WM. JAS. SMITH. Aug 23 30

To the Voters of Spartanburg.

FELLOW CITIZENS: When a man commits an error, or makes a blunder, or does wrong, I always think the sooner he corrects it the better. And I suppose I did wrong in having that Appeal printed, as the subscribers did not expect it. But as I had no other view in securing their names than to make an appeal to the sympathics of the people of Spartanburg, in behalf of my son L. C. EZELL, and as they who signed that " Appeal," either read or heard it read before they signed it, and as they only intended to endorse his character, and certify to his maimed condition, and did not know that I expected it to appear in print, (for there was nothing said about printing,) I hope they will forgive me, for I did not intend to mislead them. But I am charged with a wrong in that I allowed one man's name to go up, who had not seen the paper as it appeared in print. He was a mess mate of L. C. Ezell's, and did as much to bring him out as any of his old comrades, and as I had no chance to see him, and knowing him to be a warm friend, and believing that he would regard it as a privilege to let his name appear with the rest, I allowed it to go up without his knowledge, but with the belief that it would meet his hearty approbation, and as to how much my credulity was at fault, and to what extent I have merited condemnation, I leave all to judge when they have read the following certificate:

SPARTANBURG DISTRICT, S. C. August 28, 1866.

This is to certify that an explanation entirely satisfactory to my mind has been given me, with respect to the publication of my name in connection with several other gentlemen, which paper I had not seen in its present form until after its publication, which appeared under the heading of 'An Appeal to the people of Spartanburg,' And I am satisfied that in this there was a typographical error, and although I had not signed the paper myself, yet had I been permitted to see, it, I should have signed it with pleasure. And further the friends of L. C. Ezell had good reason to believe that they were welcome to use my name in that connection if they chose to to do so, and I hope therefore this matter may not have any bearing to turn any against Mr. Ezell or his friends.

Signed, J. W. QUINN.

But, it appears from what I can learn, that I have given offence by presenting the the present incumbent? For if my memo- granted. ry serves me right, he used to make ap peals to the people in behalf of his sons when they were candidates. I see also that Colonel Poole has republished the appeal, with a certificate annexed to which are affixed the names of several gentlemen of high standing who had signed the appeal, setting forth that they did not design it as an appeal, &c. And Col. Poole in speaking of these gentlemen, says " they did not intend to make an appeal, but of the fourteenth man, and P. S. S., he has no doubt but they signed it in good faith. Now, sir, in this there is an under current to which I have very serious objections. He says of these, that they signed it in "good faith," and with a full understanding of its whole contents, which must mean something, and I understand him by that, that the others did not. Now does he mean that those gentlemen were trifling with the matter, or that they exhibited a want of sagacity and were mislead; then he and they must settle the matter between themsel But if by make them say what they did not intend, give me a trial. then, that he may not say, for it was not dene, and if this impression is sought to be made, with the view of crushing my son, then it is unjust as it is untrue.

And now you will allow me to say in conclusion, that my son had no connection with this thing, neither did he know that it was going to be published, and I hope none will blame him for my misgivings. J. S. EZELL
