JULY 9th, 1921.

The session of the Women's Convention held in Greenville was the greatest in the history of the Convention as to number, finance and uplifting work done. The same officers were re-elected. The Convention goes to Bennettsville next year.

There seems to be quite a lack of interest in the Columbia Board of Trade already. Some of the main men who clamored for this much needed enterprise seem to have gotten cold feet.

The editor has not as yet received a watermelon, a quart of peaches, potatoes, nor anything else in the fruit and vegetable line even on subscription dues to say nothing about "a token of appreciation" for the "good service" rendered. Yet we would gladly give credit on subscription for these products.

The killing of Dr. Lawton Lipscomb, former Columbian at Ninety Six last Tuesday by one of his farm hands, "Pink" Adams is regretted by all Negroes in South Carolina just as much as the whites and the Negroes are just as anxious that he suffer for his crime according to the provisions made by the law for such crimes as our white friends are. In fact to make a long story short we Negroes believe in law and order and say like the immediate family of Dr. Lipscomb, "let the law take its course."

Quite a difference indeed between the posse of Ninety Six and the posse of McCormick a few days ago who murdered Herbert Quarles. The Indicator knows nothing of the family standing of Quarles' victim but it does know that the Lipscomb family represent the aristocratic element in South Carolina which element cannot afford to descend to the low level of savages. This fact is borne out by the request of the family to "let the law take its course." While The Indicator deeply sympathizes with the bereaved family it congratulates them on their stand for law and order.

In the recent municipal election in Jacksonville, Fla., there were two colored candidates for Council-at-large while four others sought election from their respective wards. The Colored Candidates made good showings. None were elected and it is hardly probable that any really expected to be, but to show to the world that they want to exercise their rights as citizens and that they want to lend inspiration to the party they represent, they went after it for all they were worth and made the white voters do some extraordinary hustling to hold their own.

Jacksonville like Columbia and other places don't have to do any extra polling unless the Negroes awake and show signs of earnest activities and in every case they do their best to keep the Negro down. This action on the part of our white friends to keep us down should add fuel to our ambition to do any way if possible, but it doesn't. We give it up in almost every instance as a hopeless case. But The Indicator is hoping that the colored citizens of Jacksonville will use every opportunity by the next election to register their men and women and be prepared to poll a still larger vote.

The Negroes in Columbia are still dozing politically. No body urges registration any more, nor do they aspire for any office. The Indicator thinks, however, after these four years they will again revive and bestir themselves to their political duties. But this is not a healthy sign. Our leaders should be actively engaged in everything that lends inspiration to our people in all matters of politics whether locally or not. Why not clubs in each ward to see that men and women register and become citizens of this commonwealth as well as be prepared for any emergency? Our leaders need to wake up.

DR. MOORE CELEBRATES FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

ANNIVERSARY SERMON IS PREACHED BY DR. J. S. EARLE.

The first anniversary of Dr. H. M. Moore as pastor of Second Calvary Baptist Church began June 27th and ended July 3rd. The anniversary sermon was preached last Sunday morning by Dr. J. S. Earle, pastor of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Spartanburg, and president of the State Educational and Missionary Convention. The sermon was practical and helpful. The result of Dr. Moore's first year's work at Second Calvary give all evidences for a much greater church. Dr. Moore has a mind to lead aright and the people have a mind to follow his lead.

During the anniversary services $25.50 was raised. Additions to the church for the year were 100. Total amount of money collected for all purposes was $7,104.91 (seven thousand one hundred and four dollars and ninety-one cents).

The slogan for the next year is 300 new members, $12,000 pasonage and pipe organ.

WAVERLEY MILLINERY SHOP ROBBED.

Robbers gained entrance through the side door of the Waverley Millinery and Dressmaking Shop on the night of the 4th and the second time supplied themselves with hats, dresses, men's and ladies' hose, handkerchiefs, etc., to the amount of about $100.

They gained entrance through the side door facing Heidt street.

To the proprietresses this is quite disgusting and discouraging but with the continued patronage of their friends who appreciate their business, they hope to overcome these losses and finally make their business what they started out to make it—a creditable business for the race.

They solicit the continued patronage of the public.

FIRE DAMAGES WOOD'S HABERDASHERY.

The Wood's Haberdashery at 1124 Washington street suffered a heavy loss on the 25th of June from fire and water. We do not know the extent of Mr. Wood's loss but we understand that it was well covered with insurance.

Mr. Woods is now selling the damaged goods at greatly reduced prices.

SPECIAL LECTURE TO B. Y. P. U. OF SECOND CALVARY.

Dr. T. M. Boykin, pastor of Union Baptist Church, will deliver a special lecture to the B. Y. P. U. of Second Calvary Baptist Church tomorrow, Sunday, at 6:00 p. m. All members of the B. Y. P. U. are urgently requested to be present and hear this special lecture. Friends of the city are especially invited.

ANOTHER BAPTIST CHURCH

The Executive Board of Richland Baptist Association met at the call of more than 18 persons on June 31, 1921, and organized in Columbia the St. James Baptist Church with Rev. J. S. Quarles as pastor.

The meeting was enjoyed by all who attended.

Prayer meeting each Thursday night. Preaching 11:30 and 8:30 p. m. each Sunday. Sunday school at 3 p. m.

Other services will be arranged for. Rev. S. A. Boyd, Moderator.

WOMAN'S CONVENTION

vice to the sisters of the convention it would be this: Conquer the mean elements of nature, destroy every atom of dishonesty, be as sound as 24 karat gold, as true as best steel, as reliable as the course of nature, as pure as sunlight, as cheering as dew drops, as kind as the gayety of sunbeams, as brave as the hardness of adamant and as helpful as the weeping of clouds. Linger not among the records of the past, thinking that the best has been accomplished, but with faith in God go forward.
