Beaufort County Republican

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1872.

It will be seen that our paper this week is of little interest to any except owners of real estate. We hope our readers will have a little patience and we will do better for them next week in the way of news.

THE CONVENTION.

The best laid plans of mice and man, gang aft agley. For three weeks those who have generally guided politics in this State have schemed, quarrelled, agreed and then quarrelled, schemed and agreed again, until at last it was thought that a ticket had been agreed upon which could be put through without difficulty. But no sooner had the convention assembled than it was seen that there was an element at work which was determined to break the state. The fight commenced upon the question as to who should be temporary chairman. R. B. Elliott was nominated. Whereupon his nomination was opposed by that of R. H. Gleaves of Beaufort. He was advocated principally upon the ground that he was outside of all rings.

The long debate proved that the convention was not in a temper to be controlled, and every step of the organization intensified the opposition to the dictation of those who had cut out the work for the delegates. Long before a ballot was reached the state was smashed to smithereens.

The following by Hayne of Barnwell, was adopted:

Resolved, By the Republicans of the State of South Carolina, in convention assembled, that we do hereby endorse Governor Robert K. Sec. II, as a true Republican and faithful public officer.

Railroad Accidents.

On Sunday evening as the down train on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad approached the trestle works across the Savannah river, the conductor thought it unsafe to attempt to cross with his train, he detached his engine from the cars and proceeded slowly across. He had not gone far before the engine, engineer, fireman and conductor were precipitated in the river. The latter escaped with a ducking the former having a greater specific gravity, sunk to the bottom.

The down train on the same road on Monday ran off the track in Elliott cut ditching the conductor's car and one other no one injured so far as we have been able to learn.

The Courts.

Owing to the non-arrival of Judge Farmer, the court of sessions was not opened until this morning. After the charge of His Honor, the Grand Jury retired and after a short session returned the following bills:

- State vs. John McPherson, Larceny, no bill.
- Paul Chisolm, Larceny, true bill.
- Paddy Bryan, Burglary, true bill.
- John Johnson, Rape, true bill.
- Andrew Dean, Arson, true bill.
- W. E. House, Arson, true bill.
- George Smith, Robbery, true bill.
- George Smith, assault with intent to kill true bill.

Hon. W. J. Whipper arrived in town last evening to attend Court, but expects to leave to-morrow for Columbia.

APPOINTMENT.—The Governor has appointed S. D. Gilbert county commissioner for Beaufort County.

Another Impeachment.

A dispatch to the Tribune says: "Senator Osborn received a telegram from Tallahassee, Florida, this evening announcing that Gov. Reed of that State was impeached to-day by a unanimous vote of the Legislature upon the report of the committee on railroads. Nothing definite is known here as to the developments which caused this prompt action on the part of the Legislature, but charges have been freely made for some time against the Governor of gross rascals in connection with the issue of bonds for the building of railroads, and it is understood that the charges have been proven by the evidence. Littlefield, who plundered the State of North Carolina, by obtaining State bonds to build railroads pocketing the proceeds of sale and decamping to Florida, is said to have been in league with Gov. Reed and to have got $3,000,000 worth of State bonds, in exchange for an equal amount of railroad bonds, building with the proceeds only nine miles of road! The issue of State bonds to railroads is prohibited by the constitution of the State, and it is charged that Littlefield bought the bill through the Legislature and corrupted the Governor for his signature."

Reed and Littlefield are well known in this vicinity. The first as a weak man and the second as a most plausible rascal. Reed will probably join Bullock and Holden in their retirement in Washington. There is a reward of $5,000 waiting for the man who will take Littlefield back to North Carolina.

The streets of Augusta are flooded in consequence of the swollen condition of the Savannah river.

The Peedee river is very high deluging the country in the vicinity of Marlboro. The only route from the latter place to Columbia on Friday was by Wilmington.

The Cape Fear river is said to be sixty feet high.

The Columbia Union publishes, with favorable comments, a letter nominating ex-Governor James L. Orr as the republican candidate for Vice-President of the United States.

The proposition to reduce the tax for county purposes to 2½ mills is preposterous. We are in favor of a five mill tax for the county, irrespective of what is levied for the state.

We have received the illustrated catalogues of James Vick and Briggs & Co. seedsmen of Rochester, New York. These pamphlets are elegant specimens of printing; the illustrations are particularly noticeable for the care and facility with which they are got up. Those wanting flower seeds or vegetable seeds should send for one of these catalogues. James Vick has placed us under special obligations for a fine assortment of flower seeds.
