A correspondent writes from Fort Abercrombie, Dakota Territory, under the impression that he has found Paradise. He sets forth the charms of that part of the world as follows: "No income tax; no internal revenue; no spies to see if you treat a friend on Sunday; no special police; no dog tax, no poll tax, school tax or bounty fund. And to end with, the Indians and half breeds can't tell one green-back from another, so all our ones are tens."
