GREAT saving of timber can be made of anything that will not break of its own weight A rat may get through it and a squirrel may climb over but all other animals may stay out. Evans & Hutchison's
MILL,
Formerly the "Donald Mill."

THE MILL, long and favorably known as the "DONALD MILL," has been purchased by us, and we have repaired it thoroughly—putting in a new and splendid SMUTTER (the finest that is in use)—a NEW BOLTING CLOTH, together with NEW MACHINERY, from the Waterwheel to the garret.

This work has been done in a substantial and workmanlike manner by the most experienced and skillful Millwrights in the country, and we believe the Mill now to be in a better condition than it ever was in its palmiest days.

The old Friends and Customers of the Mill are respectfully invited to return to the Mill that in days "lang syne" served them so well, and faithfully.

MR. HUTCHISON, who has had much experience as Miller, will have charge of the Mill, and will give his undivided attention to the wants of their customers.

Respectfully,
JAS. EVANS,
THOS. HUTCHISON.

Improved Cotton Gins.
McLENDEN'S PATENT.

THE subscriber purchased two years ago, McLENDEN'S PATENT IMPROVEMENT TO COTTON GINS, for the Counties of Abbeville, Edgefield, and Newberry; and in that time has sold many of them, and to the entire satisfaction of his patrons. The improvement is applied to the old gin at a trifling expense; and with these material advantages—that it will enable the Gin to gin from one-fourth to one-third more, and to produce a cleaner and better lint. He has numerous certificates from cotton planters to this effect, and also from cotton buyers, stating that the cotton from this Improved Gin will command from one to one-half cents more per pound. Agents will be sent out, and the public patronage is solicited in their behalf.

SURVEYING,

BY
G. A. DOUGLAS.

March 2 1870, 48—12m

Notice to our Patrons.

All of our friends who are indebted to us, either for subscription or advertising, will confer a favor by settling at an early day. The money would be most acceptable to us at this time, and we suppose there is no season which would better suit the convenience of our friends. The crops are being sold, and money is as plentiful now, as we may expect it soon to be. To each one the amount of indebtedness is small, but to us the aggregate is quite considerable. Come and settle!

Democratic Gains.

Congressional elections show the following Democratic gains and losses: Alabama gains two; Arkansas gains one; Florida gains one; Illinois gains three; Indiana gains one; Louisiana gains two; Michigan gains one; Missouri gains four; New Jersey loses one; New York gains four; North Carolina gains three; Pennsylvania gains five; South Carolina loses two; Tennessee gains six; Virginia loses one; West Virginia gains two; Wisconsin gains one; total gain 36; loss 4. The remaining elections are in States that have in the present Congress thirteen Democrats and eight Republicans. New York has gone Democratic by an immense majority, and the World gives the following as the composition of the next Congress: Democrats 108; Radicals 122; Independents 3. The whites of South Carolina will be found in hearty sympathy with the Democracy or anti-radical element of the country. From South Carolina to California—from the Northern lakes to the Southern gulf—there is a vast army of voters arrayed under the anti-radical or Democratic banners.

Our only hope of restoration to the government of our fathers, and relief from the grinding tyranny which oppresses us, is the Democratic party of the country. To its success we can now only extend cordial sympathy and hearty good wishes; but we look with hope to the day, (perhaps not distant,) when we will be able to furnish material aid and active co-operation in achieving a great Democratic victory.
