Frost and ice yesterday morning.

OLD ACQUAINTANCE.—Mr. heid Mrs. William P. Congdon, Newpood, Rhode Island, are on a visit to our town. They are stopping with Mrs. Norman, Rev. H. A. C. Walker preached in the Methodist church on last Wednes. day night. His sermon was very impressive and interesting.

TIRED TOO SOON .- Six raits of timber came in this week. The parties left them with an agent to sell, and went home. Had they made one day's nore run it would have taken them to the mill where they would have sold their timber at a good rice, got their pay and gone home rejoicing.

INCENDIARY FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE. -Mr. J. H. Derham's stables were burned on last Sunday morning. The and in a very short time everybody on market. ork will stop.

INQUEST.-Trial Justice Avery Floyd held an inquest over the body of George Floyd, in Green Sea town ship, on last Sunday morning. The evidence showed that the deceased the mill than this place. hile fighting the fire at Mr. Derham's bles suddenly fell prostrate, and it was supposed that he had swooned com over heat and exertion and would soon revive on being removed from the heat and the use of proper remidies. He was immediately picked up and carried out of reach of the heat but he died almost instantly. The verdict of the jury was in accordance with these facts.

BURGLARY AND LARCENY .- On last Thursday night Thomas Hughs, alias Tom Brantly and Dock Beaty, both colored, broke into Mr. Ulric A. Dusenbury's smokehouse and carried off a quantity of meat and ten or fifteen pounds of nails. They also broke into the barn and carried off corn and rough rice-quantity not known. Mr. Dusenbury was not at home at the time of the burglary. His wife seeing next morning what had been done sent for her father, Col. Causey, who with James Dusenbury tracked the burglars to Dock Beaty's. They found Dock at home and charged him with the crime; he seeing no way to get out of it confessed, implicating Tom Hughs, and showed his portion of the safest. The Radical newspapers are meat hid in a pile of rubbish in the Taking Dock with them they went to Tom Hughes', and he finding it vast number of incendiary fires tells useless to deny the fact showed his share of the meat and nails hid in a bay near his house. Tom is a preacher and Tucker Green, colored, who was with the pany in search, says "Tom didn't go 'cording to scripter for he tack mighty nigh three thirds uv it, and if it had been him he divided with he'd a fit right there." Dock Beaty has been arrested and lodged At the suggestion of the Doctor we cheerfully in jail. Tom has left,

"So GLAD" is what every Parent says en seeing the new Magazine, "BABY LAND," issued by D. Lothrop & Co., Boston. It is gotten up especially for the babies,-is full of pictures and little readings calculated to catch the baby ear. Only Fifty Cents a year, it omes within the reach of every family in the and no parent should neglect for a day

BARBAROUS .- - When General Dan Sickles was military commandant of South Carolina, after the war and before the so called reconstruction, he issued an order abolishing whipping as a punishment for crime, because, he said, it was barbarous and uncivilized. Subsequent! events have shown clearly that it could not be expected otherwise but the framers of our Constitution would knock a section providing for whipping as a punishment for stealing as cold as an iron wedge on a frosty morning. "It is barbarous and uncivilized to whip for stealing," but it is not uncivilized to steal.

Until some other punishment is inflicted for the crimes of incendiarism, burglary and larceny than is now imposed by law we need not expect these crimes to diminish. What punishment is itto a man who will steal, to put him in jail? He steals to get something to eat. The trnth is it is a perfect godsend to a majority of these fellows to get in jail.

It was only three weeks to a day from the day Dock Beaty was turned Regular Communications. out of jail for a petty crime till he was put back for burglary and larceny. Nothing short of whipping will check | stealing, and for burning hanging until the neck is broke is the remady.

A GOOD TIME FOR THE TIMBER CUTTER .- It is not only cheering! but comfortable, in fact makes a fellow feel real good to be able to report better times for that hard working class of fre was discovered about day break, our citizens who cut ton timber for deceased, odder and hay and a barn that was hundred pieces of timber sold at Bull undertake to make a straight stick out There is no doubt but that the fire of a crooked tree. A tree that crooks as the work of an incendiary. two ways should be cut in two at the About three months ago Mr. Derham's first or second crook. If it crooks but welling house, and nearly his entire one way it does not hurt it -get it arniture, was burned under circum- with its natural curve, so that it is ances that pointed strongly to the straight one way it is all right. Get and of the incendiary, and now it is your timber with its natural taper. If opeated in the loss of his stables, it is three inches larger at the butt The old law of hanging for arson will than top it will not hart, it is measave to be enacted before this devilish ured in the middle and you get all that is in the stick.

Waccamaw can do better by taking it if you do not sell, there is a better and s safer chance for taking care of it at be sold at the risk of former purchaser.

Do not "go West." Mr. Frank Burroughs has got back from Texas. He says it is not the bonanza that we have beard it was. Better cut timber than

The Torch and the Cord.

The growing City of Greenville has received a heavy blow. There were two incendiary fires on Saturday, and the loss in excess of the insurance is about thirty thousand dollars. Only a few days ago Newberry was smitten in a similar way, and the destructive incendiary fires in Florence, Union, Chester, Cheraw, Camden and Abbeville are tresh in the public mind. There was in Greenville, as in other places, an attempt to multiply the the fires, so that, in the confusion, the flames would have full sweep. The setting fire to the Mauldin House, while the people and the engines were at the other end of the city, was intended to lay in ashes the wooden buildings in the neighborhood. Fortunately the loss, by the second fire, was confined to the one residence.

The colored people in Greenville are reported to have worked splendidly. They and the whites together ought to be able to ferret out the houseburners, and the quickest punishment is the thick with suggestions that the "op-pressed negroes" in South Carolina can wield the torch more effectively than the whites can use the rifle; and the the public, in unmistakable terms, that the hint is taken. A strong cord and a tail tree is the remedy; and the honest colored people will approve of this as warmly as their white fellowcitizens -- News and Courier.

OF PUBLIC IMPORTANCE .- In our advertising columns to-day are set forth the broad claims and purposes of a new kind of family medicine called Dr. Grosvenor's Liveraid. direct the special attention of our readers to the advertisement. Every man, woman and child with a Liver or Stomach out of order will be interested in a remedy that promises so much and costs so little.
