J. FORREST GOWAN HAS the honor of informing the Citizens of Spartanburg and vicinity, that he has, at con-aderable expense, been enabled to COMPLETE

PHOTOGERIC GALLERY, which beyond doubt is one of the largest and neat-est in the State. He is now prepared to produce most Lovely Pictures. as very particular attention has been given to the arrangement of harmonious light and shade, in the SKY-LIGHT. Ladies may here resort with propriety, with the surance of finding everything scrupulously neat and pleasantly attractive.

As the Christmas Holidays are approaching, let those who have triends and loved-ones at home, hasten to this Galler, and purchase a picture of hemselves as a most appropriate present. A large and costly Stock is daily expected from New York and Charleston, which, when received, will enable us to make greater improvements and still more favorable inducements to patrons. Persons having Portraits, Lithographs, or Engravings, may have BEAUTIFULLY COPIED into Daguerrectypes, Ambrotypes or Photographs at very reasonable prices. Old and Faded Daguerrectypes of value to the possessors, may be restored by being copied into Ambrotypes, and painted out upon Paper.

J. F. G. has a new process of taking

CHILDREN'S LIKENESSES. by which a picture may be perfectly printed in an instant of time.

Pe sons at a distance sending us Daguerreotypes to be copied into Photographs, will please remember to send exact pattern of dress and colors worn by the person whose Daguerreotype they have sent. A lock of hair is especially required, and a description of color of eyes. The observance of these rules is only necessary when a PAINTED PHOTO-ORAPH is ordered. We assure the public that these PAINTED PHOTOGRAPHS cannot be equalled by any but one other Artist in the country, from whom our receipts were purchased. Sparianburg, in all probability, will be our future home, and therefore it would be unwise to make any statements in our advertisements which could not be fully proven as facts. Remember, that the Gallery is directly over the Store of D. I. & L. Twity, Third Story.

Solicitor's Report. THE undersigned begs leave respectfully to pre sent the following report, as to District officers and offices:

That owing to the comparatively disorganized condition of the several offices, incident to their re moval from the Court House, and occupancy of such rooms as could be procured, he has found it quite impossible to make any formal or regular examination as to their condition at the present term. He has, however, looked into them severally, sufficiently to enable him to say, that the current business is well kept up, and neatly and correctly executed; and from former critical examinations, with the known fidelity of the several incumbents, he has no hesitation in stating, that they are in creditable and satisfactory condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. P. REED, Solicitor.

L. M. Cozetter, Commander, R. H. Stewart, Mate,
L. F. Roux, Parser, late of the Carolina, will com mence her regular tripe, as above, early in December.

The "Everglade" has been built under the special superintendence of her officers, expressly for this route, having elegant, roomy and improved passenger accommodations. Liberal deductions from the customary rates for transportation of negroes and plantation appurtenances will be made to emigrants.

Connections will be made at the above places with conveyances thence into the interior.

Freights will be re-shipped from this place, as weil as from Palatka, to points beyond on the St. John's and Octawaha Rivers, without charge. For further particulars, apply to WILLIAM M. TUNNO, Agent,
