"DEAR SIR: In your reply to my note of the 8th instant, you kindly offered to 'publish any communication I might see fit to honor your paper with,' took to correct the error by calling a provided t was not 'personal.' I second meeting the same day;—this thank you for your kindness and cour- too was an error; they now call a tesy, but must decline, under your restrictions, to offer anything further in reply to "A Tax Payer, for the reason of personalities and misrepresentations calculated to reflect upon me personally.

"If you will give the above an insection in your paper, you will very much oblige your obedient servant, "B. E. Sessions."

"July 14th, 1871."

We very cheerfully give place to the above note from our friend, and, with due deference to his age, would sugcommunications of "A Tax Payer." We defy him, or the astutest lawyer in the United States, to point out wherein his personal character has been assailed in a single paragraph, sentence, or word, in either of the two articles. Our triend is too old in public life not Government, from the highest to the lowest, is open to the scrutiny of the humblest freeman, from the smallest taxpayer down to the individual who has only his life to protect. When an argument cannot be maintained without dealing in personalties, it ceases to have merit, and is unworthy a place in a public journal.

Sale of Valuable Property. Mr. C. F. Buck, Special Referee, sold at auction, on last Tuesday, that valuable property known as the Greenwood Mills. The Mills and Real Estate was bought by Mr. Wm. L. Buck for $18,000.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Buck will continue the milling business, as heretofore carried on by the late firm of Messrs. Wright & Buck.

Death from Over-heat.

On last Wednesday, a colored wowhen, feeling exhausted, she went to ment. the house, and lying down on the bed, asked one of the children to hand her a drink of water, but before it could be brought fresh from the spring, she was so far exhausted that she could not drink it, and in a few moments died.

We are having excessively warm weather, and people should be careful net to get so overheated as to prostrate their systems.

Our School District Tax.

was unauthorized by law. But know- as the majority may deem sufficient. ing that the question left in this shape July 13th, 1871. would lead to interminable dispute, betwen taxpayers and collector, as to whether he tax should be one half mill or five mills on the dollar; we forwarded a copy of the proceedings of the meeting to the Hon. D. H. Chamberlain, Atty. Genl., and requested his opinion as to the legality of the levy; in response to that request, we have recieved the following reply:

Office of the Attorney-General, Columbia, S. C., July 7th, 1871. T. W. Beaty, Esqr.,

Conwayboro, S. C.,

Dear Sir: You or .ne 5th instant is before me. It is me opinion that it will be necessary to hold a regular meeting, called make your school levy legal.

Very respectfully yours,

D. H. Chamberlain Attorney General.

The School Trustees have called a special meeting of the legal voters of Lots: this Township, to take place on the 29th inst., to confirm the levy of five mills on the dollar, or to fix such assessment as, by majority, may be deemed ees, to be sold with the Lot. adequate to the maintenance of the free Schools in this district; -it is clear, that the intention of the law is, that each School District shall levy such an assessment, not to exceed $3 per scho lar, that aided by the appropriation of purchaser to give Bond with good personal se the Legislature, it will te sufficient to maintain efficient Schools in each School District; without this sufficient is required to withhold the State appropriation from the District making an insufficient levy, or no levy at all.

The first levy of a half mill on the dollar, was voted for on the calculation that it would give the amount required; -it was afterwards discovered that it would not be sufficient; -this error was acknowledged, and the Trustees undertook to correct the error by calling a special meeting

As many of our citizens complained that I could not reply properly with-out using personalities. As 'A Tax dollar, and as many of them took great Payer's' article was a complete tissue interest in the meeting, and its results, after it was over; it is hoped they will manifest interest enough in a matter that concerns every taxpayer to be present at the special meeting on Saturday the 29th, or forever thereafter hold their

It is clear that half a mill on the dollar is insufficient for the educational purposes of this School District; such gest to him to carefully read the two an assessment would reflect no credit on us; but would be following the example of the "City of Elms;" making a mythe assessment, that we might beggarly claim our share of the State appropriation; - by the way, the Crescent shadows forth this appropri ation to perfection, it says, "The tax to know that the official conduct of laid is one half mill on the hundred every person in a Republican or free dollars worth of property" or five cents
