FATAL DUEL.

· It is known to many of our readers that a duel was fought near Charleston, on Mouday, 29th ult., between Edward Magrath and W. R. Taber, jr. one of the editors of the Charleston Mercury. Mr. Taber fell at the third fire, the ball taking effect in his forehead. He survived but an hour.

This unfortunate occurrence grew out of the pub lication in the Mercury of a series of three articles reviewing the claims of Judge A. G. Magrath to the position of Representative in Congress from Charleston District. Regarding them as grossly personal, the brother of Judge Magrath sent a peremptory challenge to Messrs. Heart and Taber, and the death of Mr. Taber was the consequence of the Without giving an opinion upon the cause quarrel, we may say that the death of W. R. Taber is a public calomity 'He was a noble hearted gentleman-ardent in all that engaged his mind or enlisted his feelings. Gifted in oratory, brilliant in writing, his contributions to the political literature of the State had already, in his brief career, challenged attention abroad in the country and admiration at home. Thoroughly Southeen, his efforts had been sedulously bent upon bringing up the mind of his section to the great issue soon to be tried between the South and North. And, in this point of view, however we may have differed with him as to time and means, we regard his death a great loss to the State.

COL. ORR'S SPEECH.

Our Representative, Col. James L. Orr, address. ed a large assemblage of his constituents in the village on Sale-day.

He gave a succinet history of the action of fanati cism during the recept session of Congress-from the contest for Speaker down to the final passage of the Army Appropriation bill at the Extra Session, and then entered upon the general politics of the country, as involved in the Presidential canvass. He regarded Mr. Buchanan as entirely reliable, judging him by all his antecedents, and hoped for his election. This was exceedingly problematical, bowever, and late events had shaken his confidence in such an issue of the contest. While he did not avow the opinion to cause panic or needless alarm, it was due to truth and frankness to say, that he regarded the election of Fremont by no means imrobable. Should it take place, it ought to revolu tionize the Government, because Mr. Fremont must illustrate the policy of the fanatical Black Republican party which put him in power, and that policy would deny to the South the equality guarantied by the Constitution. For himself, he would strike against all Governments that did not give us equality of rights and privileges.

Col. Orr reviewed the late elections, showing how rapidly the Northern mind is absorbing Black thus writes from Indianapolis to the Baltimore Republican doctrines. Unlike other occasions: where there were evasious and deceptions, the Democratic party are now meeting the issue, and defending the guarantees of the Constitution. At this point, he alluded to the dissatisfaction existing with some of our editors upon the doctrine of squatter sovereignty. He believed it impossible to satisfy some men. They would oppose anything upon a quibble. Propose to carry them to Heaven, Enoch-like, and they would grumble at it as unusual and unauthorized. We denied to Congress the power to legislate slavery into or out of the Territories. How then could a Territorial Legislature exercise the power? He put it to his auditors whether it was not absurdity to suppose the creature (the Territorial Legislature) could do what the Creator (Congress) could no:! Squatter sovereign. ty meant only that the people, when they assemble in convention to frame a constitution, preparatory to admission into the Union as a State, had the power to say in their organic law what institutions they would or would not have.

Reverting to the sectional issue, he said if the mind of the South is made up not to live under business in the way of speech-making in that region. Black Republican domination, it mattered little how soon the issue was made -- the sooner the better. The question cannot be adjourned more than four to one made by Speaker Banks a week before, years, fudging by the necumulating Northern sen- stated that the American party were friends of the timent. He regarded this Government as under Union, and that he would cheerfully give his vote the peculiar favor of Providence, manifested in many ways. If the danger was to be averted from us, to God only could we look for such interposition as will roll from our horizon the gathering storm, now black and lowering.

Thanking his constituents for the confidence heretofore reposed in him, he announced himself of the argument. a candidate for re-election for one term more-and the last. After two years more of service he meant to retire for the prosecution of private inter-

Col. Orr was warmly greeted by his constituents, and we are sure his reception satisfied him of the unabated confidence of the people of Spartanburg.

The yellow fever still prevails in Charleston The deaths vary from two to four a day. The same disease has broken out afcesh on Governor's Island, New York. At B. ooklyn its ravages have alarmcd a great many, who were preparing to leave.

We regret to learn that Mr. James W. Lipscombe, of Thickety, died a few days ago. On the 26th we did business with him in our office, and now he fills a grave. How uncertain is our life!

On the night of the 28th ult. the old Greenville Railroad Depot, Columbia, with several contiguous stores, was burnt down. It was set on fire.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "SPARTAN." MESSES, EDITORS: We regret to an

MESSAS. Entrons: We regret to announce the death of William R. Taber, Jr., one of the Editors of the Charleston Marcory. He fell near Charles-ton, on Monday afternoon last, in an affair of honor between himself and Edward Magrath, Esq. Hifuneral services were performed in St. Philip's Church, on the following evening, and his body now rosts side by side with that of an esteemed relative and true Carolinian—the late Albert Rhett.

The circumstances attending the unfortunate ocquirence in which Mr. Taber was killed are before he public, and we forbear from any comment upon them. It is said to know that an able and accom-plished editor has fallen—that the voice of an elequent orator is hushed in death-that as true-hearted and gallant a Carolinian as ever lived has perished. He went down to the grave in early manhood, when the present was bright, and the future radiant with hope. He died at a period when his services were most needed. Grieving for his departure, we forget the party questions which often have separated us. And we fain would add a flow er to the chaplet which the young men of Carolina are weaving to encircle the brow of their brother, who in life was honored who in death will be fondly remembered. May his sleep be pencefulhis waking joyful!

October as yet has touched us gently. The roces are still blooming, and the forest fewes have hardly begun to change their hues. Yesterday was quite a phasant, survive like day, much too war as for 5.6% to be constructed.

The Brooks dinner as Ashety Six on Saturday passed off exceedingly well. Quite a number from Columbia attended it and returned much pleased. Mr. Toombs, of Georgia, was the only orator from abroad; but such men as Butler, Pickens and Governor Adams spoke, and who would better represent South Carolina than them. The New York Herald despatched a special reporter to attend the dinner and report verbatim the speeches there delivered. The "Times" of this morning contains a full account of the celebration.

The Court of Common Pleas for Richland Dis trict commences on this day, Judge Glover presiding. Several important cases are "on docket" and will probably be tried. Among them is the case of Dr. Gibbes, Editor of the "Carolinian," vs Hon. E. J. Arthur, Mayor of Columbia, brought to recover damages for alleged infringement upon the civil and political rights of the former. It will be recollected that last spring Dr. Gibbes attended a meeting of the City Conneil without permission; his application for the admission of a reporter having been refused on various grounds, the chief of which was that the "Times" -the official journalwould thus be deprived of a right guarantied by contract. Well, to make a long story short, the Dr. was requested to retire, and on his insisting on his right to remain, he was put out of the room by the Chief of Police, acting under Mayor Arthur's orders. Hence comes the suit. Col. Bauskett and James L. Petigru, Esq., appear for Dr. Gibbes. Col. Maxey Gregg, Capt, James D. Tradewell and H. W. Adams, Esq., are counsel for Mayor Arthur. The case will be very interesting.

We understand that several persons engaged ourning in effigy a wealthy citizen of Columbia, just June, have been indicted for riot, and may be ried at this session of the Court.

We had intended answering the uncalled-for comments of a correspondent, "Columbia," upon a oassage in our last letter, relative to the Citadel and Arsenal Academies, but want of time has prevented. Moreover, his allegations against the South Carolina College have been met so soccessfully by another correspondent, "Justice," that we deem any further defence of that institution unnecessary. We are in favor or der manel Academics, and as rong as their friends do not intermeddle with the State College, do not strive to injure it, and thereby bonefit their favorites, so long will we uphold, defend, and advocate the claims of the former institutions. But the moment war is declared against the College by the friends of the Military Academies, then nineteen-twentieths of the graduates and friends of the College will be found defending that institution and opposing the others. We deem it necessary to say this much, and not pursue the subject any further at present.

The election for Rec comes off on this day week. From the number of candidates it may be somewhat exciting-no politi-eal question being before the people. Yours, CONGAREE

The dinner given yesterday to Col. Preston S. Brooks at Niesty, S. of a grand affair. The number of persons, may a defemales, present is estimated to have been from five to seven thousand. As about 11 a. in, the speakers and several other distinguished individuals being on the stand appropriately erected for the occasion, Dr. Cain, of Greenwood, the Chairman of the Committee, after a few pertinent remarks, introduced General Samuel McGowan, who delivered a complimentary address, concluding it by the presentation to Col. Brooks of a gold gother from the citizens of Abbeville District, and a gold headed cane from the people of Clinton, Laurena District.

Maj. R. A. Grifon then presented a silver goblet from the citizens of the immediate neighborhood, and Mr. Pressly prescued a walking cane from a citizen of Florida.

Col. Brooks responded at some length, in a feeling and elequent manner.

Senator Toombs, of Georgia, next occupied the attention of the vast audence in a speech of near two hours' length, glowing with elequence, depicting the wrongs of the South, and most heartily approving the act of our spirited Representative, of which he stated that he was an eye-witness. He "saw it done, and he saw it well done."

"STAR HOTEL," CENTREVILLE, TEXAS Aug. 22, 1854. MESSES, FLEMING BROS.

I feel it my duty to make the following state nent: Several of my children have been unwell for the last week or two. I called at the "Big MORTAR" to get some Oil of Wormseed and other truck, to give them for worms. The Druggist reommended M'Lane's Vermifuge, prepared by ou, but having heretofore tried every Vermifuge n my knowing without advantage, I told him i was not worth while, as my children appeared proof against them all. He said to take a bottle. and offered it it done no good to refund the money. To satisfy him I done so, and the effect was so much better than expected, that I got another bottle, and the result was most astonishing. Three of my children discharged a great number of the largest worms I over saw. To a young man, my Mail Carrier, who was weak, puny and poor as a snake, for a month or so, I gave two doses, which brought from him at least a pint of what is called stomach worms! Strange as this may appear, yet t is as "true as preaching." How the boy stood it so long as he did, with ten thousand "Bors' gnawing at his stomach, is the greatest wonder to me. All these cases are now doing well. No doubt the lives of thousands of children have been saved by the timely use of this extraordinary medi cine. Don't fail to give it a trial.
