THE UNITED STATES COURT.-The District Court was opened at 10 o' clock yesterday morning, Hon. George S. Bryan, presiding:

The United States marshal was ordered to bring the forty boxes of mannfactured tobacco seized at Darlington and addressed to G. Follin, Charleston, S. C., to this city, and deliver to G. Follin the thirty one boxes of said tobacco described in the inventory of R. J. Donaldson, collector. The remaining nine boxes to be held subject to the further order of this court .- Daily

We wish the U. S. Court, or some other process, would order the Rev. Rascal, Jerry-mediddle Donaldson, or somebody else, to pay us back $20 that has been illegally drawn from us, as manufacturer of a newspaper. From this decision we appealed, and sent our appeal up to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. It did not share exactly the fate of l'aul's appeal to Cresar; we did hear from it, and sent our drawback papers up to the authorities in the Lord; for this is right. Honor in this State; but, like disputes in olden time, when they asked Council at Able, there ended the matter, and our money rested in the peckets of the Rev. Rascals.

SOME SNAKE STORY

The Greenville Mountaineer gives an account of the killing of a rattlesnake, four feet six inches long; the low country is not to be out done by find-"ye red hillers and mountaineers." And by way of offeet, the Georgetown Times gives the following account of the killing of a big snake, in the grass. We wish the Times could have added a foot and a half more, so as to have made us just three times as big as these Greenvillians.

But here is the make story, and .if he is not two stories high, he is mighty mear it:

Greenville may lea great place for snakes, but it can't come up to the low country. Mr. Thomas Wiggins, in company with a negro, came up to a rattlesnake near the old Club House on North Santee, which they succeeded in killing. It mersured twelve feet and had sixty rattles. Were it not that Mr. Wiggins was a man of strict truth and integrity, we would be inclined to regard it as "a snake story," but knowing his character for veracity to be unimpeached and unimpeachable, we give credence to the story.

Children Obey Wone Parents.

The apostle Paul, like all other good men, loved good children. In his episthe to the church at Ephesus, he commences the 6th chapter with these words : "Children obey your parents thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise,) that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest live long on the earth." Thus, long life, which all men desire, is promised to those who honor and obey their parents; these are not the words of man, but of God, and are therefore sare and steadfast. On the other hand examine Prov. xxx: 17, and you will

> ----what dreadful plagues, Are threatened by the Lord; To him that breaks his fathers law, Or mocks his mother's word."

Then, my dear children, if you would live a long and happy life in this world, and then die lamented by many friends, and happy in the Lord. Love honor and obey your father, mether and teachers. Also, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth," for it is needful that you, also, obey your Heavenly Father, that you may be happy in time and eternity.

Take Freely.

MORE POPULATION FOR THE SOUTH. (Erom the Courier, May 13, 1871.)

In our advertising columns will be found the announcement of a grand Gift enterprise, in which the amount of balf a million of dollars will be distributed by the South Carolina Land and Immigration Association.

The importance of the object of the Association should recommend the enterprise to every citizen of the State, and the inducements which are offered are such as to tempt every one. The price of tickets is only five dollars, and the holder of one of them will receive the Academy of Music, one of the most valuable pieces of property in the whole Southern country. The stores in the building command high rents; the salpon and store has now and can always have a tenant. The Halls above are in constant demand, and the theatre is by far the handsomest in the South. The Incky holder of the ticket which draws that prize will secure a fortune. The second prize, though less valunble, will be enough to satisfy the most grasping. One hundred thousand dollars is at no time to be despised. A large number of other prizes are to be given, varying from $25,000, $10,000, $5,000, $1,000, &c., amounting to over

The character of the gentlemen who are at the head of this enterprile is such as to satisfy very one that there can be nothing unfair in he transaction. Most gift schemes are started by irresponsible parties. This one is, on the contrary, conducted under the auspices of Gen. M. C. Butler, a former Major General of the Confederate Army, and the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor at the last election, a man whose name in South Carolina, has al. ways been synonymous with high tone honesty and integrity; Nr. John Chadwick, a gentleman who has invested hundreds of thousands of dollars in the State, and wno is honored and respected by the entire community; and Gen. Gary, the honest, brave, manly and popular gentleman, who never knew fear, and whose character stands witnout reproach.

In addition to the high tone, character and responsibility of the Managers, other safe-guarbs are thrown around the scheme which would recommend it to the most skeptical, as will appear by the advertisements. We feel sure that the only difficulty, which will be had in a few days, will be the odtaining of tickets, as they will be eagerly sought after insevery ection of the country.

A FEW WORDS TO THE LADIES-Many Laarticularly mothers nursing, complain of a tired, listless feeling, or complete exhaustion on arising in the morning. CONSUMPTION, Its Cure and Its Preventive, BY J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

M ANY n-human teing has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indispatably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and fiends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they caimly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderful efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own dase proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his direction. for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing esumptu-ons To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The Theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self assuring, self convincing.

onvincing. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the catadelof the malady is as-ailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption organale in despessa and a func-tionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathizs" with the stomach. They respond to the norbific action of the liver. Here them comes the cultivisating result, and the sething in, with all its distressing symptoms, of CONSUMPTION,

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts the Podophilum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-scarching, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike colomel, they SLEAVE NO STENG BEHIND,"

The work of cure is now beg micg. The vitiated & m. our deposition the bowels and in the alim-ntary cannal are ejected The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last, ASUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food Only intention is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach, An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet iven by an insulgent father to suffering man. chenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform ts functions and to hasten and complete the cure It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impored and observed portions of the tugs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and in a very short time the maiady is canquished the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity fregained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the man hood of the womanhood that was.

GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well, it is almost un-possible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it may the prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their put ents, if their large are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patients must keep in good spirit—te determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the amenity and is the ias a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and morale ertainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stage of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time physicians thought that I could not live a week, hen like a drowning man catching at straws, I neard of and obtained the preparations which i now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me It seemed to me that I could feel them pentrate my whole system. They so on ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensiv yellow matter very morning for a long time

As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever, pain and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from sating too growing flesh ever since.

"I was weighed shortly after my recoversy" added the Do tor then looking like a mere skeseton my weight was only ninety-seven pounds my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five 225) pounds and for years I have enjoyed uninter

Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes as it will come let the despairing at once be of good cher.
Good blood at once follows the cough loosens, the these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in
