WANTED IMMEDIATELY. A Printer who has a perfect knowledge of his business to act as Foreman in this Office. Apply at once.

As will be seen, we have surrendered the greater portion of this paper to our Candidates, for the purpose of expressing their views on the question propounded to them. This will account for the lack of other reading matter.

Ar Several new Magazines &c., we have received, which will be noticed next week.

To Correspondents.

T. R. S. EUFAULA, Ala. You will find the recept acknowledged in the Ledger of Prospectus of the Scientific American, a June 30.

ETIWAN .- The poetry will appear, but the prose article we must decline. We have decided to reject all productions of that style.

"Turn Out" of Hanging Rock Division Sons of Temperance.

Some three or four weeks ago, an advertisement appeared in the Ledger, that Hanging Rock Division would "turn out" in full Regalia on Friday, the 13th inst., and neighboring Divisions were invited to join in the procession. Soon after the advertisement appeared, it became very generally understood, that there was to be a pic nic on the oceasion. In fact, as neighboring divisions were invited, and as Lancaster, the nearest, was distant eighteen miles, it was certainly presumed there would be a pic nic or dinner, therefore when it was rumored that preparations were making to give a pic nic on a grand scale, it was readily credited. Anticipating much pleasure, not only by joining in the "turn out" with their brethren, but also having an eye to fat turkies, hams, mutton, perhaps cat-fish soup, &c., a number of the members of Lancaster Division, as well as citizens generally, made an arrangement to be present on this interesting and happy occasion.

We are assured that quite a number of gentlemen from Lancaster, rather than to start the day previous, left here on Friday morning, before breakfast, so that their appetites might be sharpened to do full justice to the viands which would be prepared for

We arrived on the ground about 11 o'clock, in company with our friend the Doctor, and what was our astonishment, when meeting our brother B., of Laucaster, wearing a rueful countenance, and barely saluting us, he indignantly informed us that there was no pic nic, and also no speakers for the occasion. Nover before have we seen so palpable a change come over the countenances of men. Where before was all joy and hilaritybreakfast not even having been thought ofwas now overspread by melancholy and gloomy forbodings.

A few minutes before, anticipating the luxuries, the future held up no immaginary dent. ties; even the petty annoy ances of home and business, of crying infants or disobedient apprentices, all, all were forgetten, so absorbed was the mind with the treat which would be enjoyed after the "turn out."

The National Free Soil Convention. The delegates assembled pursuant to adjournment.

The Hon. J. R. Giddings, of Ohio, then reported the Platform Resolutions, which ssert the equal rights of man, and are in favor of an economical administration of the Government, and a strict construction of the Constitution. They declare, also, that the Government should discourage and localize the institution of the South; and oppose the Compromise measures and the admission of more slave states into the Union. Cheap postage and the election of officers by the people are advocated. Kossuth's doctrine of intervention is asserted, and the scheme of granting public lands to landless settlers strongly favored.

GARRITT will present a minority report. F. Douglass, in his speech on Weineslay evening, was very violent against the fugitive law, and gave utterance to several atrocious sentiments.

Touching .- The following is from the Knickerbocker for August. A correspondent sends us from Albany the subjoined touching incident: "Although we are unacquainted, I cannot well resist communicating the follow-ing circumstance to you. Mr. S. whose residence is next to mine, had a son six years of age last winter; and we a daughter of the same age. So fond were the children of each other's society that the commands of the parents were all that prevented them from being in each other's company both night and day. About a month since the boy was attacked with the scarlet fever, and soon after died. The next day I took our "Fanny' -who mourned, and mourned deeply, her loss-to see the remains of her former playmate: I think I never saw mental agony so strongly depicted in one so young; until, after gazing perhaps a minute at the remains, she turned calmly to Mrs. -, and, with a tremuious voice, asked her if she might "pray for poor Willie," but without waiting for answer, she kneeled beside a chair, and with clasped hands and face turned heavenward, recited audibly the Lord's Prayer. There were about a dozen persons present, but not one with unmoistened eyes. Friend Clark, that child is loved; but with all the love her parents bear her, I cannot believe she is loved on earth as she is loved in Heaven." May good angels watch over her!

It should be universally known-for it s stritly true-that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptics! think of it all who suffer from sordered stomach's, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, founded upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr. C. Charleston, May 19.

The procession was formed, and a pretty good "turn out" they made, and marched to the church, preceded by a military looking band, who performed very well.

Finding our Hanging Rock brethren rather in a "strait," in consequence of the non-arrival of the "several speakers," we loaned them the services of "our man," Dr. Galluchat, who made a speech, which did not detract from the high merit to which he is so deservedly entitled. Several other gentlemen addressed the meeting ; and considering they addressed an audience of empty stomachs, much attention was paid them .--For our part, we left the church in the "early stage of the game" to see if our hungry friends had left any peaches on the almost bareless trees around the church.

The meeting dispersed about 3 o'clock, and we were much rejoiced to receive then an invitation from our esteemed friend, Jno. U. Ingram, Esq., to partake of his cold collation. We were afterwards courteously mvited by Mr. Dye to partake of his, but our inner man was satisfied. Had etiquet warranted it, how gladly would we have transferred the invitation to some famished bro

Apropos of the meeting. We noticed a number of handsome ladies, and from the style displayed in making their toilets, we would have certainly thought that they would have provided some of the creature comforts for men, who, to participate in the festivities, had left their homes at such an early hour, that even breakfast was not thought of.

Before closing this hasty article, we will merely remark that the "turn out" took place in Kerahaw District, not in Lancaster, and pleted, will be an inducement for Camden orators to fulfil their appointments. We intend nothing disconnectful to our Hanging Rock brethren, and hope this will be received in the same spirit in which it is written; because we looked for a pic nic, it does not fol-

Congress. In the Senate, on Thursday, 12th inst., the bill making appropriations for the current and contingent expenses of the Indian Department, and for fulfilling treaty stipulations, &c., was passed. The fisheries question was then discuss-ed by Messrs. Pierre Soule, of Louisiana, Andrew P. Butler, of South Carolina, ewis Cass, of Michigan, and Thomas G. Pratt, of Maryland, and the Senate adourned. In the House of Representatives the bill making appropriations for the Civil and Diplomatic expenses of Government for the year ending the 30th of June, 1853, and for other purposes, was passed. The army bill then engaged the consideration of the House, and after some thereon, an adjournment took place.

BUST OF MR. CALHOUN .- The Washington Republic says that a bust of the late John C. Calhoun, executed by Hiram Powers, the American sculptor, now in Florence, and carved from the purest Italian marble, is now on exhibition in one of the basement rooms of the capitol. MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT .- A citizen of our District, Mr. J. W.
