, which a week ago no one could have expected. On the other hand, if we keep Mr. Dallas, we pocket an affront, but regarded by every nation upon earth as the at the same time take advantage of a concardinal political virtue. Sons are made to the consideration of our statesmen."

Returning to the subject after the decision of her Majesty's Government had been made known, the Times of June 17 asks: "Could they with propriety send back the American Minister when the American Government had brought themselves to aver that they had on this point no quarrel with our government, but only just cause for offence with its agent? Could they with propriety suspend diplomatic intercourse with a government which expressed a strong desire to continue it, notwithstanding the alleged provocation to the contrary? At all events, could they not, without loss of honor, accept the overtures of peace made to soften a painful, but inevitable act of offence? Undoubtedly the American Government has carefully so put the matter that our dismissal of its Minister would be after all, the safer course. * In saying that the United States Govern Sagren of Washington. -The followwithout giving offence, the other without thing we have loss of honor-we do not for one moment "General Washington is now in the 17th blink the fact, that the result, so far, is any year of his age; he is a tall, well made of annovance, for the future "

English Ambassadors to the United States

There is one point in the future relations of the two countries on which sufficient at tention has not yet been bestowed by the British Government. Whenever the Ameri cans have to appoint an Ambassador to London, they select the very best and most illustrious man at their command. They may not always have the best man for the President, but they never fail to send one of their worthiest men to the Court of St. James. It is the "crack" Embassy-the highest in rank, in honor, and in influence. But the British Government does not return the compliment.

The Americans thick that an Embas Washington should be as important to the English people as an Embassy to Paris, Berlin, Vienna or St. Petersburg. But the British Government think Washington of less consequence than Lisbon or Munich The Americans are right, and the English Government wrong, in this respect. When we next send an Ambassador to Washington, let a man of acknowledged talent, and of high rank, be selected; and the American people will take it as an earnest of our respect and good will towards them. Among such men as Lord Carlisle, Lord Granville, and Lord John Russell - if either of those eminent persons would accept the post -it would not be difficult to make a choice that would be acceptable to America and advantageous to England. Lord John Russell labored under some disadvantage a monster, at Vienna, from his comparative ignorance of the French, and his total ignorance of there would be no disqualification on this the American people. If the Government such a little thing as a switch." country, and entitle himself, as a pacificator, resuming her paper; "well, you need not to the respect of America and the gratitude talk about it, my son, go on with your lesof England.

"While these words were passing from his [my] lips he commenced a succession of blows with a heavy cane on my barelead, ed: "Vive I Empereur! Prince Imperial!" The congregation caught it up, and the church from all points rang with the glorisoner or later bethink itself of raising the Embassy at Washington to the dignity that But, if for any reason Lord John Russell the dignity and the responsibility, there are said by somebody, who pretends to know prisoner .- Edge field Advertiser.

A TURILLING SCENE, -A sub-marine diver from Bulfialo has at last succeeded in raising the safe of the American Express Company, which was lost when the steamer Atlantic was sunk off Long Point in 1852. It will be recollected that this steamer was instantly sunk by collision with a propeller, it first went down. When the diver alight- bridge, refused to sustain the dismissal. ed upon the deck, he was saluted by a beautiful lady, whose clothing was well arranged, and her hair elegantly dressed.

As he approached her, the motion of the water caused an oscillation of the head as gracefully bowing to him. She was in their arms, were there. In the cabin the ome careful and tasteful hand.

In the office he found a safe, and rvation. There was in the safe $5,000 in old, $3,500 in bills of the Government Stock Bank, and a large amount of bils on other banks, amounting in all to about $36,000. The papers were uninjur ed, except that they smelled very strongly of decayed human bodies, as if it had lair for many years in a coffin with their own er. Of course, all this money goes to the persons interested in the wonderful advenure. - Detroit Advertiser.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST ON THE Sincinnati resolutions:
"The dectrine is, therefore, only covertly xpressed in the resolutions. These declare northern farmer is of his oxen, in spite of paying these places a visit.—Philadelphia Congress and the Territorial Legislature Evening Post. But," the settlers of the territories ask. have we no power over the question of davery within our limits," "Oh, certainly, answer Mr. Buchanan and the Cincinnati Convention, "full, ample, entire power-subject only to the restraints of the Consti tution. You can do precisely what you please with slavery, but then you must do it at the proper time, and the proper time in the barks and other materials used is when, after having passed through the stage of territorial existence, you frame a Constitution with a view of being received.

into the Union." "In other words, this whole pretence of illowing the people of the territory a voice in the formation of their own institutions a falsehood. According to the Cincinna ti resolutions adopted by Mr. Buchanan, the institution of slavery is already estabthe mild tones that explained it. We were at listed in the territories, ander the doctrine of equality in the States. As inhabitants of the territory the settlers have no power over it; it is only as citizens of a newly formed State that they can expel n."

[Scient: Issued in the territories, ander the doctrine of equality in the States. As inhabitants of the territory the settlers have no power over it; it is only as citizens of a newly formed State that they can expel n."

[Scient: Issued in the territories, ander the doctrine of equality in the States. As inhabitants of the territory the settlers have no power over it; it is only as citizens of a newly formed State that they can expel n."

[Scient: Issued in the territories, ander the doctrine of equality in the States. As inhabitants of the territory the settlers have no power over it; it is only as citizens of a newly formed State that they can expel n."

ment has adopted a half-measure, and that, ing personal description of Washington, our Government has met it more thun half copied from the London Chronicle, July 22, way; in admitting that both sides had a right to do what they have done—the one tion of his personal appearance than any

have no disposition to slur over that fact, color; and countenance sensible, composed for we are not without hope that the British | and thoughtful. There is a remarkable air people will be rather less liable to this species of dignity about him, with a striking degree of gracefulness; he has an excellent understanding, without much quickness; is strictly just vigilant and generous; an af fectionate husband, a faithful friend, a father to the deserving soldier; gentle in his manners, in temper rather reserved; a total stranger to religious prejudices, which have so often excited christians of one denominaion to cut the threats of those of another his morals he is irreproachable, and was ever known to exceed the bounds of the nost rigid temperance; in a word, all his friends and acquaintances universally allow that no man ever united in his own person philosopher with the talents of a general; candor, sincerity, affability and simplicity seem to be the striking features of his character, till an occasion offers of displaying the most determined bravery and indepen-

> THE DRUNKARD'S WILL.- I leave to soety a ruined character, a wretched example, and memory that will soon rot.

I leave to my parents during the rest well bring on them. I leave to my wife a broken heart, a life of wretchedness, a shame to weep over my premature death. I give and bequeath to each of my children poverty, ignorance, a low character, the German language; but at Washington account of a railroad accident, was much her assistance. surprised to learn that the locomotive had account; and his high talents, his estimabn been driven off the track by one of the character, and his illustrious career would switches. "She shouldn't have the't," said recommend him to the cordial reception of she, "that the great iron engine would mind the many which he has conferred upon his . Oh, that indeed," replied the old lady, all about it, that the following is a sure remedy for a felon :

"Take a pint of common soft soap, and sistency of glazier's putty. Make a leather thimble,' fill it with this composition, and insert the finger therein. Change this composition once in twenty minutes, and a cure is certain."

THE DISMISSAL OF CRAMPTON,-The fol-

and that a large number of passengers were in favor of dismissing Dallas. They belost. The diver was projected by copper came convinced that a large majority of the armor, and was under water forty minutes. House of Commons would oppose the measthe upper dock of the steamer lies one ure, and that public opinion; including that came convinced that a large majority of the hunderd and sixty feet under water, and of the Court, was strongly against them. far below where there is any current or motion. Everything therefore is exactly as I was at the House fast evening, and it was a most interesting scene-the House was crowded by members and the galleries by strangers.

Lord John Russell spoke with great seriousness, and everybody felt that it was a standing erect, with one hand grasping the rigging. Around lay the bodies, as if sleeping. Children holding their friends by their hands, mothers with their babes ty intense. At the announcement that they furniture was still untouched by decay, and had determined not to suspend relations to all appearance had just been arranged by with the American Minister, there was a perfect thrill of emotion and satisfaction. So close the Cabinet kept the matter, that when enabled to move it with ease, took it upon I arrived at Mr. Dallas's to congratulate deck, where the grappling irons were fas- him, he had not received the slightest intitened on, and the prize brought safely to mation as to his fate, and I had the very the light. Upon opening the safe it dis-played its contents in a perfect state of pre-and his family.

Who Owns 'EM?-We notice a large number of boys wandering about the city, who, as we suppose, flust be lost. They are for the most part very well dressed wearing long coats, tight pantaloons, shiny hats and boots, and generally carry small causes in their kid-gloved hands. From the manner in which they stare at the ladies that pass them, we infer they are trying to find their mothers. Why don't our charitable citizens get up an asylum for these poor children? It is a shame to allow them to DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.-This Black Re- be wandering about the city by themselves publican representative thus speaks of the in this manner. They are much more fit to be in the nursery. The kind-hearted keepers of taverus and billiard saloons allow them a refuge in their establishments, and the equality of the States, and the equality of the States makes a southern negro in the territories as much property as a northern day and night, these unfortunates crowd bemule, and a southern slave owner as much neath their hospitable roofs. Parents in the master of the negroes he brings in as a search of their sons will hear of them by

> CHEMICAL ANALYSIS IN THE PATENT OF-FIGE. -Dr. C. T. Jackson, of Boston, has been engaged by the Agricultural department of the Patent Office to travel through the country and make chemical analysis of various kinds, with a view to determining the amount of nutriment in different kinds by tanners-the determination of the amount of phosphorie acid in the soils on the scaboard, supposed to be exhausted, as compared with the virgin soils of the West. and other matters connected with soils. He will analyze the cotton plant-sea Is land and upland-also the soils in which they are grown; also various grasses, and the soils best adapted to their cultivation. Scientific American.

TRUTH WELL UTTERED .- In his speech upon the occasion of the death of Judge

"How often is it said that life is but dream - a shadow! This cold and mi chiev ous dogma of a fa'se philosophy is some believe that we are in the midst of dream realities. Let us understand that we have blink the fact, that the result, so far, is any thing but flattering to the pride of this age; he is a tall, well made thing but flattering to the pride of this age; he is a tall, well made the country. If there are any people in the United States capable of gratification at the fact, we certainly have been touched in our honor, and we submit with as much grace honor. Let us know that each idle already entered upon that course of being and unconsidered word will bear its own account to the Eternal Judgment Seat; and then shall we begin to have juster conceptions of our duties and our responsibilities.

Bishop Marley had a good deal of the humor of Swift. Once, when the footman was out of the way, he ordered the conchman to fetch some water from the well. To this the coachman objected, saying, that his business was to drive, not to run on errands. "Well, then," said Marley, "bring out the ceach and four, set the pitcher in side, and drive to the well"-a service which was several times repeated, to the great amusement of the village.

"Come here, my lad," said an attorney a more perfect alliance of the virtues of a to a boy about nine years old. The boy came and asked what case was to be tried next? The lawyer answered. "A case between the people and the devil; which do you think will be most likely to gain the action?" The boy replied, "I guess it will be a very hard squeeze—the people have the most money but the devil has the most

Elliott Smith was, and may be is, a cele brated upholsterer, and good-natured auctheir lives as much sorrow as humanity, in a feeble and decrepid state, can sustain. tioneer at Cambridge, England, whose body exceeded in dimensions the proper corporaexceeded in dimensions the proper corpora I leave to my brothers and sisters, as tion standard; on him a Trinity wag wrote much mortification and injury as I could the following lines:

If flesh be grass, as some tolks say, Then Elliott Smith's a load of hay.

Saven by Hoors .- A young lady of Charlestown, Mass., while crossing Warren Bridge on Thursday evening, fell through and the remembrance that their father was the draw, in consequence of too much haste, a monster. officacy of hoop-skirts in preventing her from sinking while a boat was coming to Luciada Parlam and others, Luciada Parlam and others, SHOCKING. - Mrs. Partington, reading an from sinking while a boat was coming to

A LIGHTNING WELL BORER. - During a recent thunder storm at Kensington, N. II., the lightning descended perpendicularly in the American people. If the Government such a fitte tining as a switch could be induced to offer, and his Lordship to accept the mission, the author of the Resid 1 the, gravely, "the locomotive has a soon filled up with good water.

Nor GUILTY .- The negro who killed Mr. Styron, which unfortunate circumstance we mentioned several weeks ago, has since been tried for murder and is acquitted. Mr. A SURE REMEDY FOR A FELON. -It is McGowan, of Abbeville, appeared for the

In digging a well at Mentz recently, the workmen discovered a large fragment of a stir in air-slacked lime till it is of the con- printing press, bearing the initials of Guttenberg, and the date 1441, in Roman char-

> The following contains the alphabet: John P. Brady gave me a walnut box of quite a small size.

ODD FELLOWS' SCHOOL

Fellows will open their SCHOOL in the Old Male Academy, under the control of DAVID R. DUNCAN, A. B.

Mr. Duncan is a son of Professor Duncan, of Wofford College, and a graduate of Bandolph Macon College, Virginia. His destinguish of scholarrhip and moral character are full and stisfactory. In starting an enterprise of the kind by the Lodge, it is indeed gratifying that one are two roughly prepared for the office of tescher as Mr. Duncan has been selected and consents to take charge of the school.

The established rates of tuition have heretofors excluded many from the advantages of education. With a view to benefit such, and all who may avail themselves of the facilities of a cheap and thorough education, we append the following table of charges, so reduced as to make it available. Primary Department—including Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, and Primary Geography, per session of five mouths. $6.00

Chairmar Board Trustees.

S. W. GILLILAND. GENERAL COMMSSION AGENT.

NEWBERRY, S. C.

RESPECTFULLY offers his services to all three who trade at Newberry, as their General Commission Agent, for the disposal of their Cotton and other produce. Will give his personal attention to Receiving, Selling, Storing or Shipping of Cotton and all kinds of produce intrusted to his

are. Having made arrangements with different Houses, he is now prepared to make liberal advances on Cotton shipped to Charleston.

Will also pay the highest market cash prices on delivery for all the Wheat, Flour, Corn and other produce that can be brought to this market for

le. An experience of several years business at this place, in all its various forms, induces him to believe that be can promote the interest of planters, and opes by prompt attention to merit a liberal share opes by prompt attention to merit a liberal share of patronage. Charges for selling or shipping botton 25 cents per bale, all other transactions in accordance with custom. The best of references

Until the first of January next he may be found about the Store Room formerly occupied by Mesers. W. G. & J. F. Glen.

S. T. AGNEW. Yewberry Court House,

Importer and Dealer
IN HARDWARE, PAINTS, OILS, WINDOW GLASS, GROCERIES GENER.
ALLY, DRY GOODS, HATS,
SHOES, AND CLOTHING, &C., &C., AND
BUYER OF CCTTON
AND OTHER COUNTRY PRODUCE, has now in above one of the beginst and most wait.

has now in store one of the largest, and most varied Stock of Goods in South Carolina, and is prepared their interest. I am always in the market for the purchase of COTTON and COUNTRY PRODUCE generally, and planters will find it generally to their interest, by colling on me before making their arrangements elsewhere.

S. T. AGNEW. Importer of English Hardware.

Fisk's Patent Burial Cases!

Cabinet Making.

HE is also a CABINET MAKER, and preared to furnish New Cabinet Ware at short no-Spartanburg, below the Court Heuse.

Also a fine assortment of PARLOR CHAIRS,

$500 REWARD.

Will pay the above reward to any one who will lodge my negro man HAMP in the Juli Spattaniurg or Union. Said boy has been abut from my plantation near three years. rmerly belonged to Sarah Burnett, of Spartanburg Detrief. He is well set, about forty years old, 5 feet.
10 inches high, blind in one ove and a blacksmith by trade.

Coldwell, Union District, Dec. 20 44 16,

MUSIC! A VERY large selection of the best and latest improved PI-RAMSAY'S PIANO FORTE AND MUSIC STORE, COLUMBIA, S. C.

He invites a special examination of the late patented improvements in Hallet, Davis & Co's celebrated Pianes, Every piane is guarantied.

June 28 19

Commissioner's Notice.

A Lt. Guardians, Trustees, Receiving Com-mittees and other Persons authorized to make anual returns, are hereby notified to make up and their annual accounts to me on or by first of March next. The items of expenditure must be vouched. Rules will be issued against all Defauters. THO, O. P. VERNON, c. E. s. D. Comr's Office, Jan. 3 45 tf.

R. D. OWEN. TAILOR.

HAS RETURNED TO SPARTANBURG. LOCATE PERMANENTLY.

He may be found at No. ... Brick Bange, on Church street, where he will be very happy to see his old friends, and ready TO SERVE THEM CHEAP FOR CASH.

IN EQUITY Spartanburg.

37

Bill for account, &c.
T appearing to the satisfaction of this Court' that 1 Lucinda Parham, (widow of William Farham,) and George Parham, Richard Parham, and Joseph Parlam, minors, resident beyond the limits of this State: It is, on motion of Bobo, Complainants' Solicitor, ordered, that they appear and plead, answer or demur, to Complainants' Bill, within the months from the date hereof, or the same will I taken pro confesso against them.
THO. O. P. VERNON, c. E. S. D. Comr's. Office, April 27

Machinery and Paint Oil.

UST RECEIVED at FISHER & HEIN TSH! Drag Store 75 gallous Spring Strained Sperm Oil, 100 "Tanners Oil, 100 "Linseed Oil,

" Castor Oil, 30 "Sweet Oil, with a large assertment of Palais in Oil, Brushes, Dye Stuffe, &c. June 26 18 if

SPARTANPURUS "APOTHEOARY'S HALL DRUG AND CAMICAL STORE

15 LOCATED IN SPANTINGUE OFFICE THE COURT HOUSE. THE subscribers respectfully sall the attention of the citizens of Spartanburg, and of the adjacent austricts, to their NEW DRUG AND CHEMICAL STORE, located in the rillage of Spartanburg, where will always be found a full supply of FRESH AND GNUINE MEDICINES,

Mr. HENRY E. HEINTTH will have the entire management of the store, and all PHAR-MACEUTICAI/PREPARATION will be made by himself, or under his immediate supervision. This gives to the community the assurance that all articles from their store are genuine, and its accordance with the prescribed rules of the U.S. Plantageousia.

necordance with the prescribed rules of the U.S. Pharmacopein.

They desire also to state that their connection with the WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DRUG ESTABLISHMENT at Columbia will enable them to receive and supply large orders at very low prices. Physicians, Plasters and Merchants, will do well to call and examine the stock and prices, and judge for themselves.

THEIR STOCK WILL CONSIST OF

DRUGS. MEDICINES & CHEMICALS DYE-WOODS, AND BYE-STUPPS, VARNISHES, Window Glass and Putty, Glass ware FRENCH, ENGLISH

FINE TOLLET AND SHAVING SOAPS, TOOTH BRUSHES, PAINT BRUSHES, SURGICAL AND DENTAL

INSTRUMENTS. trusses & supporters OF ALL KINDS, SPICES, SNUFFS, MANUFACTURED TOBACCO.

All the Patent or Proprietary MEDICINES OF THE DAY. Superior Inks. URE WINES AND BRANDIES FOR

MEDICINAL PURPOSES. CELEBRATED GARDEN SEEDS

FANCY ARTICLES. We make our purchases for cash, and offer goods equally as low as they can be obtained from my similar establishment in this section. Warranted to be Fresh, Pure and Genuine. Orders from the country promptly filled, and distraction guaranteed, with regard both to price and quality. FISHER & HEINITSH, Pharmaceutists and Dispensing Chemists an 3

BOOKS! BOOKS!!

THE subscribertakes this method to inform th H.F. subscribertakes this method to inform the edizens of the Village and surrounding country, that he is now receiving a good stock of NEW BOOKS, at his Book Store, No. 5, Main-street, opposite the Court House, such as are generally used in Colleges, Academics and common English Schools. A large variety of

MISCELLANEOUS BOOKS.

Composition or vermin.

BITSUELEAN EUGS BOOKS, conformations of Christians, together with a large assortinent of EAMLY PIPLES.

FAMILY BIBLES prices from $2.00 to $10 00; small BIBLES, from 50 ocuts to $1,50 and $2.00; TESTAMENTS from filters cents to $1.00. PRAYER BOOKS. at various prices.

Also a variety of small religious books, toy books, and Primers.

A good lot of Foolscap, Letter, Commercial and Note Paper. Envelopes from common to the finest. Black, Blue and Red Ink.

NEW MUSIC FOR THE PIANO. Jail Between 500 and 1,000 new pieces for the Piano, from the best composers, the greatest variety ever offered in the up-country. (We hope the ladies will call and supply themselves.)
I have made permanent arrangements will real large look Houses in Philadelphia and New York, to exchange my Music Work—the

SOUTHERN HARMONY,

at CASH PRICE, for their Books, &c., at eash prices, fiett. I will, therefore, be able to sell Books and Stationery lower than they have ever been gold in Spartamburg; and as I des re to do an entire cash) usiness, if the people will call with their mency, I think they will be satisfied that they can buy Books, &c., from me, as cheap as they can (at re il) in Columbia or Charleston.

RECALL AND SEE. OF WILLIAM WALKER, A. S. H. School teachers supplied on liberal terms. S. If any person should call for a Book or Books, that I have not got, I will immediately order them if they desire it.

N. B. The New Edition of the Southern Han MOEY, kept constantly on hand, wholesale and re tail, at the CASH BOOK STORE.

Notice.

May 17

A LL persons indebted to the firm of KIRBY & WILSON are hereby earnestly requested to come forward and make immediate payment. Money we want and money we must have—our business requires it. We had rather not sue. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Sept 20 31 If KIRBY & WILSON.

Look Out for Boarding. THE SUBSCRIBER has opened the house formerly occupied by Hiram Mitchell, near the Methodist Church, in Spartanburg Village, for the reception of BOARDERS. Can accommodate fifteen or twenty with comfortable rooms and lodging at the customary rates of board in this place. Feb 7 50 6m T. W. WATERS.

India Chologogue.

A N unfuling remedy for Fever and Ague, and A unfuling remedy for Fever and Ague, and other Bilions Diseases. The speedy and permanent refer afforded by the CHOLOGOGUE arises from the prompt and healthy actica upon the Blood, cleansing it from bile and restoring it to purity. Thus striking at the root, its teadency is not simply to suspend disease, but to remere the cause on which it depends. Sold by

June 26 13 1f FISHER & HEINITSH.

Store House to Sell or Rent. ME subscriber proposes to Sell or Rent one of the most eligiate mercantile stands in the town A. F. GOLDING.

J. M. ELFORD, MAGISTRATE LAW OFFICE, ON CHURCH STREET

ALSO AGENT A Sovereign Remedy.

FOR all bowel affections, is JACOBS' COR.
DIAL. Geta bottle and try it. For sale by
FISHER & HEINITSH,
June 26 18 if Wholesale and Retail Agents

Spartanburg, March 6 1856

A Sovereign Remedy.

of the Southern Matual Life and at Columbia, and the Southern Mutual Life and the Columbia, and the Southern Matual Life and the Columbia and t