English people are beginning to examine the confectionery offered for sale with a suspicious eye. In fact they begin to think that Christiana Edmonds need not have taken the trouble to tamble to London for a purpose, when poisoned candies are sold openly in the shops.

For Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption in its early stages, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. 615.

MEALS and HEALTH.—Take them at regular hours. Breakfast should be enjoyed soon after rising, and before any laborious exercise. Eat no late suppers. Severe physical or mental labor during the last hour, either before or after meals, should be avoided when possible.

Torpedo Boat Sink. The uselessness of the torpedo boat which was launched at the Navy Yard in Brooklyn, was fully demonstrated by an accident which, had it not been in good time discovered, would have resulted in the death by suffocation of three mechanics.

The story of the bloody butchery of the wealthy Jewish banker is vividly imprinted on almost every mind, and its impression can scarcely be dissipated until at length the assassin shall be brought to justice and its strange mystery explained, if that may ever be.

The murder of Nathan, that mystery of horror and darkness, which more than two years ago thrilled the nerves of humanity with a terror more dreadful than that inspired by any former deed in the annals of crime, has recently been raised like some ill omened ghost from the shadows of oblivion in which it was almost lost to public view.

By this time a messenger had been dispatched to Surgeon Rhoades, the medical officer of the yard, who, attended by Mr. J. H. Bellingham, with a galvanic battery and other remedial agents, were quickly on the spot.

VERY LONESOME.—The lonesomeness of some married men when their wives are away, said a simple-minded lady, while speaking of the summer flights, is awful. There now, is Mr. Jimminy. He is so cast down that he never comes home now except with a latch key, and then he pounds his poor lone hands on the gate for an hour before he can get in, and his voice is so lost in gloom that all his words run together, and nobody can understand what he says this time o' night; and then, too, he goes down to the lake with a lady in the buggy to console him for the absence of his wife, and he don't get back—'it takes so long to mollify a lone husband, you know—until the soda water shops are all shut.

A WHOLESOME MEDICINE.—Are you in trouble? Work it off. Don't try to quench your sorrow in rum or narcotics. If you begin this you must keep right on with it, till it leads you to ruin; or if you try to pause, you must add physical pain and degradation to the sorrow you seek to escape.

THE LITTLE GIRL and the BEARS.—It is dangerous to be a little girl in some parts of the country, even now: At New Sweden, Aroostook Co., Me., a little girl, fourteen years old, went for a pail of water for her father, who was at work in the woods.

STRICT LETTER OF THE LAW.—A young woman recently appeared before the court at Lieges, with a demand for a separation or divorce from her husband, on the ground that her husband had hired a suite of apartments which she could not occupy. She was informed that this simple disregard of her wishes was not sufficient ground for a divorce.

THE NATHAN CASE.—Notwithstanding the moral certainty expressed by the police of New York for Forrester's guilt, the prosecution of that gentleman has been discontinued, as the technicalities of its evidence will not bear the test of cross-examination.

THE BEARD.—Moffat and Livingstone, the explorers, and many other travelers, say that at night no wrapper can equal the beard. A remarkable fact is, too, that the beard, like the hair of the head, protects against the heat of the sun; it acts as the thatch does to the ice-house; but more than this, it becomes moist with perspiration, and then, by evaporation, cools the skin.

Woolen Manufacturers of the United States. The complete statistics of the manufacture of woolen goods in the United States, as returned at the Ninth Census for the year ending June 1, 1870, have just been sent to press from the Census office, and exhibit the following totals:

Of the 2,891 establishments in the United States, there are in Pennsylvania 457; New York 252; Ohio 223; Massachusetts 185; Indiana 175; Missouri 156; Tennessee 148; Kentucky 125; Illinois 109; Connecticut 108; Maine 107; Iowa, 85; New Hampshire 77; West Virginia 74; Virginia 68; Rhode Island 65; Vermont 65; Wisconsin 64; Michigan 54; North Carolina 52; Georgia 46; Maryland 31; New Jersey 29; Texas 20; Utah 15; South Carolina 15; Alabama 14; Arkansas 13; Delaware 11; Mississippi 11; Minnesota 10; Kansas 9; Oregon 9; California 5; Louisiana 2; Florida 1, and New Mexico 1. The capital of these 2,891 establishments is reported at $98,824,531.

The number of steam engines is 1,050, with a horse-power of 35,900, and water wheels with a horse-power of 59,392. The number of sets of cards is 8,365, with a daily capacity of 855,392 pounds of carded wool, number of broad looms 14,039; narrow looms, 20,144; The average number of hands employed during the year has been—of males above sixteen, 42,728; of females above fifteen, 27,682; of children and youth, 9,643.

Among the productions of these 2,891 establishments are 63,340,612 yards of cloth, cassimeres and doeskins, 59,965,286 yards of flannel, 1,941,865 yards of felted cloth, 2,663,707 yards of repeaters, 2,853,458 yards of tweeds and twills. Number of pairs of blankets, 2,000,430; number of carriage robes, 22,500; number of shawls, 2,312,761; number of pounds of yarn, 14,256,237; total value of production, $155,405,085.

A QUEENLY MATCHMAKER.—When Edward the Fourth was on the throne of England, he was so desirous to secure every letter or dispatch written by Margaret of Anjou, that heroic wife of an heroic king, that the penalty of death was awarded against any person who, receiving a letter, or being in possession of a letter from Queen Margaret, delayed in surrendering the same to the government.

WHAT SMOKERS GO THROUGH, AND WHY.—There is a youth before us smoking a cigar with keen enjoyment. How did he acquire the habit? Was he always a smoker? Assuredly not. He associated with friends who indulged in the superfluous habit, and was induced by them to follow their example; nor did he after a few tentative efforts overcome the difficulties which the task involves.

FRUITS.—A walk through our market shows at a glance how prolific our fruit crop is. For the last ten years peaches have not been so plentiful of such fine quality. The plumbs also are of the finest flavor, and will compare with any in the world.

AMERICAN FARMERS.—The Artisan says: We hazard the assertion that no class of average means live so well as American farmers. One of these possessing a farm and buildings worth say ten thousand dollars, will gather about him and enjoy more real comfort than could be obtained from the income of a hundred thousand dollars in New York.

MINNESOTA comes to the front with 52,000,000 bushels of wheat this year.

To an Autumn Leaf. The buds of Spring, their beauties coyly hiding From stranger eye, Breathe not to us, as though, the sweet sad chiding That all must die!

On the Porch at Put-in-Bay. A correspondent at Put-in-Bay writes: But to return to the long front porch, as a great many do in real life after the hops or the regular evening dances, that is just as pleasant and don't cost anything.

Farmhouse Notes. HYGIENIC RULES.—Never eat when much fatigued; wait until rested. Never eat before you expect to engage in any severe mental or physical exercise.

HYGIENIC RULES.—Never eat when much fatigued; wait until rested. Never eat before you expect to engage in any severe mental or physical exercise. Never eat in a passion, or when under a great mental excitement, dejection or depressing. Never eat just before taking a bath of any kind, or just before retiring at night. Never eat between regular meals.

MAURE—H. H. Porter, of Mississippi, states that only a small quantity of highly concentrated manure is available the most economical way of using it is to steep it a few days in just enough water to work it into such a consistency that the greatest possible quantity will stick to the roots in it and plant should not be in the South an acre of cotton thus treated will be improved in the yield about as much as the same treated with commercial fertilizers in the ordinary way.

TRAINING A HEIFER TO MILK.—Cows usually become addicted to kicking when heifers, from being milked by abusive milkers. I have never seen an old cow become a kicker unless abused. Instead of cows being averse to being milked when giving a large quantity, I have found it the reverse. When pasturage is good, and cows come home at night with udders distended with milk, they seem grateful to have it removed.

SCALLAWAG STOCK.—It is not at all infrequent to hear a farmer declare that there is no profit in keeping fine cattle; that it would not pay him to purchase a good heifer or bull at $500 where-with to improve his herd. Let us see how things figure up. He raises ten steers of what the drover denominates the scallawag sort, and sells them at three or four years old, or possibly he feeds them six years, when they realize four cents per pound on 800 pounds weight which is equal to $32 per head or $320. It is safe to say that the cost of these cattle will be not less than the price received, so that there will be no profit to the feeder, if there is no loss.
