

LAURENS NOTES.

Mrs. Thos. Sanders, Miss Lida and Thomas Sanders, Jr., are visiting friends and relatives in Helena.

Mrs. Rosa Madden, Mrs. Benzena Madden-Hunter and little Hannah Catherine, are visiting relatives in Union and Jonesville.

Mrs. Ida Mae Whitener, Misses Leona and Janie Hunter of Whitmire, are visiting their sister, Mrs. S. C. Satterwhite.

Mrs. Nettie Spann of Columbia is spending some time here among friends and relatives.

Mr. Thomas Sullivan, who has been in Baltimore, Md., for several months, is home for a few weeks.

The remains of Mr. David Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Spartanburg, but formerly of this city, were brought here for burial last Wednesday.

Mrs. Harriet McDaniel and Miss Donzie McDaniel of Spartanburg came down with the family of Mr. David Miller.

Mrs. Emaline Nelson is visiting in Greenwood.

Mrs. Amanda Watts died Saturday after a long illness and was buried here Sunday. She leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Mary L. Franklin of New York, formerly of this city, was a pleasant visitor in here last week. Mrs. Franklin was accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Nance of Greenwood. Mrs. Nance is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Susie Wideman.

GREENWOOD NOTES.

The churches of the city are doing very good work. Rev. S. C. Campbell, pastor of the Morris Chapel Baptist Church, preached two very soul-stirring sermons on Sunday, August 14th, with an attendance of more than 500.

The young ladies and young men of the Morris Chapel Baptist church entertained the people of the city Tuesday night, August 16th, with a ghost party.

A large number of young ladies and young men of this city are planning to enter the different colleges of this State and other States. Greenwood is proud of her boys and girls, at least she should be.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Jones and friends were pleased to have as their guest Miss Rosa L. Jones, who is a student of the John Nims Hospital of Spartanburg. Miss Jones had a two weeks' vacation, one week of which was spent in Columbia.

We are delighted to have as visitors in the city Miss Bessie Clinkscales, a very brilliant young lady and a student of Morris College, and Miss Owens, a charming young lady and a student of State College.

The crop conditions in this part of the State do not seem to be the worst. There has been an unusual large crop of watermelons and cantaloupes. The dry weather has decreased the activity of the weevil. We are hoping that the weevil will not do the farmer any great damage.

EXECUTIVE BOARD, COLORED STATE FAIR, MEETS FAIR REVIVAL PUT ON.

Bishop W. D. Chappelle Sounds Keynote—Plans Are Made for Bigger Fair Nov. 1st-4th, 1921.

The Executive Committee met in Columbia, S. C., August 11th, and put on a very constructive program for the fair this fall. A suggestion by Bishop W. D. Chappelle that we organize each district of the State became a very happy thought of the meeting. This was indorsed by R. W. Westberry, who declared that we should put on a great State Fair revival. This idea was further sanctioned by acting upon a thought of E. J. Sawyer's, who stated that we authorize and instruct each member of the Executive Committee to appoint persons in each county in the State, requesting them to interest the people and to bring exhibits to the fair this fall.

Commence to begin to get ready to start to go to the great agricultural, mechanical and educational fair. Premiums will be paid. There will be attractions, exhibits, music, football and fun by the ton each day.

Prepare to bring the whole family this fall from the baby in the cradle to the grandma in the rocker. Four big days.

Executive Board—Dr. J. H. Goodwin, president; T. A. Williams, treasurer; R. W. Westberry, superintendent; A. W. Hill, Secretary; Bishop W. D. Chappelle, Green Jackson, G. C. Williams, W. S. Watson, W. M. Wallace, C. G. Garrett, S. M. Walker, Rev. S. M. Walker, E. J. Sawyer, Rev. J. B. Smith.

THE PROPHET CONDUCTED A REVIVAL AT FELLOWSHIP CHURCH.

On Sunday, August 7th, I preached the opening sermon at Fellowship Baptist church in the revival and continued through the week. We had a large audience on Sunday and each night. Many people came 12 miles to hear the prophet.

Rev. D. M. Spearman is the pastor of this large church and he always makes visiting ministers welcome. He is the Moderator of the Enoree Association. He secured my services four months ago. He put the meeting entirely in my charge and we had a glorious time. The oldest members of the church said that they had never seen the attendance larger throughout a revival. The collection was $83.

Rev. Spearman is a member of my high council. Sister Lizzie Douglass, with her good husband, Deacon Douglass, came a long distance to be at the meeting. She is one of the leading female members of the council and is doing a great deal to help spread the news of the reign of Christ on earth. Deacon Douglass raised the offering on Sunday morning. The members put forth every effort to make things pleasant for us.

We spent the night with the following persons: Deacons Ruff, Suber, Eigner, Henderson. Also we visited Brothers Abraham, Rutherford and several others and dined with them. On my way from Augusta to this church I stopped in Columbia with my friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Felder. Everybody that lives near any of the members of my high council are making great admiration at the fine crops that they have. Rev. Spearman, Bro. F. C. Clinkscales of Anderson writes me that they have fine crops. Sister Kinard failed to get to the meeting. My write-up on the life of Dr. C. T. Walker created a great deal of interest among our race and there are many persons who say that they would not have known many details about him if they had not been subscribers of The Indicator. Long live the great paper.

I will be at Little River Zion Baptist church next week. Some persons are writing to me asking about the trouble that is soon coming. I will tell you about that later.

The following persons send money for the paper: (1) W. A. Abram, $1.50, Blairs, S. C., R. 1; (2) Mrs. Mary B. Davis, 90c, Blair, S. C., R. 1; (3) R. B. Baxter, 90c, Blairs, R. 1; (4) D. G. Eigner, 90c, Blairs, R. 1, box 8; (5) M. C. Ruff, 90c, Blairs, R. 1; (6) Jas. Rutherford, 90c, Blairs, R. 1, box 1. Total, $6.

Fellowship is a great church and there is great work to do and God will bless it to complete that work.

LABOR DAY BARBECUE.

The Church Aid Club of Second Calvary Baptist Church has plans made for a big barbecue on September 5th, Labor Day, on Roach's green, corner Cervals and Heidt street. Mr. Elliott Green, the best barbecue cook in the State, will see that all patrons enjoy the best meats of the day. Dinner will be served any hour after 12:00 o'clock.

This barbecue will be given for the benefit of the church. All interested parties are invited to come or send buckets.

Authorized by Church Aid Club.
