A MISTAKE.

By a slip of the pen, in our last paper, we perverted the object of the Governor in appointing Thursday as a holiday, for which we have been taken sharply to task. We designated it a day of tasting, when he designed it for thankegiving. Op posed as we are to all corporeal inflections for spiritual ends, it is needless to say we would not have complied with our own appointment, and therefore shalve our readers from all obligation of observance. Fasting is an old institution-feasting modern. We incline to the innovation, as a decided mark of pro-

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

So many gentlemen have been nominated to the Legislature for the honorable position of Governor that it almost passes our ability to recollect them We will name the most prominent and the mo

Hon. F. W. PICKENS, Gen. DANIEL WALLACE. Col. MAXOY GREGO, Hon. R. F W. ALLSTON,

Hon. R. BARNWELL RHETT. We suppose that any one of these distinguished gentlemen might with perfect safety be intrusted with the Executive functions of this State. While so believing, however, we have a preference; and if we knew any way to give efficacy to our partiality, we should certainly spread ourselves for Hon F. W. Pickens.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES.

THE POPULAR VOTE.

The official returns of the popular vote of the late Presidential election are only partial. A careful estimate, however, has been made in all the States, based upon former elections, and thus a pretty acof each candidate.

" Fillmore,..... 793,20 This gives Buchanan a plurality over Fremont Black Republicanism of 462,059. If we add Fillmore's whole vote in the Southern States (455,000) to this plurality, (and surely, in a contest the issue of which was slavery or no slavery, we may safely assume that Mr. Buchanan would have gotten this ote,) we swell his strength to 917,057. But this is not all: We claim as against freesoilism one half of Fillmore's Northern vote. This further increases the Democratic vote 124,104-making the aggregate majority of Buchanan over Fremont 1,041,-

We are induced to make this exhibit of the popular vote to in a measure counteract contrary statements by some of our papers. The Laurensville Herald, for instance, shows Mr. Buchanau in a minority in the country of 14,000 -and entirely omits the vote of South Carolina (thirty thousand at least) and the Southern vote east for Fillmore. We opine that the 455,000 Southerners who voted for Filimore would enter decided objection to being set down as abolitionists, and yet the Herald so treats them. Figures, it is said, can't lie, but certainly, in the case of our cotemporary, a very bad judgment presided over their array, and should release them from the responsibility of perverting the th.

AWARD OF PREMIUMS We find the premium list of the First Fair of the State Agricultural Society in the South Carolinian of Saturday, which was kindly furnished us by Mr. G. W. Moore, on Monday last, in advance of the the day of its arrival here by mail. From it we make the following list of exhibitors from this district to whom premiums were awarded. Otherse we notice, sent forward articles, but competition was too strong for them to bear off all the honors. It is surprising to us that Spartanburg secured so many, and speaks loudly in praise of the progress of our people in the industrial and fancy arts.

Prizes were awarded to-Best Stallion, over 4 years old, (Butler,) $20.

S. Bobo, Holobysville,
Best Cotton Bagging, $10. Plough Lines, $5.
Bale Rope, $10. J. S. & A. Hill,

The best Cotton Rope, $10. J. S. & A. Hill. The best Cotton Plow Lines, $5. J. S. & A. ili. Best South Carolina made Cheese, $10. Mrs

E. Bobo, Cross Anchor. Besides the above is the following, which we fee like claiming for Spartanburg, as this is the home of her childhood : Best Child's Dress, Plate. Mrs. J. T. Fleming

Nor must we forget to single out the Lesters They, at least, are well known among us, and their establishment is scarcely over the border :

The best bale of Cotton Yarns, comprising all the Nos., $10. Messrs. Lester & Sons, Greenville, Best Yarn, $10. Messrs. Lester & Sons, Green-

And there is friend Zealy, whose magnificent Daguerreotypes have repeatedly been thrown aside at the Institute Fair, Charleston, to give place to Northern work, comes in for a Silver Medal, and right worthily is it merited : For best Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, &c., Silver Medal. J. T. Zenly.

For nicety of julgment and perfection of manipulation, with roundness of object and fineness of tone, we assert that J. T. Zealy stands at the head of his profession in South Carolina, and few better operators can be found in the country. And we may add, that his pupil, Col. L. A. Green, of our village, is but little behind his proceptor.

It will be remembered that Dr. J. W. Parker, of Columbia, related somewhat of his success in the culture of corn for exhibition at the State Fair, during our Agricultural Exhibition in September. We find the following notice of award to him. Will any of our farmers attempt competition for the next display in Columbia :

The largest crop of Corn grown upon two acres or more of upland, Silver Pitcher. Dr. J. W. Parker, Columbia, S. C. (149 bushels, 1 peck, 2 quarts, on first acre; and 116 bushels, 3 pecks, 3 quarte, on second.)

As far as we can judge by the Columbia papers the first Fair was an immerse success, and the number of articles on exhibition far exceeded calcu lation. The arrangements were ample, and every thing in the programme passed off as satisfactorily as could have been expected.

At a meeting of the Society, on Wednesday evening, Gen. Jamison was introduced into the Hall of the House of Representatives, and delivered the annual address, a copy of which was solicited for publication. The subject of the address was, Agriculture, and the Means and Measures to its Advancement, and he touched not only upon the carate knowledge is obtained of the aggregate vote peculiar products, but the forms of labor at the South. The General is known to be a deep thinker, with high mental cultivation and practical experience, and his address cannot fail to add to his eputation, as well as impart information of great value to the agricultural interests of the South.

The officers nominated for the ensuing year are President—Col. A. P. Calhoun.
Vice-Presidents.—Thomas P. Byrd, George
Seaborn, Thomas E. Powe, R. S. Porcher, Jacob
Stroman, N. A. Peay.

Palmer, R. J. Gage, J. Foster Marshall, Dr. R

Wm. Gregg was chosen on the Executive Committee, but being ineligible, Col. A. G. Summer was selected in his stead.

Hon. J. Foster Marshall, of Abbeville, has been appointed Annual Orator for the next year, and Col. R. J. Gage, of Union, his alternate.

THE ALLSTON PRIZE

Hon. R. F. W. Allston, a year ago, founded a prize of $100, under the direction of the Faculty of the South Carolina College, for Essays, to be annually read in the College Chapel, on some day during the annual session of the Legislature. The competition to be open to all students of the College, resident graduates and alumni. The subject of last year's essay was the Stability of Governments, and the first of Outober was the latest period within which they could be received.

By a report of the Committee (President McCav and Drs. Leiber and Reynolds) we learn that only three essays were handed in-two of which were excluded as out of time, and the other was not of sufficient merit to justify the award. The committee have therefore, with the approbation of the founder of the prize, adopted the following resolu-

Commissioners of the Poor. The Commissioners of the Pose for Spartenburg strict, S C., beg leave to make the following ersigned will show them at any time to persons | Report to the Henorable Court of Common Pleas exhang to purchase. Terms made known on the in session, fall term, 1856. They have greatly reduced the number of out-standing Paupers heretotore scattered over the Dis triet, to who a they were paying more or less, by ordering all who are entitled to the public charities of the district to the Poor House. They have ri gidly carried out this order, except in a few cases in which the Paupers are greatly afflicted and entirely helpless; in such cases they have provided for their support with their triends and relations. It is believed that the change in our former system will reduce the public expense, without depriving the puper of any of his lawful rights.

With a view to the furnishing the paupers of the Di trict a permanent support at the Pour they have enlarged the tract of land on which the Poor House stands, and love erceted a number of new houses, all well arranged, and constructed with a view to the comforts of their innates. The desire, by the judicious management of their Sten ard, so to cultivate the lands lately purchased, as to raise a portion, if not all, of the grain consumed on the place. The Board are of opinion that when the land is paid for, together with the buildings lately creeted, they will be able to reduce the Taxes of the District considerably below the sum now expended on its Poor. Respectfully submitted, G. W. H. LEGG, Chairman. J. G. LANDRUM, Clerk and Treasurer.
