FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1922.

THE PRESS AND BANNER, ABBEVILLE, S. C.

PAGE THREE

Miss Way Harris spent Christmas with her parents at Tignall, Ga.

was a business visitor in Abbeville grip. teray.

C. A. Maigler, Jr., has returned to Adlanta after a visit to his home friend, Miss Virginia Leslie. people.

i.r. Get. T. Barnes came home from Mississippi for Christmas and spent the time with his family.

Miss Rebecca Cater has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Atlanta.

Wyatt Knox was here from Gas- Miss Haigler being hostess. tonia, N. C., spending the holidays with his parents.

here with her parents.

mas hofidays.

Wiss Nelle McGaw spent Christmas with her cousins, Misses Lily and Bessie Link of Sharon.

Miss Sarah Ella Drennan of Atlasta spent the Christmas holidays in Abbeville with her home people.

Dr. Keinedy Magill of Chester tonsilitis. spont the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mr. W. T. Magill.

the Christmas holidays in Abbeville Mrs. W. S. McAlily. with his home people.

her friend, Mrs. C. W. Chandler.

Hume Loftis of Camden spent Exesday and Wednesday in the city lively children returned to their Stone, Mary Greene and Virginia with his sister, Mrs. C. B. Wilson.

Greenville Sunday and stayed until Reid Ashley was in the city today from Level Land on business. Fraser McDill of Columbia spent several days with his home folks on Greenville street.

Mrs. Eliza Gary Briggs is recovering from a serious case of flu and hopes to be out again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck of Carrollton, Ga., spent the holidays here with Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Crowley on Greenville street.

Miss Emma Harris returned from Greenwood for the holidays. Since J. A. Dusenberry of Anderson coming home she has been sick with

> Miss Mary Anderson of Elberton, Ga,, arrived in the city today and will visit for several days with her

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Leaman came over from Greenwood Wednesday and spent part of the season nesday having as their guests Mr. with Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Plaxco.

a house party this week-end at Hod- one. ges, Miss Nickles, a schoolmate of Miss Olivia Horton spent the Christmas season in Manning with Miss Carolyn Edwards of Anderson her mother. She will return to Ab-County Hospital spent the holidays beville for the opening of school.

Mr. J. F. Hill, who is with the Albert Leslie of Jacksonville, Fla., Cotton Cooperative Association in was a visitor here during the Christ- Mississippi, is at home for a few days with his family.

> Billy Bradley, who has a good position in Richmond, came home for Christmas and returned to his work Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Perry has missed the arrived in Abbeville today and will Everett Maghes of Union, spent spend until Monday with Mr. and Allen Robertson came home for the Miss Lika McCaslan went over to holiday season and has been spend-Effection and spent the holidays with ing the time in Abbeville and in Greer with Dr. and Mrs. Baskin.

> Mrs. Frank Hassell and her two home in Wilson, N. C., today after Aiken. a pleasant visit to Chief Justice of the week was that of Miss Louise from the center of the arch while McDill for Miss Mary Quarles Link Wednsday night. Cards were enjoyed.

Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Speed went to and Mrs. Gary.

FOR MISS LINK.

FOR MISS STONE

Miss Mary Greene invited a few friends to dinner Wednesday as a compliment to her visitor, Miss Polly Stone of Atlanta. Christmas decorations made the table gay and after dinner cards and dancing were enjoyed.

DINING Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Plaxco entertained at a family dinner Wed-and Mrs. Leaman of Greenwood aisle, passing through the arch and and the Galloway family from Due formed a tableaux on the pulpit ele-Miss Emmie Haigler is attending West. The occasion was a pleasant vation.

A PARTY

Miss Ellen Nabers gave a party Tuesday night to the members of the ninth grade and other friends. A pleasant time was spent in playing games, guessing contests and in shooting fire works.

Refreshments were served during the evening. Personals

A CHRISTMAS PARTY

Miss Elizabeth Thomson, who is home from Converse for the holidays, entertained at a pleasant card Christmas fun this year, being con- party Thursday night at her home fined to her home with a case of on North Main street. The house was prettily decorated in holly, mistletoe, Christmas candles and Mr. Allen Hardin of Savannah wreathes. Cards were enjoyed after which a salad course was served.

MISS BRADLEY ENTERTAINS

Miss Edna Bradley entertained at a pleasant card party this morning at her home on Greenville street. Her guests wre Mrs. Willie Speed, Misses Ruth Howie, Mary White, Margaret Wilson, Polly After the games an elaborate salad course was served.

of the bride performing the ceremony.

The church was prettily decorated for the occasion in green and white. An arch was placed in front of the altar and this was draped in white and twined with maiden hair fern. A large bell of white maline tied One of the pleasant small parties with a maline bow was suspended over the top numbers of pink candles shed a soft glow over the bridal party.

Miss Margie Guillebeau presided at the organ and the bridal party entered in the following order: Messrs. Sam William, Roy Guillebeau, Miles Woodhurst and Eugene Gibert, the ushers were followed by Miss Woodroe Wilson, Miss Clarkie Guillebeau, Miss Ellie William and Miss Elise McNeill as bridesmaids.

Little Misses Doris Jackson and Margaret Sanders as flower girls, dressed in white with baskets of flowers came down one aisle while, Steven Gibert and W. B. Wilson, dressed in white and carrying shepherds crooks came down the other Little Mary Gibert as ring bearer was dressed in pink and carried the ring in a large pink carnation.

The groom entered with his brother, Mr. Richard Williams, while the bride was escorted by her sister, Miss Louise Gibert. The ring service was used and the ceremony was performed in an impressive manner. The bride wore a coat suit of blue with accessories to match and wore a hat of black. She carried a shower carnations. The bridesmaids wore af- noon on Tuesday, January 9, 1928. to be present. ternoon dresses, with hats and carried shower bouquets of maiden hair 1t wk. 3wks. fern with shower effect of holly and white ribbon.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to McCormick where they spent the holidays with Mrs. J. W. Langley, the sister of the groom. holders of the Building and Loan Mr. Williams is a prosperous far- Association of Abbeville will be held mer in the Sharon section and the Wednesday afternoon, January 3rd, young couple will begin house-kccp- at 6 o'clock, in the office of Dr. G. ing at once. Both are popular A. Neuffer. throughout the county and they begin their married life with the good 2t col. wishes of a host of friends.

A FAMILY HOUSE PARTY

Miss Clara Wham has had a holders of the Planters Bank, Abbepleasant house party during the ville, S. C., will be held at its bank holidays at her home on Pinckney ing rooms, Thursday, January 11th, came from Baltimore for the week. Mrs. Pitts is remembered here as 1tw. 3 wk.

first visit since her marriage. Other

Will be soon in order. The best kind of a resolution you can make this year is to be a persistent saver. Start an account now-and add to it

Remember only a dollar a week means fifty-two, plus interest in one short year.

"Abbeville's Friendly Bank."

FISH FRY SATURDAY

Cedar Camp W. O. W. No. 325

C. A. Seawright, Clerk

THE GIFT SHOP

NEWLY ARRIVED

GOODS.

Beautiful Sanitas Lum-

cheon Sets, in Floral and Baby Moccasins made of white washable kid.

Hand Carved Nut Sets

and other Novelties.

Home-made Candy on Sale Friday and Saturday.

: ittw

Fruit designs.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the National Bank of Ab- will have a fish fry Saturday bouquet of brides roses and pink beville will be held in its office at Dec. 30. All members are requested

Lewis Perrin, Cashier.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Otto Bristow, Cashier.

Miss Annie Wham . and this is her

J. S. Morse,

AUGC CDALE IIIIUU UIITUL 666 quickly relieves Colds cant by the death of Judge Frank LaGrippe, Constipation, Bilie and Headaches.

The annual meeting of the share-

The annual meeting of the stock-street. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Pitts 1923 at 12 M.

Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Marchant.

Mrs. A. B. McLain and Arthur spent the time here with Mrs. J. A. hime in Knoxville, Tenn., after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cox.

will spend the time in Greenville with her brother and in Cheraw with riends.

Mr. Blanding Dick stopped in Abbeville Monday on his way to Darlington to visit his father. He McLain have returned to their Smith and Mrs. W. H. White.

Mrs. Sam Seal and her fine boy, Sam Jr., are over from Logansville, Ga., until Saturday spending Miss Blanche Reep is taking a the time with Mrs. W. E. Owens est for the month of January and and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Seal.

> Miss Virginia Aiken of Dayton, Ohio, Barnwell Aiken of New York, and Wyatt Aiken of Greenville

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bartlett and spent the Christmas holidays at home and also with their grandhildren have returned to Greenille after spending the holidays mother, Mrs. Barnwell, who conith their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E tinues sick at her home on Greeniley of Sharon. ville street.

Opera Monday Jan. 1st House

"It's A Great Life" By MARY ROBERTS RINEHART

You're going to laugh!

Mary Roberts Rniehart has never written a funnier story than this delightful chapter in the adventurous lives of a couple of school boys.

NOTE—This picture will be shown for the Benefit of the Abbeville Library. Come out and see a good picture and help your Library.

15 Cents--Admission--35 Cents

AN AFTERNOON PARTY

Little Miss Margaret Penney is having a party this afternoon for six of her little friends, the guests being Thelma Bauknight, Ethel Whaley, Nona Tutt, Minnie Ella Swetenburg, and Angela Roche. The young people enjoyed "old maid," rook and other games and the fruit cake, Lady Baltimore cake and ambrosia served.

FOR MISS STONE

Miss Mary Greene gave a card party Thursday afternoon as a compliment to her visitor, Miss Polly Stone. Holly and red candles gave the rooms a holiday appearance and the guests, the young girls home from college, enjoyed the games of cards. A sweet course followed by nuts, raisins, coffee and cheese was served.

DR. McMURRAY ENTERTAINS

last night having as his guests, the and Mrs. J. E. Riley of Sharon. Mr. doctors of the city, the druggists and Rev. John McMurray and Rev. M. R. Plaxco. Christmas decorations of holly, bells, wreathes and in their married life. candles gave the rooms and the table a festive air, while the place cards, a Santa Claus, brought back the youth of the dignified guests. A delightful dinner was served and the time after was spent in the enjoyment of pleasant conversation and cigars.

GIBERT-WILLIAMS.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Gibert and Mr. James Gillespie William was celebrated on Dec. ficiently from his recent operation 26, 1922 at 3 o'clock in the afterto be taken to his home Thursday. noon at Lebanon Presbyterian church He is making a satisfactory recovguests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank DesChamps of Bishopville, Misses Clara and Mary Adams of Washington, N. C., and Miss Gladys Wham of Greelysville.

The reunion was pleasant indeed.

A HUNTING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tusten and Miss Ann Tusten of New York and Jack and Mabel Bradley went to Bellevue Tuesday and are visiting with Mr. nd Mrs. W. D. Morrah. The men folks are enjoying the good hunting in that section of the country.

RILEY-McNEILL.

Wednesday afternoon, December 20th. Miss Willie Riley and Mr. Don McNeill were married at Sharon Methodist parsonage, Rev. J. B. Kilgore performing the ceremony. Miss Riley was accompanied by her only sister, Mrs. J. E. Bartlett of Greenville and was attractive in a traveling suit of blue with accessories to McNeill is a prosperous farmer of Warrenton. They have many friends who wish for them much happiness

WORK

Delph McDill, who has been in Columbia for several years with the Southern Cotton Oil Co., has accepted a position with the Federal Land Bank and will be with them in the future. This promotion is good news to friends in Abbeville.

MR. COX HOME

Mr. J. C. Cox has recovered suf-

Endorsed For Circuit Juda Laurens, Dec. 19.-James H. Sullivan, of this city, has been endorsed by the Laurens Bar for the office of Circuit Judge made va-B. Gary.

MORTGAGES

We are in a position to supply First Mortgage Real Estate Bonds issued by C. L. Miller & Co., Inc., Atlanta, Ga.

These bonds are amply secured by a closed first mortgage on income paying building in progressive southern cities. They may be had in maturities from two to fifteen years and in denominations of $100.00, $500.00, $1,000.00. Interest 7 and 7 1-2 per cent, payable semi-annually.

Call and ask us for full information.

Dr. C. H. McMurray gave pleasant dinner party at his home match. She is the daughter of Mr.

CHANGING