New York, July 9.—The steamer Saxonia, with dates of the 27th arrived yesterday.

The British Ministry have tendered their resignation, which the Queen accepted. It is supposed Lord Derby will form a new ministry.

The Italians under the King were repulsed in attacking the Austrians near Verona, on the 24th June. The battle lasted until night. Both sides fought bravely, but ended in the defeat of the Italians. The Austrians took 2,000 prisoners. The Italian army retreated access the Minejo.

across the Mincio.

It is positively asserted that the Hanoverian army is surrounded and must capitulate to the Prussians. This needs confirmation.

Nothing is known of Benedek's movements.

A revolt occurred in Madrid in which 1,000 persons were killed. The revolt was suppressed.

Sheriff's Office, July 9th, 1866.

By His Excellency JAMES L. ORR, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the State of South Carolina :

WHEREAS, MAJ. GEN'L SICKLES, com W HEREAS, MAJ. GEN'L SICKLES, commanding Department of the Carolinas, on the 26th instant, by Special Order No. 19, has directed that white persons in Military custody, charged with felonies or misdemeanors on the persons and property of colored persons, should be turned over to the civil authorities for trial, and that like cases arising hereafter will be disposed of in the same manner:

And whereas, this Order-so gratifying to the feelings and sentiment of the people of this State-is based upon the legal opinion of Chief Justice Dunkin, given upon the urgent request of this Department, and communicated to Gen. Sickles: 1st That persons of color, under the 29th and 30th sections of the "Act to organize District Courts," are competent witnesses in the Court of Sessions in all cases of felony committed by whites on the person or property of a person of color. 2d. That they are competent to make affidavits and sue out warrants against whites in felonies and misdemeanors, and also to testify before Grand Juries in such cases, as well as on the trial before the Petit Jury. And 8d. That until the District Judges are commissioned, the Court of General Sessions retains jurisdiction of cases of misdemeanor committed by whites on the person or property of colored persons, Chief Justice Dunkin says, "The Court of General Sessions had always cognizance of offenses committed by white persons against the person or property of a person of color."
In the case of State vs. Hill, 2d Spear, 150, which was an indictment against a white person for assault and battery on a free person of color, it was not only so ruled, but recognized as well settled law for more than half a century. The Districts Courts of December, 1865, not having been put in operation, I suppose the general jurisdiction of the Court of Sessions remain. sions remain; and I understand that such has been the ruling of the Circuit Judges in refer-ence to cases of bastardy and vagrancy which have come before them.

The 30th section, Act 1865, provides "that in every case, civil and criminal, in which a person of color is a party, or which affects the person or property of a person of color, persons of color shall be competent witnesses." It is a remedial Statute and must be construed in reference to its object. My opinion is the in reference to its object. My opinion is, that persons of color are competent to testify be fore Grand Juries and Magistrates in criminal cases touching the person or property of persons of color."

And whereas, the security of the liberty of the citizens arising from his right to be tried by a jury of his peers, can only be retained, in ondition of the coun try, by the civil efficers of the State executing the principles contained in the opinion of the justly distinguished Chief Justice, in good faith and with an carnest desire to give security and protection to the persons and proper-ty of the colored population.

And to the end that this high privilege may

And to the end that this high privilege may be retained by the good people of the State, I, JAMES L. ORR, Governor of the said State, do proclaim and declare, that it is the duty of every Civil Magistrate to give careful considcration to every complaint made to him by a person of color against a white man for any felony or misdemeanor alleged to have been committed against the person or property of a person of color; and if he, upon such consideration, concludes that there are reasonable grounds for such complaint, said Maginate grounds for such complaint, said Magistrate shall take the affidavit of such person of color, and issue his warrant against the offender, requiring his arrest and recognizance to appear quiring his arrest and recognizance to appear at the next term of the Court of General Ses-sions, just as if he would do if the party mak-ing the complaint were a white man; and he will also recognize all witnesses by whom the complaint may desire to prove the charge, as is now provided by law, for securing the at-tendance of State witnesses. All Sheriffs and Constables will promptly, faithfully and fear-lessly execute all warrants as may be placed in their hands. in their hands.

And I call upon all good citizens to aid in the fair and faithful execution of the laws of this State, as expounded by the Chief Justice; and very soon the earnest wish expressed by the commanding General in Orders No. 19, (published herewith for the information of the (published herewith for the information of the people) "that it will not be long before it may be truly said, that no offence against the peace, and no injury to the person or property, of even the humblest inhabitant, may be committed with impunity in the State of South Caroline." will be heavyling realized.

lina," will be happily realized.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at the City of Columbia, the 30th day of June, 1866, and in the [L. s.] nineteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

JAMES L. ORR, Governor.

Headquarters,

DEPARTMENT OF THE CAROLINAS, COLUMBIA, S. C., June 26, 1866. [Special Orders No. 19.]

ALL white persons in Military custody in the State of South Carolina, charged with felonies or misdemeanors, will be turned over to the civil authorities of the United States, or of the State, for trial, according to the nature and character of the offence charged, and of the jurisdiction of the Court having legal cognizance of the offence.

II. Where white persons and persons of color are charged as principals, accessories or accomplices, in any offence, the accused will be retained in custody, and the case, with the evidence, reported to these Headquarters for instructions.

III. Post Commanders making arrests of civilians for offences other than those triable by Provost Courts, will examine the complain ant and his witnesses under oath, together with any witnesses proffered by the accused; such testimony, with the statement of the accused, if he desires to be heard, shall be reduced to writing and forwarded to the Head-quarters of the Military Commandant of the quarters of the Military Commandant of the State, with a report of the action of the Post Commander and his remarks upon the case.

IV. The refusal or neglect of any civil officer to perform an official act, properly required of him by an aggrieved party seeking redress in the civil tribunals, whereby a failure of justice ensues in the prosecution of the class of offenders remitted to the civil jurisdiction by this order, will be promptly reported by any officer cognizant to the same.

V. In publishing the subjoined correspondence for the information and guidance of all concerned, the Major-General commanding desires to impress the troops with the sentiments sires to impress the troops with the sentiments of respect and deference for the civil authority that influence his own action in co-operation with the Executive of the State, so that tranquility may be sentred by the many the sentred by the many that the quility may be secured by the means and agen-cies most congenial to the people. To this end, he solicits the aid of all good citizens in repressing conduct tending to disturb public order; and he trusts that it will not be long before it may be truly said that no offence against the peace, and no injury to the person or property of even the humblest inhabitant, may be committed with impunity in the State of Sauth Careline of South Carolina.
