AT THE SIGN OF THE BLUE TRIANGLE

On Friday, February 4, a group of 20 girls from Booker Washington High School met at the Phyllis Wheatley Branch, 1323 Assembly Street, in the first regular meeting of the Society of Friends. This is a voluntary organization of the girls of the high school department. Officers are as follows: Eva Lewis, president; Ruby Hampton, vice president; Rosalie Shelton, secretary; Lucile Rose, treasurer; Bessie Martin, chairman program committee; Laura Bynum, chairman social committee; Flora Dunlap, chairman service committee.

The purpose of the club is the purpose of every Blue Triangle girl—to face life squarely. In what better way could they carry out such a purpose than by being a part of an organization which has for its purpose the bringing of girls into comradeship with one another and into comradeship with Jesus Christ, believing that each experience interprets and strengthens the other; the helping of girls to understand that comradeship with Jesus Christ is related to all that they think and do—their seemingly trifling acts as well as their more important religious acts, and lastly, helping girls in their home, school work, church and community, to live as comrades of Jesus Christ. For such is the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. as regards its girls.

The club meets the first and third Friday of each month, at 5 o'clock, at the Phyllis Wheatley Branch. See next week's issue for the Blue Triangle Way.

Mrs. Hattie Sharp of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Marshall, 1318 Barnwell St.

Girls, shop early and get home early. By no means hang around on the streets late at night.

FUNERAL OF MR. SAMUEL FRAZIER

Long before the hour for the funeral of Mr. Samuel Frazier at 1 o'clock Sunday at Ebenezer Baptist Church, the crowd gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to this deceased brother. He was a deacon of the above named church and a member of the Religious Ladies' Loyal and Men's Grand Union.

Section No. 79, of which he was a member, was present with their local president, W. E. Barsh, to handle the body. They were assisted by other sections. Mr. Frazier was a faithful worker in this union and stood high in the estimation of his fellow workers.

As the body neared the door the Society members joined the procession and went into the church. Rev. J. D. Felder, the general president, walked in front of Johnson, Bradley and Morris, who were the funeral directors.

In the pulpit were the following preachers: Revs. R. R. Richardson, W. Jumper, A. Phillips, J. F. McCormick, J. D. Felder and Rev. John Green, pastor of the church. At this point the society went through their customary ceremony. Hymn was lifted by Rev. J. D. Felder. "Dark was the night and cold was the ground on which the Lord was laid." Remarks made by president and then "How happy every child of Grace" was sung. Prayer by Bro. D. W. White of Section 129. Then Rev. Felder named the following to speak in behalf of the Union, namely: Bros. W. E. Barsh, Whitaker, James Scurry and Rev. McCormick. After these had spoken the services were turned over to the pastor, Rev. John Green, who spoke of the departed Christian and then introduced Rev. Jumper, who baptized Bro. Frazier. In part he said, "I don't know what to say about Sam looking toward the vaulted seat of the dead. When I baptized Sam he was the first to shout in the water up until that time of my pastorate and he did not leave his religion in the water but lived it every day of his life". After Rev. Jumper's talk Rev. Green spoke for about 20 minutes and then turned the body over to the R. L. L. and M. G. U. to finish the services at the grave.

GREELEYVILLE NEWS.

The farmers in this section are trying with an unsettled mind to prepare for their farms. I am fearful that the cotton and tobacco crops in this section will be slighted to a large extent. The merchants do not need a two-ton truck to carry their deposits to the banks nowadays. The mission union of Williamsburg county have just closed a delightful session with the Trinity Baptist Church, with A. D. Nelson president. The installation of Rev. J. D. Nathaniel of Sumter to the Good Hope Baptist Church will commence the week before the first Sunday in March, 1921. He is being made welcome by all of the neighboring pastors and churches of this section. We hope for him a successful voyage in this field of labor. On the second Sunday in January we were on our missionary tour with Rev. Jas. P. Garrick and his people at Bethel Church, Sumter County. They gave us a royal welcome and asked that we must come again. They are doing good work and are making old Bethel shine as a new edifice.

CHESTER PARAGRAPHS.

The Bible Institute which was conducted at the Mt. Carmel Presbyterian Church during the past week was attended by large crowds at each session. A. B. McCoy and Miss Fortine, assisted by Prof. A. A. Adair, District S. S. Missionary, kept things interesting from beginning to end. The members and friends feel greatly benefited for the much helpful instruction which was received from this meeting, and hope that in the very near future other institutes will be held here. Dr. Ayers and Prof. A. A. Adair deserve much credit for the success which attended the meetings. The collections were also very good. Mrs. Bessie Durham and two interesting little children, Demetra and Walter, of Atlantic City, spent the week-end with Mrs. Wannie Gordon and Miss Connie McIlwain. Mrs. Margaret Foster and little daughter Anna Margaret, of Charlotte, are in the city for a few weeks visiting relatives.

Memorial exercises were held Sunday afternoon at the A. M. E. Church by Mr. Luther Bell. The exercises were well attended, appropriate prayers were made by various persons, including on the life of the deceased. Mr. Bell was, up to the time of his illness, superintendent of the Sunday School, a member of the choir, a faithful worker in the church and a good citizen.

The Calvary Baptist Sunday School had an attendance last Sunday of 207, collection amounted to $15.57.

LOVE TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR HUSBAND.

In memory of my dear husband, James Thompson, who departed this life six years ago, February 16, 1915: Dearest Jimmie, I do miss thee, With thy sweet and smiling face; But I know that thou art happy, Filled with His abiding grace.

Thou, our love, who hast departed, From this sinful world of ours, Knowest not that I do love thee— But His love is greater than ours.

Go didd call thee, dearest Jimmie, From a world of sin and woe; From across the great, deep waters, To where thou knowest sin no more.

For of such is the kingdom of heaven;

So said Jesus, in His Word, And to thee a crown He's given, And his promise He has filled. A loving wife, JENNIE E. THOMPSON.

HOW TO RID POULTRY HOUSE OF 'STICK-TIGHT' FLEAS.

"Stick-tight" fleas breed in the cracks and crevices of brood coops and poultry houses; also in dry animal or vegetable refuse, but will not breed in damp or wet places; therefore, to get rid of them it is necessary to clean and spray the houses and runs thoroughly as well as treat the birds, say poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Grease the comb and wattles of the fowls and chicks with a preparation of kerosene and lard—1 part kerosene to 3 parts of lard—being very careful not to use too much of the mixture or get any of it in the birds' eyes or on other places where it is not necessary, as it may cause injury if used too freely.

Clean and spray the coops and houses thoroughly the same as for poultry mites; also wet or spray the yards or runs, especially any dry soil about the poultry houses, such as dirt floors, with a solution of salt and water, which helps to keep the ground moist and prevents the fleas from breeding.
