Miscellaneous. A Sunday School Boy.

Our Thomas dropped a fine red apple out of the front window, which rolled very near the iron railing between the grass-plot and the street.

Oh, my! cried one. "See that bouncing apple! Let's look it out!" The other boy nudged him with a whisper, "Oh, don't! there's somebody looking."

He came up the steps and rang the door-bell. I went to the door. "I found this big apple in your front garden," said the boy; "and I thought maybe you had dropped it out, and didn't know it was there; so I picked it up, and have brought it to you."

An "oracle" at New Orleans, discoursing on the wonders of the Mississippi, mentioned the iron coffin of De Soto, containing the golden trumpet given him by Queen Victoria.

FASHIONABLE INTELLIGENCE.—The Times, of India, gives the following interesting but jaw-trying intelligence:

There was a large number of influential and educated Hindus and Parsees present, and a few Europeans. The bride is twenty-one years old, and well connected.

PHYSICAL LAZINESS.—Physical laziness is one of the most destructive vices of the age. It causes weak, flabby "sposhy" bodies that are always getting out of sorts and are so weak that a strong mind is completely thrown away upon one.

The Newnan (Ga) Defender relates the following timely and benevolent action of an ox: Last week a little boy was passing through the yard of one of our citizens, when he was suddenly assailed by a huge mastiff.
