

By Col. Hugh Craig:

Gen. J. W. Blakeney—Our former able representative, he has the thanks of the District for his faithful services.

After this toast, Gen. Blakeney eloquently offered his thanks to the company and to the District, for the repeated evidences of their confidence in him, and in conclusion offered the following:

Hon. A. P. Butler—Our regular sentinel on the watch-tower of Liberty.

By Maj. J. S. Miller:

Henry McLeer, Esq.—He has a hearty welcome to a participation in our festivities. Mr. McLeer thanked the company for the kind notice taken of him, although comparatively a stranger amongst them, and warmly advocated the sentiment contained in the fourth regular toast (non-intervention) showing the folly and the danger to us, as a people, of intermeddling with the internal affairs of other nations.

By Dr. W. J. Baskin:

The State Homestead Bill—It has an unjust and immoral tendency, a curse to the poor and injurious to the people at large.

Mr. B. Aarnt acted as President of the day, and Dr. W. J. Baskin Vice-President. The utmost harmony and good order prevailed throughout the whole of the proceedings—in conclusion, it was

Resolved, That the proceedings be furnished to the Cheraw, Lancaster and Camden papers for publication.

[FOR THE LEDGER.]

Mr. Editor—I have just been reading an article in your useful paper, stating the beneficial effects of the quitting of the use of tobacco on C. M. Heath; and by it I suppose you are willing to publish anything that may have a tendency to benefit mankind, and do away with a filthy and expensive habit. I used the pernicious weed upwards of thirty years—my average weight after I was grown was from 145 to 150 lbs, up to March, 1851; at that time I left it off and March 1852, I weighed 180 lbs. For years previous to that time, I was often troubled with dyspepsia, since then it has entirely left me. If any person doubts my weight, they can come on with their steel-yards and prove the thing.

DUDLEY M. USSERY.

STABBING—STRANGE DEPOSITION.—A man by the name of Wm. Brown, was yesterday brought for examination before Magistrate Robertson, upon a voluntary revelation made by himself to Mr. James J. Beasley, proprietor of an ice cream garden in the upper part of the city, where he (Brown) was staying. The following is the deposition made by Brown:

On Wednesday night last, between one and two o'clock, being aroused by a noise in the yard, Mr. B., the proprietor, being absent, he got up and repaired to the spot accompanied by a little negro boy about six years old. On approaching the place they discovered several men in the yard, and one up in a tree. Brown, on reaching them, was seized and thrown upon the ground, by which he was much injured in the hand, and having a knife, he, upon recovering himself, pursued one of the party, and inflicted several stabs upon his body; he says the man cried out don't kill me! don't kill me! Brown stabbed him several times; the man fell as though he was dead. Brown says, that some time afterwards, thinking he had killed the man, he took the body and placing it in a large sack, took it out into the wood, for concealment, and after going a considerable distance, deposited it on the ground; the man did not move when thrown down. Brown then returned to Mr. Beasley's premises, slept the rest of the night, and returned for the body, with the object of delivering it up to the authorities, but on reaching the spot it could not be found. He does not know how to account for its disappearance, but supposes that he must have been followed by the party, who no doubt removed the body.

Brown does not know certainly if the persons were white or black, but thinks they may have been negroes as they looked black to him, but may have had their faces blacked. He thinks their object was to steal chickens or commit some theft.

The above was detailed to Mr. Beasley by Brown who requested that Mr. Beasley would publish the circumstance in some of the papers, which might lead to some discovery of the injured person.

On Mr. Beasley's return, previous to seeing Brown, he enquired of the boy where Mr. Brown was, the boy mentioned that he had gone down to the city, having had a fight the night previous with some men, and hurt his hand. He mentioned that Brown had given him a knife to clean and when questioned with regard to the state of the knife, said that it had blood on it. Search had been made, and up to the present time, without any further discovery or disclosure. Brown has been committed for further examination.—C. Standard.

BURGLARY AND THEFT.—The store of Mr. W. A. Gourdin, corner of North Commercial wharf and East Bay, was forcibly entered on Wednesday night last, by some cool and daring villain, and robbed of a few articles of groceries, which scarce repaid him for his trouble, and by no means compensated him for the risk.—An entry was forced through one of the windows on East Bay, the bar having been violently drawn by prizing it with some instrument; two of the panes were broken in and several bottles of wine piled against the same, knocked down into the cellar below and broken. The villain after having succeeded in making an entry helped himself to several hams, marked in the name of Mr. Gourdin, and then made his exit through one of the back windows. The whole proceeding was marked by the greatest coolness and deliberation on the part of the robber, from various evidences perceptible.—Id.

LIFE OF HENRY CLAY.—The Leeburg (Va.) Washingtonian suggests the propriety of Joseph Gale, Esq., senior editor of the national Intelligencer, writing the life of Henry Clay. Mr. Gale has been intimately acquainted, for nearly half a century, with the private and political history of Mr. Clay, and has been during all that time his warm personal and political friend, and is thoroughly versed in the history of this country.

Congress.

The Senate, on Thursday, 10th, took up the joint resolution providing for the adjournment of Congress on the 16th of August. The Hon. Robert M. T. Hunter of Virginia, moved an amendment that the adjournment should take place on 30th of August, which was lost. The consideration of the original resolution was then postponed for a week.

The Hon David Merriweather, who has been appointed by the Governor of Kentucky to fill the seat of Mr. Clay until September next appeared and took his seat.

The House of Representatives took up the bill for the appointment of a printer to Congress, and after considerable discussion, postponed the further consideration of it until the following day.

The appropriation bill was then considered and the House adjourned.

ANOTHER CUBAN EXPEDITION REPORTED TO HAVE SAILED.—Advises from Madrid to the 21st ult., state it was confidently reported that a telegraphic despatch had been received from the Spanish ambassador at Paris, stating that an expedition had sailed from Chagres against Cuba, under the command of an American General. It was also said, in connection with the above, that the Spanish government whom the American minister, Mr. Baringer, has hitherto been successful in obtaining the pardon of prisoners brought there as the result of the last expedition—have set their faces against any further exhibition of clemency, and the few who from one cause or another, have not been brought within the former pardons, are still at Ceuta, have little chance of getting out by any such process.

Mrs. CLAY.—A correspondent at Washington writes.

"When Mr. Clay became Secretary of State, Mrs. Clay resided here, and was universally admired for kindness and affability, and her evening parties were rendered as agreeable by her pleasing manners as by her brilliancy and spirit. I remember an incident that occurred when he had the duel with John Randolph. As he was returning from the ground, he asked, anxiously, whether Mrs. Clay knew what had happened. He had informed her that he was going out, and had kept it a secret. Just before his return, she heard it from a servant, and, meeting him in the passage, threw her arms around him, exclaiming, 'O, Harry! how could you go without letting me know?' I mention these circumstances in consequence of the widely circulated statements, lately made in letters from Washington, that Mrs. Clay never was in this city—where her illustrious husband possessed a large portion of his life, and established a name that is honored by the whole civilized world."

BISHOP HEDING'S REQUEST TO THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—This great and good Bishop filled up the measure of his beautiful character by his last will and testament. We shall not refer to other legacies, but simply content ourselves by saying, he gave $1,000 to the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, payable immediately, and made the society his residuary legatee. It is believed that by this act of the Bishop the society will receive between seven and eight thousand dollars. The board of managers, June 10th, authorized the executors of the Bishop, if they and his friends should judge proper, to erect a suitable monument to his memory, and charge the expense of the same to the residuary interest of the Missionary Society.—Christian Advocate.

MOUNT VERNON.—A correspondent of the National Intelligencer, recently on a visit to Mount Vernon, speaks as follows:

"But gentlemen, when my searching looks wandered over the wide expanse of this solitude; when the crumbling fragments of his once stately mansion, told how busily at work had been the hand of time, and how culpably idle that of man, my heart sank within me, and tears of anguish and mortification moistened the ground that had so often borne the majestic form of George Washington! Might these wretched from rapacious minions to the noble task, the redemption of Mount Vernon!"

IMPORTANT TO PLANTERS.—It is stated that adulteration in guano may easily be detected by burning to a red heat. The pure guano burns to a white ash, the earth or clay, in the adulterated, to a red or brown powder.

Rail Road Meeting.

At a Meeting held in the Court House on Sale Day last, the following Report and Resolutions were adopted:

In the opinion of this Meeting, the construction of a Rail Road from Lancaster Court House to some point connecting us in the scheme of roads in this State, amongst other advantages, by enhancing the price of our land, quickening industry, and more thoroughly developing the resources of our soil, affording greatly increased facilities for the transportation of our produce to market, and by throwing us into more intimate connection with other portions of the State, is a work, to the accomplishment of which, we are invited by every motive of self-interest, as well as by every sentiment of patriotism; to the furtherance of which, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a meeting of the citizens of this District be held in the Court House on the first Monday in August next, for the purpose of adopting such measures as may tend to the accomplishment of this great work.

Resolved, That Delegates and citizens from the Districts of Chester, Fairfield, Richmond, Kershaw, and Chesterfield, in this State, and also from Union County, N. C., are invited to attend said meeting and participate in its deliberations.

The Report and Resolutions of the Committee having been read, J. W. Cooke, Esq., addressed the meeting in favor of the report and resolutions—his remarks were brief, but spirited, and to the point. Mr. Williams also spoke in favor of the Preamble and Resolutions of the Committee, urging upon the meeting the great importance of the work to be accomplished, the entire practicability and success of the enterprise; and moved the unanimous adoption of the Preamble and Resolutions offered by the Committee.

The Preamble and Resolutions having been unanimously adopted, Mr. Williams then moved that the Report and Resolutions be published in the Lancaster Ledger until the first Monday in August next, and that the Chester, Windsor, Columbia, Camden, Cheraw, and Charlotte papers be requested to copy.

On motion of Mr. Williams the meeting adjourned.

It shall be universally known—for it is surely true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptic! think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, founded upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoodland's German Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alternative, curative, and invigorant stands alone and unapproached. General receipt, 120 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above.—Philadelphia City Item. 23

The Markets.

CHARLESTON, July 16.—COTTON.—The market for several days preceding the date of our last report has assumed a quiet appearance, but former prices were nevertheless well sustained, and when we consult our enquiries the Middling Fair and Fair qualities were valued at 11 1/4. The receipts for the week comprise 2313 bales, and the sales in the same time foot up 3072 bales, at prices varying from 72 to 114 cent.

COLUMBIA, July 17.—COTTON.—There has been but little done in our cotton market to-day, as we have only heard of one small lot being offered for sale—a very fine article—and which was taken at 10 5/8-16 cents round.
