NEW SOUTHERN MUSIC BOOK.

JUST PUBLISHED : TABOR:

OR, THE

Richmond Collection of Sacred Music. By R. M. McINTOSH, of Virginia,

ESSENTIALLY Southern in its main fea-tures, TABOR nevertheless contains a choice selection of the best Northern copy-right Music. Its author, for four years an officer of the Confederate army, composed many stirring pieces in moments snatched during its marchings and counter-marchings in Vir ginia. The dirge used at the funeral of Gen. T. J. Jackson, (Stonewall.) May 17th, 1363 was from his pen, and is included in this col

"Mr. McIntosh," says the Richmond Whig. "is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of finished excellence, with a musical reputation rarely attained by any man of his age in this country. In the South he stands at the very head of Church music,

NO ONE disputing the position with him."

The book embraces every thing of value of Southern or South-Western origin, much of which is now for the first time reduced to a written form. Its variety is great—embracing all metres in use, in every key and every variety of measure—with a full elementary ent and fine collection of pieces and sentences. It contains nearly 800 closely printed pages, neatly and tasteful
