REVENUE STANPS ON LEGAL PROCEEDINGS .-REVENUE STAMPS ON LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.—
The Act to provide an Internal Revenue, requires a stamp of fifty cents to be placed on every writ or other original process, by which any suit is commenced in any Court of Record, whether of law or equity.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee have had the validity of this provision under consideration in the case of the Union Bank of Tennessee, against Vanderville.

The Court decided this requirement to be unconstitutional.

They held that it was not necessary to the validity of writs and other process in judicial proceedings in the Courts of the States, that proceedings in the Courts of the States, that the Internal Revenue Stamps prescribed by the Act of Congress should be affixed to the writs or process, that the Government of the United States has not the constitutional power to require stamps to be affixed to a process issued by the State Courts.

It is a subject of interesting enquiry to assertain how much of the legislation during the war, will stand the test of constitutional investigation.—Chas. Courier.

RELEASED FROM CUSTODY. -By direction of His Excellency the President of the United States, James Eagan, Esq., has been released from arrest and restored to his friends. It will be remembered that Mr. Eagan, was con-ticted by a Military Commission of shocking a negro in Lexington District last Summer, and was sentenced to imprisonment for life in the Albany (New York) Penitentiary. From that institution he was discharged by a decis-ion of Judge Nelson, of the Supreme Court of the United States, obtained in a suit for a writ of Habeas Corpus, which was granted. Returning home a few days since, he was rearrested by the military authorities of this State, and confined in the jail of this city until his present release, which is final and absolute. Chas. Courier.

A POINT WELL MADE. - The legality of Mr. Davis' confinement is obviously a distinct question from the legality of the persistent tortures inflicted on him. Detention in custody is a means of securing a prisoner until a court can pass upon his guilt. Any severity or torment not required for his safe keeping is not only unauthorized by law, but is a usurpation of the functions of the jury and court. It assumes his guilt; but if guilt may be assumed beforehand, the trial is a mockery. It determines the nature of his punishment; but the termines the nature of his punishment; but the punishment of all crimes is fixed by the law, it must be declared, in each particular case, by the sentence of a Judge, and can be inflicted only after the sentence.— New York World.

A DAVIS DEFENCE FUND .- We see it stated that the Texans are subscribing for a Davis defence fund. We tell that chivalric and generous people to keep their money in their pocket. There will be no need for it. When Mr. Davis is tried, the millennium will have come and gone, and our latest posterity will have quit hoping for the trial in disgust. In Mr. Davis the Radicals have caught a Tartar. They feel like the man who drew the elephant They feel like the man who drew the elephant in a lottery. They would turn him loose with pleasure, but that they are ashamed to acknowledge that all their fierce talk was mere bluster. President Johnson will soon settle the matter in a way satisfactory to all .- Examiner.

The following is the estimate of the Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen for the District of Columbia of the amount of rations which it will be necessary to distribute to freedmen in that District during the present month: Six thousand full rations, payment for which will be secured by liens on the crops; to employees and laborers, 350, and rations to dependents, 22.000. Total, 29,359. This estimate includes children sick in hospital, aged and infirm in Alexandria, Fairfax and Loudon counties, and Freedmen's village.

While a posse was bringing into Memphis, two men, named S. A. Bayette and Frank Wingate, arrested for the murder of Mr. Payne, on Tuesday night, and who were informed on by Euback, an accomplice, they were met by one Henderson, a relative of Payne, who shot all three, killing Bayette and mortally wound-ing the others.
