

For the Carolina Spartan.
WOOD YOU--By Sorrowful.

I wud knot dye in Wintur, When whiske punchin flow, When poony gals are skating Oar fields or ice en sno, When sassinge meet is playing & Hickery knuts is thick, Owe hoo kud think of dighing Or even getting sick.

I wud knot dye in Spring-time, & miss the turn up greens, & the poony song of the leetle frawgs, & the ski larks arly screem; When burds begin thare wobbling & taters gin to sprout; When surkies go a globbering, Owe who wud then peg out?

I wud knot dye in Summer & leve the garden sass,
'The rosted lam & butter milk,
'A koul place in the grass;
I wud knot dye in Summer,
When niggers look so hot, & smell so sweet & bewlie, Owe no, ide rather not.

I wud knot dye in Autumn With peeches fit for ceftin; When routin hogs are gittin fat & kandidates are trecting, Phor theese an uthar wressons, Ide knot dye in the phall, & sense we thort it O ver, I wud knot dye at all.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Why is an and iron like a yardstick?
It has 3 feet.

When are women like bread stuffs?
When scarce, they are dear.

Odd--That rivers should be so full just where they empty themselves.

The first apple was eaten by the first pair.

If you want to be a "swell" of the first water, get the dropy.

The coldest seat in an omnibus--the one nearest the Pole.

Boots--The made of awl-work-- A silent wag--the wag of a dog's tail.

A dentist at work in his vocation always looks down in the mouth.

What river in England is what naughty girls do? The river Tees (Tease.)

If a young lady has a pain in her side, can she relieve it by wearing a sash?

What throat is the best for a singer to reach high notes with? A scar throat.

How can an heires be homely, if she comes down handsome?" asks the Boston Post.

It may be a question--which has the most formidable horns, an ox, a buffalo, or a dilemma?

Lovers have more occasion than any other class of persons to talk pathetically about the lost arts.

When may a butler of the olden time be said to have discharged his master? When he gave him the sack.

A punster passing by the shop of Mr.
Taswell, observed that his name would be As-well without the T.

Two men out West undertook to see which would run the fastest. One was a sheriff ank the other was a thief.

We must not undervalue physicians. Perhaps the fabric of society would fall without them--they are its pillars.

The husband who divorced his wife with kisses, found afterwards that she dis-a-greed with him.

Prentice thinks a lady of his acquaintance who had three children at a birth, an "overbearing" woman, and her husband is thus entitled to a divorce.

An eminent painter was once asked what he mixed his paints with, in order to produce so extraordinary an effect? "I mix them with brains, sir."

An elderly maiden, meeting a newly married man, who had been her servant, carrying home a cradle, exclaimed, "Ah, John, I see the fruits of marriage." "Yes, madam," replied John, "this is only the fruit basket."

The most amusing man in the world is a Frenchman in a passion. "By gar, you call my wife a woman two three several times once more an' I will call you the watch house, and blow out your brains like a candle."

A western preacher, after stating that tea, coffee, sugar, spices, pickles, preserves, milk, meal, snuff and tobacco were adulterated, stretched himself up to his full height, and with great emphasis exclaimed: "Who then will dare to deny the fact this is a wicked and adulterous generation?"

"Mr. Captain," said a son of Erin, going on board a vessel in the port of Cork, "you looked so much like the mate that I took you to be the cook. Will you be after lending me the loan of your broad-axe to saw an empty barrel of flour in two to make my cow a hog-pen?"

A darkey was extolling the cleverness of a neighbor's son:

"Jim Johnson's chile," said he, "is de smartest little nigga you eber see. Why, wat do you tink--he went down to de brack-smith shop de oder day, and while he was dere he picked up a piece ob red hot iron and laid it right down again widout nobody tellin' him!"

A certain Irishman received for his labor a one dollar bill on one of the Ohio banks, on which he was obliged to lose ten cents discount. The next day he was passing down Main street and saw a dollar bill lying on the side walk, on the same bank, and gazing on it he exclaimed: "Bad luck to the likes of ye, there ye may lie; divil a finger will I put on ye, for I lost ten cents by a brother of yours yesterday."

EDITING a paper is a very pleasant business.

If it contains too much political matter, people won't have it.

If the type is too large, it don't contain enough reading matter.

If the type is small, people won't read it.

If we publish telegraph reports, people say they are lies.

If we omit them, they say we have no enterprise, or suppress them for political effect.

If we have in a few jokes, people say we are a rattlehead.

If we omit them, they say we are an old fossil.

If we publish original matter, they damn us for not giving selections.

If we publish selections, men say we are lazy for not writing more, and giving them what they have not read in some other paper.

If we give a man a complimentary notice, then we are censured for being partial.

If we do not, all hands say we are a greedy hog.

If we insert an article that pleases the ladies, men become jealous.

If we do not cater to their wishes, the paper is not fit to have in the house.

If we attend church, they say it is only for effect.

If we don't they denounce us as deceitful and desperately wicked.

If we remain in the office and attend to business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with our fellows.

If we go out, they say we never attend to business.

If we publish poetry, we affect senti-mentalism.

If we do not, we have no literary polish or taste.

If the mail does not deliver our paper promptly, they say we do not publish "on the time." If it does, they are afraid we are getting ahead of time.

If we do not pay all bills promptly, folks say we are not to be trusted.

If we do pay promptly, they say we stole the money.

THE SOUTHERN EMIGRANTS TO BRAZIL.
—Rio Janeiro papers of the 9th of October contain glowing accounts of the reception, by the people of that city, of a number of Gentlemen who left Louisiana and Mississippi about three months ago, to make arrangements for a company of Southern emigrants who design locating in the Parana district of Brazil. The party reached Rio on the 3d of October, and for two or three days were the lions of the city.
On the 8th the gentlemen were received with distinguished consideration by the Minister of Agriculture and Public Works, after which a "spontaneous demonstration was gotten up by the most influential brokers and merchants of the city." This took place at the Exchange Hotel, "outside of which were played the national airs amidst the waving of flags of both nations and the vivas of a concourse of many hundreds of persons."

On behalf of the Government and people of Brazil, Seno Faria read an address warmly welcoming the strangers, which was responded to on behalf of the emigrant commissioners by Gen W. W. Wood, who is the head of the party. Gen Wood addressed the populace from one of the windows of the hotel.

A drummer is the fastest man in the world, because time beats all men, but the drummer beats time.

From the experience of others do thou learn wisdom, and from their feelings correct thine own faults.
