Are You Insured?
A SINGLE spark may destroy your house and all its contents, and a small amount paid before the disaster happens, may enable you to rebuild and again comfortably settle yourself for life.

Are You Insured?
A slight exposure may hasten you to an early grave, and your family left to the charities of an uncharitable world, a few dollars will save such a disaster. Will you not save them when you can?

Are You Insured?
A single pebble in the road may disable you from labor for months, and your family may suffer for the want of your daily earnings. A single brick may fall and crush you beyond recovery. $5 $10 or $15 per year will secure to them for each week you are disabled, the full amount you pay for insurance, and in case of death from the accident it will pay to them $1000, $2000 or $3000, all for the above same small amount.

Are You Insured?
If not, why not? Call on the Agent of several of the best Companies in the United States, and he will give you papers gratuitous that will prove the fact that ALL SHORT INSURERS, J. M. E. FORD, Agent for Fire, Life and Accidental Insurance Companies, the safest and best in the United States.

Read and Think.

There is no man living, who will deny for one moment that his life is but a span, and even short as it is, he may at any moment, by some unforeseen accident be rendered a dependent upon the cold charities of the world. Yes, by even the slipping of the foot, the sudden catching at some article to save oneself from falling, may dislocate an ankle or a shoulder joint, and for weeks render a man unable to support himself or his family.

Accidental Death and injuries rendering persons temporarily or permanently disabled, are of far more frequency than a casual observer might suppose. Thousands upon thousands, from every sphere of life, are either killed outright or die from the effects of injuries.

These sad casualties to the community are so often intruded upon us by the heartrending details of the public journals, that it requires no subtlety of logic to establish their daily and almost hourly occurrence in some quarter of our wide spread domain.

With what joy and heartfelt gratitude then, should we hail the knowledge that humane gentlemen have organized themselves into a company, the sole object of which is to ameliorate, as far as money can do it, the train of misfortunes which hourly hover over man's uncertain life. The welfare of man demands an institution of this character, and this most reasonable demand on the part of the more prudent portion of our people is fully responded to in the present appeal which the SOUTHERN ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY, of Lynchburg, Va., makes to the public. This Company, with its ample capital and prudent management, not only offers facilities to provide against the pressing exigencies which, alas! too often follow sudden death, by securing to the bereaved family a large sum of money for a trifling premium, but in a spirit of liberality scarcely to be expected from any insurance scheme, absolutely makes ample provision for loss of time in case of personal injury to the assured, by the prompt payment of a weekly compensation.

The policies of insurance in the event of death from accidents, secures to the families of those killed, an amount in proportion to the premium paid, and at the same time secures a comfortable support to the party insured during the many weeks which he may be disabled from attending to his customary business.

It is with feelings of pleasure that we announce to the citizens of Spartanburg District that J. M. ELDFORD, esq., has been appointed the Agent of the Southern Accidental Insurance Company, of Virginia, and we doubt not, from him can be gained all information respecting this important matter. A simple note thus invested may preserve many a family from want and poverty.
