SOUTH CAROLINA. PROCLAMATION.

the sixtieth year of the Independence of the United States

GEO. McDUFFIE.

By the Governor,
B. H. SAXON,
Secretary of State,
February 11, 1836. 1—6t

SOUTH CAROLINA. PROCLAMATION.

By GEORGE McDUFFIE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the State aforesaid.

WHEREAS information has been given to me, that MATTHIAS AGNOR a blacksmith by trade, formerly a resident of Newberry District, has inveigled and carried away two slaves from the vicinity of Anderson, viz. Daniel, belonging to the estate of John C. McRea, and William, belonging to John Whitaker;

Now, therefore, I do issue this my Proclamation offering a reward of One Hundred Dollars to any person who will arrest the said Agnor, and deliver him into the custody of the Sheriff of Kershaw District.

Given at Columbia, the 24th December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and in the sixtieth year of the Independence of the United States

GEO. McDUFFIE.

By the Governor,
B. H. SAXON,
Secretary of State,
Feb. 11, 1836. 1—6t

SOUTH CAROLINA. PROCLAMATION.

By GEORGE McDUFFIE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the State aforesaid.

WHEREAS an election was held on the first Monday in September last, for a member to represent the Districts of Pendleton and Greenville, in the Congress of the United States; and, whereas it appears, upon the votes returned by the managers of the election to the office of the Secretary of State, that Waddy Thompson, jr. had a majority of said votes;

Now, therefore, I, George McDuffie, Governor of the State of South Carolina, do hereby declare and proclaim that the said Waddy Thompson has been duly elected a Representative from this State, for the Districts of Pendleton and Greenville, to the Congress of the U. States.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the State, this 11th of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and in the sixtieth year of the Independence of the U. States of America.

GEO. McDUFFIE.

By the Governor,
B. H. SAXON,
Secretary of State,
February 11, 1836. 1—6t

Acts of the Legislature.

AN ACT,
To amend the law in relation to granting licenses to retail spirituous liquors, and for other purposes.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, That from and after the first of March next, it shall not be lawful for any corporate body, or the trustees or directors of any Roads, in their respective limits, to grant any license to retail spirituous liquors, except to the applicant for the same.

Sec. 2. Every vendor or retailer of spirituous liquors who shall clandestinely, or behind or within any screen, booth, or other place of concealment exchange, give, deliver, sell, or retail any spirituous liquors, shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, according to the discretion of the presiding Judge.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That hereafter the sum of fifty dollars shall be the amount of the fine to be levied on any person who shall meet and sit at the times and places hereinbefore specified, for the purpose of holding the Court of Appeals, in hearing and determining all matters which may be made for new trials, and in arrest of Judgment, and such parts of Law and Equity as may be submitted to them, with the same powers now exercised by the Court of Appeals; Provided, That not less than a majority of the Commissioners shall hold said Court; And Provided also, That no Chancellor, Law Judge, or any other person, shall exercise appellate jurisdiction thereupon in said Court.

Sec. 4.
