

The Accounts of the Abbeville Banner. Our friends will bear in mind that we have no control over the accounts due the "Banner" office.

WHITHER ARE WE DRIFTING? The Radical Meeting on Saturday Disgraceful Proceedings. Hoge an incendiary.

To a candid sober-sided enquirer we would desire to furnish no clearer exhibition or more conclusive proof of what Radicalism is actually doing, or the greater evils which it threatens to accomplish, than is furnished by the disgraceful proceedings of the meeting on Saturday.

But have the blacks no right to assemble? Shall Mr. Hoge not address a meeting of his constituents? We are willing to concede both.

RIOT IN NEWBERRY.—We learn from the Newberry Herald that that town has of late experienced a taste of Radical lawlessness.

We had the pleasure on yesterday of meeting Col. Aiken, the honored President of our District Agricultural Society, and the energetic Secretary of the State Agricultural Society.

extent no more." Sullivan (the late member elect) the Chairman of the meeting orders their arrest, and immediately followed a scene of the wildest confusion.

Messrs. Cochran, Johnson, Gray and Carter were immediately arrested, (the two last though present in the meeting had not opened their mouths) were arrested without warrant—were arrested, if upon any pretended charge at all, for doing what every citizen has a right to do—attending a popular meeting, and observing the rules of legitimate discussion.

Is this a free country, or are the boasted rights of American citizenship a myth? Have we rights of persons and property protected by law?—and if so shall these men go free? Shall law-makers become law-breakers with impunity?

THE GUFFINS AGAIN.—We extract the following from a letter received from an esteemed citizen of Cokesbury: "The law is ignored, and vengeance appealed to by those claiming to be law-makers for Abbeville. On last Monday, when the train arrived at Hodges from Abbeville, Mr. Pem Guffin, recently elected to the Legislature, got out of the cars accompanied by a company of armed negroes and essayed a speech somewhat to this effect: "I stand upon the soil where the Hon. B. F. Randolph poured out his life's blood and we intend to have revenge for it."

Death of an Esteemed Citizen. We regret to announce the death of Mr. John Taggart, an old and high esteemed citizen, which occurred after a short illness, at his residence in this village, on Sunday last, the 21 inst.

THE MILLS HOUSE, CHARLESTON, S. C.—This well-known House having been thoroughly renovated and newly furnished has been opened for the reception of guests under the superintendence of J. Parker, Proprietor. A first class Livery Stable is also attached to the House, and carriages for the conveyance of passengers will be in attendance at all the steamboat and railroad trains.

GIN-HOUSE BURNED.—We regret to learn that the gin-house of Dr. W. L. Anderson, of Greenwood, was consumed by fire on last Sunday night, together with a quantity of cotton and wheat the property of himself and neighbors. His loss is estimated at $1500, and his neighbors at $1000. It was the work of an incendiary.

GENERAL HAMPTON'S ADDRESS.—The address of General Hampton before the Macon Fair is worthy of the head and heart of the illustrious chieftain—elevated in tone, hopeful in spirit, wise in counsel—practical, suggestive—sustained throughout, and closing with a peroration, which glows with "thoughts that breathe, and words that burn."

"Dedicate yourselves to the service of your State, and aid in advancing her in the noble career she is entering. March on bravely in the line duty points out, shoulder to shoulder, as you used to do amid the roar of battle. Resort to no violence to redress public wrongs, but seek to remedy them by peaceful agencies. Help each other along the path of life; extend the kindly hand of charity to your disabled comrades, and forget not the widows and orphans of your dead brothers. For myself, I ask you to keep a place for me in your hearts as I shall do for you in mine, and believe that I utter no idle phrase when I say that I pray God to keep and bless you!"

GUFFIN THREATENS MURDER AND ARSON.—One of the most reliable gentlemen of Ninety Six writes us that "Guffin," (we suppose the "Senator elect") "made some heavy threats as he passed down the other day. He said that for the next negro that was killed in the neighborhood, he would burn every gin-house and dwelling for ten miles square, and hang eight of the most prominent Democrats. He said it publicly on the platform at this place. This is pretty heavy." So say we. Yet this man claims to be Senator, and aspires to a law-maker for the people of Abbeville.

The Governor's Message. We commend to the perusal of our readers the Annual Message of Governor Scott—always an interesting document on account of the subjects of which it treats, and the facts which it embodies, whether or not we gain any conclusions or disapprove its suggestions.

See advertisement of Messrs. McDonald, Norwood & Co. in another column. These gentlemen are constantly receiving additions to their large stock of groceries, hardware cutlery, and staple dry goods, which they are selling at reasonable rates. Call and examine.

See advertisement of Messrs. H. W. Lawson & Co. These gentlemen make stoves, tin ware and lamps each a specialty, and challenge competition in the variety of their styles, the excellence and the cheapness of their wares. They have also a choice miscellaneous stock, which they are selling low. Give them a call and judge for yourselves.
