

Local News

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young of Calhoun Falls were shopping in the city Thursday.

Miss Annie Sharp, who has been teaching at Liberty, is at home for the holidays.

Mrs. C. L. Rock and Mrs. John Gilliam were shopping in Abbeville Thursday.

Miss Margaret Cox, a senior at Chicora college, is at home for the holidays.

Misses Bessie and Helen Haigler are at home from Chicora college for the holidays.

Francis Mabry is at home from Charleston where he has been attending the Medical College.

Jack Bradley blew in from Emory College Wednesday night and is enjoying the holidays at home.

Miss Sarah Harkness, a student at Columbia, is spending the holidays with her home people near the city.

Mrs. W. J. McKee, Mrs. Lily Gordon and little Mary McKee Camp of Due West were shopping in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robt. McIlwaine from near Due West, spent Thursday in the city with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Miller.

Mrs. A. O. Lominick and her young daughter are here from Newberry and will spend Christmas with Mrs. Carl Wosmansky.

Gilbert Nabers, a student at Georgia Tech, is at home for Christmas and is telling the boys all about the big games of football.

Mrs. W. H. Elliott is here from Thomasville, N. C., to spend the Christmas season with her niece, Mrs. Fred S. Hill on Pickens street.

Miss Margaret Swetenburg, who has taught successfully at Ware Shoals for the past season, is at home for Christmas.

Young John Tompkins Mabry is here from Elberton and will get Santa Claus at the home of his grandfather, B. P. Greene.

Mrs. Joe L. Maxwell and little daughter, Evelyn, are here from Augusta and will spend the Christmas season with Mrs. Agnes Penel.

Mrs. Moore Mars, of Abbeville, came Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilkes.—Laurens Advertiser.

Major J. D. Fulp left for Columbia Thursday afternoon where he will remain until after the championship game of football between Charleston and Gaffney.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Everett and the two boys of Spartanburg will arrive in Abbeville Sunday in time for Santa Claus to visit the boys that night.

Mrs. M. R. Plarco and her young son Moffatt, went to Due West Wednesday and remained over for the Galloway-Putnam wedding Thursday. Moffatt acted as ring bearer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jones, of Wood, will be in the city Sunday. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cason. Mr. Jones is a member of the Cokesbury Church. Mrs. Cason of Anderson and Marion Cason of Winston-Salem will arrive in the city Saturday and will spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.

Miss Mary Nickles, who teaches near Conway, is at home for the Christmas season.

Mrs. Claude Wilkinson is here from Newberry and will visit among her home folks.

Allen Nickles of Columbia will spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Nickles.

Mr. E. R. Wardlaw of Philadelphia is at home and will spend the holidays with his home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cheatham were among the visitors in Abbeville Thursday.

Mrs. Joe Anderson was down from Antreville Thursday finishing up the Christmas shopping.

Misses Lucile, Ione and Rebecca Stevenson of Rock Spring were in town today shopping.

Mrs. J. B. Harkness and Miss Sarah Harkness were visitors in town today.

Miss Althea Keaton, a recent graduate of Lander, was in town today.

Mrs. J. C. Ellis left this afternoon for Hodges where she will spend a portion of the holidays.

Albert Leslie, who has a good job at Jacksonville, Fla., is at home for the Christmas holidays.

The Clemson boys are all at home and are making things lively among the girls and in the town.

Ralph Lyon, Francis Glenn and Edwin Barksdale, Citadel Cadets, will arrive Saturday for the holidays.

Mr. R. A. Gilmer of Sunny Slope was in town today paying his taxes and hearing the news around the Court House.

Mrs. W. A. Lee went to Elberton today to spend the Christmas season with her home people. Mr. Lee will go over tomorrow.

Frank Hodges, who is a mighty hunter, has cleaned out the birds in this part of the country, went to Hodges Monday seeking more worlds to conquer.

Mr. T. J. Mimms and his two sons, Frank and John of Leesville, will arrive in Abbeville Saturday and will spend Christmas week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cason on North Main street.

Speeding Made Impossible
Washington, Dec. 21.—Speed governors automatically establish the speed limit by stopping the supply of gasoline to the carburetor after a certain point is reached.

Extension of Limit
Washington Dec. 19.—The house today passed a senate bill extending for one year or until January 2, 1924 the time in which suits may be filed for the return of the property seized by the government during the war.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Planters Bank, Abbeville, S. C., will be held at its banking rooms, Thursday January 11th, 1923 at 12 m.
Otto Bristow, Cashier.
11w. 3 wk.

"CAROLINA SYNCOPATORS"
This is the name of some young men of South Carolina who have migrated to Florida for the winter and have formed an orchestra there which is getting quite a reputation as the "Carolina Syncopators." This orchestra is led by an Anderson young man, R. Glenn Kay, and many Andersonians had the pleasure of hearing the orchestra a few nights ago. No, they were not in Florida, and they did not hear the records, but this orchestra has become so well known that several of their selections were "broadcasted," and some of the Andersonians were

SOCIETY

HASKELL-SMITH.

The marriage of Miss Kate Calhoun Haskell and Prof. Arlie Raymond Smith was solemnized Thursday afternoon, December 21, 1922 at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Langdon Cheves Haskell in the presence of an interested party of friends and relatives.

For this occasion the house had been prettily decorated in green and white. In the reception room the decorations were in garlands of ivy and from the mantle a shower of sprengeri fern made an attractive background for the white pedestals which were twined in ivy and surmounted by crystal candelabra. Before the ceremony Miss Edna Helms of Monroe, sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Clara McCauley of Winston-Salem, who also played the wedding march, the bridal party entering as follows: Mrs. Calhoun Haskell as dame of honor entered alone and was followed by little Hettie Smith who carried on a silver tray the wedding ring. The groom was accompanied by his brother, Mr. A. B. Smith and they entered from the side, while Miss Haskell came down the stairs on the arm of her father. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. R. Rankin, of Boone, N. C., assisted by Rev. John A. McMurray, of Abbeville.

Miss Haskell wore a bridal dress of white satin embroidered in beads, with court train and a veil worn bandeau style. She carried in her arms a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Mrs. Calhoun Haskell wore a handsome dress of white lace trimmed in flowers with neck piece of blue ostrich. The little Smith girl was daintily in a dress of pink.

In the dining room the table was covered with a handsome piece of cluny lace and laid with compotes of red and white mints. Vases of red carnations were on each side, and in the center of the table a daintily decorated cake held the place of honor. Mrs. C. A. Milford and Mrs. J. Allen Smith presided at the table and Misses Jeanse White, Margaret Harrison, Carolina Chalmers and Anne Smith served the guests. Mrs. Wyatt Aiken assisted by little Misses Josephine Barnwell and Adair Aiken served coffee in the hall.

In the sitting room the presents were displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left over the Seaboard for a honeymoon trip after which they will make their home in Boone, North Carolina.

In cutting the brides cake, Miss Mary Milford drew the thimble, Miss Susie Mabry the wish bone, Miss Helms the ring, and Mr. Langdon Haskell, the button.

BARKSDALE-HENDRICKS

Miss Winona Barksdale and Mr. Doyle Hendricks were married Thursday night, December 21, 1922 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barksdale. The ceremony was performed in the parlor which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. In the bay window which was outlined with an arch of white stood a handsome fern and beyond this was the piano, made bright with bowls of japonicas and with Christmas candles. White pedestals outlined the passage for the bridal party and on each was a handsome crystal candelabra filled with red candles. Ivy, evergreens and white candles were used throughout the room.

Before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Fannie Stark sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss Mary Milford.

The bridal party entered in the following order: Rev. H. L. Weeks entered alone and was followed by the groom who was escorted by his brother, Mr. Leon Hendricks. Miss Louise Long, as maid of honor, pretty in a jade green taffeta and carrying Killarney roses, came next. She was followed by Mrs. W. D. Barksdale as dame of honor, who wore a handsome dress of white faille, with silver cloth girfashioned bouquet of pink forget-me-nots. Winona Welsh was flower girl and was pretty in a dress of pink maline.

The bride was escorted by her father Mr. W. D. Barksdale. She wore a bride's dress of white faille with self trimmings and a veil looped back with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of bride's roses.

The gentlemen wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony which was witnessed by only the intimate friends of the family, a reception was held which was largely attended and was a lovely affair. The decorations were most elaborate and in all except the ceremony room the Christmas spirit was emphasized. In the hall Christmas wreaths, holly and red candles were effective. The punch bowl, presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Fulp was surrounded by holly. Nearby the open fire with its cozy blaze gave a colonial touch to the scene. Miss Ada Faulkner and James Bradley had charge of the brides book in the hall.

Receiving at the door was Miss May Robertson, Miss Fannie Stark and Mr. J. M. Nickles. In the parlor, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Perrin, Dr. and Mrs. S. G. Thomson and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jones assisted the bridal party. In the dining-room the decorations were beautiful. Holly was banked every where, Christmas bells and candles made the whole room gay while the table was lovely in its covering of lace. Silver candlesticks with red candles surrounded the lovely centerpiece of red carnations. Mrs. C. D. Brown and Mrs. C. A. Milford presided at the table and cream, cake and mints were served by Misses Grace Milford, Jeanse White, Mary Barksdale, Marion Wilson and Debbie Owens.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks left for a wedding trip after which they will return to Abbeville and make their home.

Mrs. Hendricks is the third daughter of Mr. Barksdale and is a young woman of many fine qualities. She is a graduate of Coker College where she specialized in music. Mr. Hendricks is a graduate of Clemson College and for the past year has superintended the Rosenberg farms.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks will have apartments at the Raycroft home.

GALLOWAY-PUTNAM

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Galloway of Due West was the scene Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock of a beautiful wedding when Miss Virginia Galloway became the bride of Mr. Thomas Ansel Putnam. The spacious rooms lent themselves to artistic decorations, in beautiful effect through the use of ferns, potted plants, mistletoe, Southern smilax and lighted tapers.

Just before the ceremony, Mrs. Ernest Neal of Kings Mountain, sister of the bride, sweetly sang "O Perfect Love" and "Heart of Gold" accompanied by Mrs. M. R. Plaxco of Abbeville, pianist. At the last strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin the dainty little ribbon bearers, Marian Kirkpatrick and Margaret Putnam in dresses of white crepe de chine trimmed with pink rosebuds, advanced to form an aisle for the bridal party. The first bridesmaid was Miss Louise Dawson of Louisville, Ga. She was gowned in white crepe de chine and carried a basket of white narcissi and ferns. She was met at the foot of the stairs by Mr. Will Speed of Abbeville, who accompanied her to the ceremony room. Then came Miss Georgia Wardlaw, handsomely gowned in white lace and carrying a basket of narcissi and ferns with Mr. John Harris of Abbeville. They were followed by the dame of honor, Mrs. H. D. Kirkpatrick of Charlotte, sister of the bride, in a beautiful white crepe de chine dress and carrying handsome Richmond roses. Following her came the maid of honor, Miss Kathryn Galloway of Due West, gowned in green crepe de chine and carrying Richmond roses. Then came the ring-bearer, Moffatt Plaxco, Jr., dressed in a black velvet Lord Fauntleroy suit, carrying the ring in a white calla lily tied with white tulle. Next came the groom with his father, Mr. T. A. Putnam, followed by the dainty flower girl and miniature bride, little Elinor Neal, wearing groom at the altar. She was beautifully gowned in white taffeta with veil caught up with lilies of the valley and carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with valley lilies.

Dr. R. L. Robinson performed the ceremony, using the Episcopal ring service. The bride and groom knelt on a white satin cushion for the benediction, "The Lord bless thee and keep thee; the Lord make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee and give thee peace."

After the ceremony black coffee, fruit cake, sandwiches, mints and salted almonds were served in the dining room. Mrs. R. L. Robinson and Mrs. Frank Pressly poured the coffee from silver urns on the prettily appointed dining table. The guests were served by Misses Moffatt, Brooks, Pratt and Agnew.

After the reception the bride and groom left showered with rice and good wishes for a honeymoon trip after which they will return to Due West to make their home.

The bride is one of Due West's most attractive young women. She is a graduate of the Woman's College of Due West and is especially talented as a musician and reader. Since her graduation she has spent some time in Boston studying Expression and Voice and last year she taught in Wheatland, Wyoming.

The groom is a young man of strong personality. He is a veteran of the World War. He is now connected with the Government Weather Bureau located at Due West.

SHOWER FOR MISS GIBERT

On Wednesday afternoon from three to five o'clock Mrs. M. C. Sanders of Greenville, who is spending the winter with her aunts, the Misses Gibert, at their home in the Lebanon section, entertained with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Sarah Elizabeth Gibert, whose marriage to Mr. Gillespie takes place on the 26th.

Despite the inclemency of weather, a merry time was had by those present.

The bride's chair was arranged in rainbow effect, the colors draped to the chandelier, the dining room, terminating in a corner.

Upon their arrival the guests were presented with paper and pencil and requested to write their favorite recipe. These were gathered up, tied with pink ribbons and presented to the bride.

A "Flower Romance" afforded much merriment, after which the guests were invited into the dining room to cut the bride's cake. Standing in the center of the cake was a miniature kewpie doll which was presented to the honoree. After the fortunes of those cutting had been unfolded the bride was asked to follow the rainbow at the end of which was the "bag of gold." Upon opening was found to contain many and useful gifts.

A sweet salad course with fee was served and on each was a tiny basket filled with which was showered on the bride.

All wish for Miss Gibert a happy life.

MUSIC RECITAL

Mrs. Floyd Graves gave a Music Recital at her home on Washington street Friday afternoon, presenting six of her young students. Scales, studies and solos were played by each pupil, while duets were played by two of the smallest children.

After the recital tea and coffee were served by Mrs. Graves assisted by Miss Grace Milford. Those on the program were, Misses Evelyn Hill, Florence Sawyer, Minnie Ella Swetenberg, Oona Gilliam, Charles White, Kathleen Lomax and Mrs. Ira Sprouse.

The Officers and Directors of this Bank Extend to Their Depositors and Clients Most Hearty Good Wishes for A Very Merry Christmas
PLANTERS BANK
"Abbeville's Friendly Bank."

Special Bargains
We are closing out the stock of goods recently bought from L. C. Haskell and are offering some EXTRA SPECIAL BARGAINS IN SHOES.
We also have many other good bargains to offer you, so come in to see us.
Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.