

DR. ROY HENRY IMPROVING.

The many inquiring friends of Dr. Roy Henry will rejoice to know that after a brief illness he is now on the road to recovery. Dr. Henry who is a brother of Mrs. M. L. Moore, is a dental student at Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tenn. and is in the graduating class this year.

DEATH CLAIMS THOS. HASKEW.

Dear Editor:- Mr Thomas Haskew of Bennettsville S. C., father of Mr. C. M. Haskew, a successful business man at Cheraw, passed away on the 7th of this month. Mr. Haskew was a prominent citizen in Marlboro County who stood always for the advancement of his people and fostered every plan to that end. In the loss of Mr. Haskew Marlboro County has lost a good citizen and the race one of its strong advocates for peace, harmony and advancement.

REV. R. CARROLL NOT WELL.

While he is not confined to his bed Rev. Richard Carroll is a sick man. A representative of The Indicator saw him one day this week and was convinced immediately that he was not well. He was then on his way home from a specialist who advised him to go home. We are hoping that he will soon recover and resume his work preaching and lecturing to both white and colored wherever he goes.

BENEDICT WENT DOWN.

The State College Basket Ball Team played Benedict's Team last Saturday and cleaned or them to the tune of 20 to 7. Benedict has a pretty fair team but by no means with the above score against them can they be put in the class with State College.

If you owe The Indicator any thing pay up and help to keep it going. We shall be pleased to receive your locals over the telephone.

Subscribe to The Indicator, only $2.00 per year in advance; $3.00 for two years when paid two years in advance.

THE JOHN CHURCH CO.

The above named concern is located at 1612 Main street, with Mr. P. M. Asbury as manager. The business of this well established concern is that of selling at most reasonable prices pianos of every description, and other musical instruments, which help to make home what it ought to be.

It has been our good fortune to carry an ad for this company now about a year, and to own one of its best pianos. Our business dealings have been the most pleasing, and the musical instrument is up to the highest standard.

Therefore, in justice to ourself and this company, we take pleasure in recommending The John Church Company to our people when in need of anything in their line, as a place where you will get the same square deal accorded us—Manager.

Need a piano? Buy from The John Church Co. See their ad in this paper

Thanks to those who send in their local news to this column by telephone and by letters.

Every business and professional man or woman needs first class printed stationery—the kind we print.
