puffs. Hear it, even now." "Therefore," said the youth, apparently more coldly composed, as his fierce ri-val grew more perceptibly agitated— "therefore we lay our lives down here, in this hall, on this spot, at this instant, even as thou standest now."
"There is no one here who will be my friend," said Mentz, so evidently sobered and subdued by the singular composure and self possession of his antagonist, that all present baid him in contempt, and no one stirre?

"No 'natter," cried Arnold, " I will myself forego the same privilege."

"And your weapons," said Mentz.

"Are here," cried Arnold, drawing them from his bosom, " a surer pair never drew blood. The choice is yours. The company now began to fan y that Arnold had equivocated in disclaiming skill as a duellist; and from h s invincible mein thought him a more fatal master of the weapon than the bully himself. The latter also pertook of the same opinion.

"Young man," he cried, in a voice clou ded and low, and said no farther.

"Your choice!" said Arnold, present-ing the pistols. Mentz seized one desper-atly, and said, "Now name your ditance.

"Blood-thirsty wolf, there shall be no distance," said Arnold.

He then turned and addressed the com-

"Gentlemen." he said. "deem me not savage or insane, that I sacrifice myself and this brital wretch, thus before your eves, and to certain and instant destruction. For me, I confess, I have no value in life. For her whom I loved, 1 have sworn to forget; and if I existed a thousand years, should never probably see her again. This ruffian is a coward and fears to die; though he does not fear daily to merit death. I have long heard of his baseness, and regarded him as an assassin, the enemy of the human race and of God a dangerous beast, whom it will be a mercy and a virtue to destroy, My own life I would well be rid of, but would not fling it away idly, when its loss may be made subservient to the destruction of vice and the relief of humanity. Here, then, I yield my breaht, and here too, this trembling and shrinking craven killed Capt, shall close his course of debauchery and anurder. My companous, farewell! Should any of you hereafter chance to meet with Gertrude de Saale, tell her I nobly flung away a life which her falsehood made me despise. And now, recreant." turning fiercely to Meutz, " plant thy pistol to my bosom, as I will plant mine to thee. Let one of the company cry three, and the third number be the signal to f

With an increased countenance, but even with me irmness. Arrold threw off his cap, displaying his fair forehead and glossy ringlets.

tempted to do same; but the pistol, held loosely in his grasp, whether by accident or intention, went off before the signal. Its contents passed-through the garments of Arnold, who leveiling the muzzle of his own cried

"On your knees, slave! Vile dog! Down!

Unable and longer to support his frame the unmasked coward sunk on both knees and prayed for life. Again wild shouts of applause and delight, and peals of riotous laughter stunned his ears. I shall never forget the shouts when Mentz's knees touched the floor. It seems to me last reading in the Commons on Monday, that the echoes may be scarcely quiet in It will, we think, also pass the Senate,the woods of Saxony. As he rose from his humiliating posture, Arnold touched him contemptuously with his foot, Groons and hisses now began to be mingled with several missiles. Mentz covered his face with his hands and rushed from the room, this distinguished gentleman died at his and was never more seen among us.

Arnold had been jilted like many a good fellow before him, and like most men who have to do with women. He was but a poor artist, after all; and though my pretty mistress encouraged him at first, taken by his person and manners, yet he was not high enough for the daughter of a Baron.

Trial of Bishop Doane.

The House of Bishops convened at Bur-Lington, New Jersey, on Saturday morning.

The presentment of Bishop Doane was read, and also the report of the Committee of the New Jersey Convention, but no action taken on either.

There is very little excitement Burlington upon the subject except among those connected with the Episcopal Church. It is understood that a motion will be made to have the trial public.

The counsel for the presenting Bishops are Richard S. Cox, Esq., of Washington; H. W. Davis, Esq., of Baltimore, and William Halsted, Esq., of Trenton. For the defence are Messrs. T. I. Wharton and Meredith, of Philadelphia; Messrs, Carpenter, Browning, and Stratton, of New Jersey; and Judge Chambers, of Mary-

Resolutions offered by Bishop McCoskey, on Friday were to have been discussed by the Court of Bishops on Monday, proposing to defer the trail of the new presentment against Bishop Doane untile after the meeting of the Convention of the Dioceso of New Jersey, and to dismiss the old presentment, on the ground that the New-Jersey Convention had, at its last session, declared them not proved. The New-York Times says the following scene occurred before the court on Friday: "When it was determined by the court to remove to Burlington, Bishop Burgess hoped that no members of the court would suffer themselves to be the guests of the ately said that he presumed his Right nocused Bishop. Bishop Doane immedi-Rev. Brother, when making the remark, could not have remembered that he (Bith-op Doine), was the donk during his trial. Bishop Burgess Whereupon, Bishop Doane recumstances, but consider the remark as a gross outrage and insult, such as he would not say no Christian Bishop, and no Christian gentleman, but no man could listen to without indignation-that he could, therefore, have nothing further to say to Bishop Burgess."

Shocking Murder.

We "ere called upon yesterday by corner J. C. Chapman Esq., to assist in holding an inquest over the body of Angus Taylor, who had been shot the day before, by his brother Mastin.

The evidence before the jury was, that on Monday about 11 c'clock A. M., Mastin and Angus Taylor, brothers, met at the residence of their mother, and after some conversation agreed to shoot at a mark. They walked out about 60 yards from the house and both fired at the target. Mastin shooting a rifle and Angus a double barrel shot gun. They went up to the target and disputed about who had beat. The mother, a sister and a brotherin-law of the deceased were in the house, the first of whom called the attention of the others to the fact that the brothers were quarreling. They all went to the door at the same time and saw Mastin Taylor approaching the house followed by Angus, who was stripping and exhibitng a determination to fight, when Mastin turned round, took his gun from his shoulder, drew it up and fired. Angus, who was in a running position made no halt but rushed up, seized Mastin and the two scuffled until the mother and sister reached them, when Angus began to sink saying to his sister hold me up and fell dead. He

Upon an examination of the body, by Dr. A. Mallov, the ball was found to have entered just above the left breast and to have passed through the heart and lodged extracted it.

The deceased, Angus Taylor, in 1845

Vanderford of this place, by inflicting dirk knife, for which he was convicted ering it: of manslaughter. Since then he inflicted almost a death wound upon one of his brothers and now has only met the fate which a just retribution awards to the violent. How forcible an illustration of the scripture. He that sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed."

Mastin Taylor has been for several years of unsound mind and for a considerable ac confined in our jail to restrain him n violence. He has not as yet been ested. Cheraw Gazette.

Adjournment.

It is now pretty well settled that the egislature will not adjourn, but continue on with the regular business of legislation A resolution to adjourn until the first Monday in December, was debated and rejected in the Commons on Saturday. It was reconsidered and laid on the table on Monday by a vote of 60 to 84; and the bill to change the time of the meeting of North Corolina Star.

DEATH OF HON, W. H. HAYWOOD,-WE are deeply pained to announce that residence in this City, on Thursday morning last. His disease was Cancer of the Tongue, with which he had been some time lingering .- North Carolina Star.

Genin, the New York hatter, has pe titioned the Common Council of that city for permission to build an iron bridge across Broadway opposite his store, for the accomodation of foot passengers, whose safety is placed in jeopardy by the throng

BUSINESS RULES FOR YOUNG MEN BY P. T. Barnum Esq. 1. Select the kind of business that suits your natural inclinations and temperament. 2. Let your pledged word ever be sacred, 3. Whatever you do, do with all your might. 4. Sobriety; Use no description of intoxicating liquors. 5. Let hope predominate, but be not too visionary. 9. Do not scatter your powers. 7. Engage proper employers. 8. Advertise your business. Do not hide your light under a bushel. 6. Avoid extravagances, and always live considerably within your income, if you do so without absolute starvation. 10. Do not depend upon others.

From a Correspondent.

Great Robbery. NEWNAN, GA., Oct. 14, 1852. I take the liberty of informing you of an affair, which occurred in this vicinity on the night of the 12th. The facts are as follows, as near as we can learn, several burglars entered the house of Mr. John Jackson, near Burnesville, Munroe county, on Tuesday night, entered the room of Mr. Jackson and wife, and, after a very brutal assault, succeeded in finding the chest in which the money was kept, which they seemed and took their leave. There was about seven thousand dollars in the was made after the rogues, two of which rested about one mile from here by Major replied that he had it in his mind at the here now, but are to be taken to-day to was an effort made by several men to en-Munroe County. Sixteen hundred dollars ter his room. Pretending not to be alarm-them, with a great quantity of skeleton ed himself. As soon as he had finished keys, a bit stock, and various articles used in their trade. One of those arrested the landlord and two other men rushed gives his name as John B. Simpson, the on him, when he fired two barrels of his other is well known here and admits to pistol, immediately killing the landlord be the notorious Dr. Roberts. It is sup- and one of his accomplices, after which posed there were five in the party, the re- the other man fled. mainder having taken the balance of the money. I am informed, since writing, that the lady of Mr. Jackson has since died. They were quite aged persons, and at the time there was no other white persons in the house. The servants made resistance but were driven off by the use of fire arms .- Evening News.

DEATH OF MISS CAROLINE DERWORT .-We regret to learn the death of this inter our city, and by whose early demise this amiable family have sustained a sad bereavement. Miss Derwort is associated in our minds, with many pleasant and agreeable reminiscences of the concert room, where her part in that group of youthful amateurs was most conspicuous, and where her vacant place can never fail to bring the sincerest regrets of all those who have been thus happily introduced to her. We deeply sympathize with this afflicted family, other members of which have been also visited by sickness.

Charleston Standard.

From the Augusta Constitutionalist.

Old Goose Pond is hard to Beat. PLEASANT HILL, OGLETHORPE Co., 8th Oct .- Mr. Editor, Sir: - By the request of my overseer, I send you for publication two days picking of Cotton by one of my boys. On Wednesday the 29th of September, 446 lbs.; Thursday the 7th inst. 712 lbs.; with the aid of a chap the last day to carry and empty his basket. He commenced each morning at 5 o'clock, and quit at half after six in the evening had succeeded in wresting the gun from that beat, I would like to hear from them. If any of my brother farmers can have Z. H. C.

Hurrah for Old Elbert.

ELBERTON, Oct. 1, 1852 .- Mr. Editor: Believing that you, with many of your readers, feel a lively interest in the agricul at the skin of the back from whence he tural product of the country, I send you a statement of the amount of cotton picked by fifteen hands belonging to Mr. Henry J. Mattox, on his farm on Broad-river, in this county, yesterday. It shows the fine Vanderford of this place, by inflicting forward state of the crop, as well as the upon his body sundry fatal stabs with a remarkable facility of his hands for gath-

- 1
1	Alfred lbs 408	Betty lbs 400
i	Claiborne 308	Edv
١	Harvey	Mary 380
1	John 400	Louisiana 38
	Billey 325	Sally
	Circeu 310	Jane
1	Jerry 292	Martha 288
	Giney 501
	Total	F 000

Average 358 pounds to the hand. I will only add that Mr. Mattox is one of our most successful planters, and should readers be able to come up e, he would be pleased to learn your columns

Very respectfully, ROBERT HESTER.

Conjugal Affection

Hon. Horace Mann, in his eulogy upon Mr. Rantoul, related the following touching instances of conjugal affection, in connection with the last illness of the deceas-

"Yet Mr. Rantoul, even amid the ago nies of his disease, had lucid intervals. There was convictions in his mind so deepseated, and affection in his heart so strong, the General Assembly, (so as to convert as to stand unmoved by any tempest of

"On being telegraphed respecting the illness of her husband, his devoted and excellent lady, then in Massachussets hastened to his succor. She arrived here at six o'clock on the morning of the day he died. Instantly her voice wooed back con sciousness and reason. He seized her hand in his, and held it till he breathed his last. Even when his mind wandered, this grasp of affection was unclenched. Death only relaxed it. The swelling of the disease power of muscular construction to open them. He desired to have them opened by mechanical means, that he might once more behold the features and the face whence, for more than twenty years, the light of love had shone down into his heart. Thank God, sir, that amid all the alienations and strifes and hostilities which seem sometimes to flow out of the human bosom as though it were their natural foundation, there are also affections, sympathies, tenderness and loves which are inseparable from it; allied to it by a more congenial affinity; and which we always may find there, "close, as green to the verdant leaf, or color to the rose.'

AWFUL TRAGEDY .- A frightful tragedy recently occurred at Brownstown, Indiana. The details are thus given in the Madison Banner:

It appears that two brothers, named Hiram and Warren Francisco, and well known as respectable and peaceful citizens, followed the occupation of clock peddling. They usually travelled different routes, but made a practice of meeting each other frequently. They agreed to meet at a publie house in the vicinity of Brownstown, on Friday last. One of the brothers reached the tavern about 9 o'clock, and inquired if his brother had arrived, and was informed by the landlord that he had not. After eating his supper he called for a light and asked to be shown to bed. The landlord informed him that he had no candles in the house, but if he would follow him, he would take him to bed. Francisco followed the landlord into a dark room and undressed himself and retired to rest. The bed seemed to be wet, and having some matches about him he struck a light. Upon examining the bed he found that it was wet with blood. Discovering a candle near by, he lit it and looking under chest, most in silver. Immediate chase the bed, saw the body of his brother, with his throat cut from ear to ear, and perfectwere traced into this place, and were ar- ly lifeless. Fastening the door immediately, he proceeded to load a revolver which Grace and others, from Newsan, they are be had, but before he could do so there gined that he could not, under such cir- in silver and bank bills were found on ed, he asked them to wait until he dress-

Arrest.

Two men, Farmer and Nettles, were ar rested on board the cars at the Sumterville Depot, on the morning of the 13th inst., on the charge of stealing money in Darlington District. They had spent the night previous at Sumterville, stating that they were travelling westward; But the officer in persuit, assisted by our Sheriff, put a sudden termination to their tour.— They were lodged in Jait .- Black River Watchman.

DEATH OF REV. THOMAS J. YOUNG. The Episcopal Church of this diocese, has to mourn the loss of another of its divines in the death of the Rev. Thomas J. Young, which took place yesterday in this city.-Mr. Young's demise was not unexpected. having been in ill health for some time, but his removal has caused that sorrow and regret which always accompanies one devoted to the offices of the Church, in the midst of his sacred mission and the plenitude of his zeal and usefulness. Evening News.

NEW ARTICLE TO LEND .- In the course the last week, there occurred in this city, the death of a man, whose remains his friends wished to remove to his native place for interment. As it was desirable that the corpse should be removed immediately, even the delay for making a suitable coffin was inconvenient. In the emergency, a neighbor was applied to borrow his own coffin, and he very obligingly com plied with the request. The person who had the article on hand, lost his wife four or five years ago, had his own coffin made at the same time, and has kept it in his bed room ever since.-Portsmouth (Va.) Journal.

DEAD LETTERS .- During the last quarer, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one letters were returned to the Dead Letter office, in the Postoffice Department, These contained $10,689, in the aggregate. Recently, about one million and a third of such letters were publicly destroyed, a bonfire being kindled with them on the Mall. The Editor of the Washington Republie, saw on Friday, a large number of the various articles transmitted through the mails, the majority of which will never come into the possession of those to whom they were addressed. Among these may be mentioned a horse-shoe; a gingercake, the postage on which was $2,10; a donation to a church, being a small cake in a paper box; a quilt, a New Years's present to a bacheler; a Dutch pattern for shion, the stand of lamp, the postage many cents; a galvanic battery, ng two pounds.

pair of blue stockings, and a razor,

Our Court-Judge Frost,

The full term of our court was held by his honor Judge Frost, last week. The sessions docket was a real salmagundi.-It included cases of bigamy, bastardy, as- are successors to the Messrs. Kerrisons, who of eighteen or twenty sault and battery, riot, negro trading, lar- always had the reputation of keeping the ficeny, disturbing a religious congregation, &c., &c., and occupied the principal attention of the Court, the sum pro and issue dockets being matters of minor importance. On Monday, the court yard was an unprecedented scene of drunkness and disorder, until his honor very properly took the matter in hand, and committed a number of the most noisy to the iail. This remedy acted like a charm for the balance had closed his eyes, and it was beyond the of the week, and we hope it will be administered with an unsparing hand, wherever the disease may be found to prevail. The Grand Jury was in session four days, which we believe is an unusual thing for this District. From what we have heard. their general presentments are matters of public interest, and we should like to have them for publication .- Cheraw Gazette.

Origin of the Rothschilds.

The late Baron Rothschild was the son of a Jew at Frankfort, of the name Joseph. He was in humble circumstances, but very highly thought of for honesty and integrity. At the time the French crossed the Rhine and entered Germany, the Prince of Hesse Cassel came to Frankfort, and asked Joseph to take charge of his money. Joseph did not much like the undertaking, but the prince pressed it so much that at last he consented, and the treasures were given him. When the French entered Frankfort, Joseph burried the prince's money and jewels in a chest, but did not hide his own, thinking that if they found no money they would be suspicious, and search more earnestly. The consequence was he lost all his own money. When affairs became more tranquil, and he could again enter into business, he took some of the prince's money and transacted business with it, as he formerly used to do with his own, thinking it a pitty it should lie quite useless. The prince of Cassel had heard of the French cruelty in plundering poor Joseph Rothschild, and conclude all his money and jewels were gone. When he went to Frankfort he called upon him, said-

"Well, Joseph, all my money has been taken by the Frenceh."

"Not a farthing," said the honest man.

siness. I will return it all to you with interest on what I have used."

"No," said the prince, "keep it. I will not take the interest, and I will not take my money from you for twenty years. Make use of it for that time, and i will only take 2 per cent. interest for it." .

The prince told the story to all his friends. Joseph was in consequence employed by most of the German princes. He made an immense fortune, his sons became barons of the German Empire, and one of them settled in England.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

JUDGE BRAGG, member of Congress from Ala., speaks as follows:

"I refer here more particularly to a work of fiction called "Uncle Tom's Cabin," written by a Mrs. Hrrriett Beecher stowe, and which the newspapers tell us necessary arrangements therefor. one hundred thoozand copies have been sold and circulated in the free States !have looked into the book, and find it to be a most gross and exagerated caricature of the manners and institutions of the South. It is difficult to conceive how a woman of the least refinement or purity of mind could so completely unfrock herself presented as a harem, and every female slave as a victim of her master's lusts. What southern woman can be found who wovld consent to write such a book as this about northern people, though they have certainly abundant material for the task. Say what you will about the social system of the South, it never was the parent of such monstrosities, such men-women, such moral hermophrodites as this. Whither does all this tend! Lord Byron says: There is a tide in the affairs of women. Which, taken at the flood, leads-God knows where!"

Lancaster Ledger.

Lancasterville, S. C.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 20, 1852.

RETURN DAY .- Saturday October 30.

On Sunday, the 31st inst., preaching will he held at the Waxhaw church by the Rev. Mr. Douglass.

Is another column will be found th Proclamation of the Governor, calling an extra Session of the Legistature, for the purpose of easting the electoral vote of the

MR H. T. MASSEY,(and not H. R. fassey, as we had it) requests us to call the attention of those indebted to the estate of J. R. Massey, dee'd, to his advertisement.

for ad Dunlop is never at

THE citizens of Charlotte, as w learn from the Whig, have fixed upon the 28th of this month as the day for their Rail Road celebration.

WE would direct particular attention to the alvertisement of Messrs. Browning and Leman, Charleston. These gentlemen discharge those di nest Retail Dry Goods establishment in Charleston. We understand that Messrs. B. & I. have made great additions, and their store is not inferior to any in the Union .-Give them a call when you visit Charleston,

THE "Jubilee," is the title of a new paper we have received. It is published weekly, at Salisbury, N. C., at $2.00 per year-D. F. Lorg, Editor. The Jubilee is a Democratic paper, and supports the Pierce & King ticket. The paper is well printed and editorials tolerably well written. No doubt the Editor is unpractised, and inexperienced and thoughtless, or he would not apply an extract from the Holy Bible to himself. when his efforts should meet with their due roward

We copy the article, and trust our new co-laborer will never be guilty of the like misdemeanor again :

"We expect to labor zealously for the benefit of our readers, the farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, &c., and for the benefit of Salisbury; and we hope, in the end, to be met with that pleasing and encouraging "well done, thou good and faithful servant as thou hast been faithful over a few things" in guarding our interests, we "will make thee ruler over" two dollars. Yes, two dollars, don't that sound big, boys?"

Going down the street the other norning, we met a friend(a good fellow he is too,) who had indulged a little too freely during election times, and who was then paying off old scores. " Ah," said M. after accosting us, "Ah, be jabers, after a storm J. T. L.Stewman, A.R.S. R. E. Wylie. . . I. S. L. Stewman, A.R.S. J. C. Secrest. . O. S. comes a calm."

Well, so it is. The election is now over. and the excitement is over, and we deem this an appropriate time to agitate a subject we have long thought of ; why do we not have an Agricultural Society at Lancaster? In a number of the Districts of our own State, in Georgia and Florida, Agricultural Societies are built up and sustained, and we are really surprised the subject has not engaged the attention of our farmers. We did hear some little said about the matter last Summer, and hope that the thing will now go on. What say our farmers to holding a public meeting in the Court House on the subject next sale day ?

IT had occurred to us before, that it would probably be a good idea to continue the extra session of the Legislature, so as to embrace the regular Session. The "Carolinian" recommends this plan, and we accord with the views set forth by that paper. The "I have it all, I have used a little in bu- intervening time between the adjournment of the extra session, and the assembling of the | cial acts seward the establishment of the regular session, could be as well employed though being in the month of November, as it could be in the month of December. And their being sufficient business before the Legislature, as to compel them to prolong the term of the extra session, so as to bring in the time of assembling of the regular session, it would not conflict with the law made and provided, calling the Legislature together on the fourth Monday in November.

From the Carelinian. Legislative.

The approaching special session of the Legislature has suggested to us and to others the great propriety of continuing that session without adjournment, so that the sitting will embrace the period of the commencement of the regular session. There are weighty and imperative considerations which should induce our legislators elect ecessary arrangements therefor.

The subject of dividing the State into congressional districts, in conformity with the new apportionment, is one which will occupy a large share of the time ordinariallotted to a session of the Legislature. The arrangement and classification of the districts will, beyond question, evolve considerable discussion, and many days must as to indulge in the obscene reflectious with which this book is everywhere replete. Every southern plantation is real and mature deliberation, as its ultimate classification is a matter of the highest importance to almost every district in the State. The matter cannot be satisfactorily or equitably settled until the claims of districts, and the many points bearing thereon, are carefully weighed and impartially examined.

Another question of importance will be he re-charter of the Bank of the State. We take it for granted that the people of the State have decided in favor of its recharter, and the expiring charters of the old banks, together with applications for new institutions, will force the necessity of settling the question of the recharter of the Bank of the State. Then comes up the whole banking system—on what place banks be incorporated, and the various incidental questions attaching to a remedeling of the private banking system, must, of necessity, consume days and weeks of the time of the session. Legislation on such an important subject had far better be let alone than that it should be hasty or unmatured. The consequences of an ill-digested banking law might be, and probably would be, disastrous to all interests.

The question of changing either the time of the sitting of the Legislature or of changing the mode of casting the electoral vote of the State, will, it is reasonable to presume, be brought before the Legislature. The question, together with the collateral issues sure to spring up, will elicit, perhaps, one of the most important discussions ever had in our General Assembly. Such measures cannot be passed lightly upon, and it will require the most mature deliberation of our Senators and Representatives, with all the coolness, wisdom and indigment that may be found amongst them. It would be a mad mad mad representatives.—G. N. Reynolds, Jr., J. B. Campbell, James Simmons, John Seiglingjr. P. Della Torre, F. Lanneau, G. A. Trenholm, B. F. Hunt, Nelson Mitchell, H. C. King, H. D. Lessesae, J. Charles Blum, E. McCrady, J. F. Popenheim, H. Gourdin, Samuel M. G. Burger. mongst them. It would be for

It would indeed be a penny-wise but pound foolish economy, Gentlemen legislators, you have sought the honor of serving the people of South Carolina, and you cannot be faithful to the table if you permit your t if you permit your to stand in the way interest or conve of a consciention arge of the dutie you have assur cannot honestly the brief space

The present sugg interfere with the lawyers who may members, but they can be spared for the few days necessary to attend their respective circuits. This is but a small affair compared with the great interests at stake, and we must believe that none of them would interpose such a trivial objection. The chief cause of our usual short sessions is the anxiety of members to be at home during Christmas and New Years holidays. By adopting the present sugges-tion that difficulty will be removed, and they will have ample time to reach home before those festive seasons. Besides, we feel very certain they will sit down to their well-filled tables with a better appetite-their conscience not upbraiding them with dereliction and defection to their constituency,

We earnestly trust that this suggestion will be conscientiously considered by the members elect. There are few of them but who can make flying visits to their families during the session, the facilities of travel being now so great; and when they reflect on the almost absolute necessity of a protracted session, we feel confident they will agree with us. Brethren of the press whatsay you?

AT a regular meeting of Lancaster Division, No. 30, Sons of Temperance, the following officers were installed for the ensuing quarter. Circumstances preventing the installation sooner:

S. L. Strait...W. P. A. Austin ... F. S. J. R. Magill. W. A. J. B Boyd ... C. L. H. Blair... R. S. W. H. Burns. A. C. I. H. BLAIR, R. S.

Later from Europe. Advance in Cotton.

The steamer Franklin arrived at New York, bringing Liverpool and Southampton dates of the 29thult. The Arctic arrived out on Wednesday morning. The Washington touched Cowes on the 25th. The America reached Liverpool on the Jos, Rodgers, Jacksonham, $1.00

ENGLAND,-The American guano expedition was creating great uneasines and a collision was feared.

FRANCE.-An attempt was made to assussinate Napoleon at Marseilles by means of an informal machine, containing two hundred and fifty gun-barrels, loaded with one thousand five hundred bullets. The machine was secured by the police, and the parties arrested.

Advices from Paris state that first offi- corrections can be made, empire will take place at Toms on October 15th, when a decree will be published for the convocation of the Senate to examine and report on an address from the depart ments inviting the President to assume the imperial dignity.

The return of the Prince to Paris will be celebrated with great pomp.

The Elections.

THE following is the result of the election Kershaw District on Monday and Tuesday last, for a State Senator and two Representatives. For Senator Col. Chearest 858no opposition:

	Representatives.
Kershaw.	Boyken.	Rosse
Camden 259	150	229
Schrock's Mills 35
Lyzenby's 34
Buffalo 56	27	58
Flat Rock 76	73	51
Goodwin's 16	18	14
Liberty Hill 47	25	30
Cureton's Mill 65	96	27
		-
Total588	511	468

The Legislature.

Below we give a list of the Senators and Members elect of the next Legislature of South Carolina, as far as heard from:

RICHLAND .- Senator .- J. H. Adams. Representatives .- J. D. Tradewell, C. T. Iowell, Wade Hampton jr., Wm. Mabin. FAIRFIELD. - Senator. - Gen. John Buch

Representatives,-Capt. J. N. Shedd, Dr. I. H. Clark, and R. S. Boylston, Esq. ST. MATHEWS .- Senator .- T. J. Goodwin. Representative .- O. M. Dantzler. CHESTERFIELD .- Senator .- T. E. Powe

Representatives .- E. B. Cash, and J. W. Blakeny. MARLBOBO' .- Senator .- C. W. Dudley. Representatives .- C. A. Thornwell and T.

Wetherly. YORK .- Senator .- J. D. Witherspoon. Representatives .- A. B. Springs, G. W. Villiams, W. J. Clawson, A. S. Wallace.

CHESTER .- Senator .- Samuel McAliley. Representatives .- C. D. Melton, W. A. Rosborough, T. Ingram. Union .- Senator .- W. H. Grist.

Representatives .- R. Beaty, B. H. Rice, J. 1. Gadberry. DARLINGTON .- Senator .- J. P. Zimmer-

Representatives .- E. W. Charles, J. B. Byrd, J. F. Erwin.

ST. PHILIPS & ST. MICHEALS .- Senators -W. D. Porter, J. E. Carew. discussions ever had in our General As- Representatives .- G. N. Reynolds, jr., J. B. kahank, A. W. Burnet, T. O. Elliott.

Representatives .- W. B. S. ST, PAUL'S .- Senator .- R. Fish' urne. Representative .-- W. E. Haskell. LANCASTER .-- T, W. Huey. Representatives .- W. C. Cauthen, and T. . Cureton.

LAUBENS .- Senator .- P. L. Calhoun Representatives .-- C. 'P. Sullivan, John Hudgens, R. E. Campbell, Geo. Anderson. ORANGE .- Senator .- D R. Representative.-Cooner.

BARNWELL .- Senator .- J. I. Wilson. Representatives-W A Owens, S W Trotti. as Patterson, N G W Walker, D Burk. CHRIST CHURCH-Senator-A Hibben. Representative-T M Wagner.

GREENVILLE-Senator-T P Brockman. Representatives-McBee, B F Perry, Morran, P E Duncan. ST GEORGE-Senator-R S Bedon

Representative-A E. Moorer. PRINCE GEORGE, WINYAH-Senator-R. W Allston. Representatives-J H Read, jr, G Mani-eault, J I Middleton. CLAREMONT-Senator-F J Moses Representatives-John T Green, J D Ash-

nore, J B Witherspoon. CLARENDON-Senate-J L Manning. Representatives .- J J legram, John Eppes

A SMALL CALCULATION.—Suppose a. man drinks four glasses of liquor a day, at 5 cts. a glass. In a week he spends $1. 40, and in a year, $72. 80. This will buy the following articles : 4 barrels of flour, say $24: 4 pair of boots, say $15; 40 pounds of butter, $10; 200 pounds of beef. $8; a new hat, $4; a new satin vest, $5; a bonnet for wife, $5; sugar plums for children, $1. 80,-Total, $72.80.

Receipts for the Ledger. We acknowledge the following receipte of subscriptions to the present date. Capt. G. Walker, Russel Place, $2.00, J. C. Foster, Columbia, $2.00, A. C. Dunlap, Lancaster, $1.00 Capt. H. Draffin, do., $1.00. W. E. Stitt, Wolfaville, N. C $2.00 R. C. Vaughn, Cureton's Store, $1.00 C. C. Ballard, Long Street, $0.50 J. C. Small, Flint Ridge, $0.50 Wm. Langley, Steam Mill, $1.00 J. N. Taylor, Lancaster, $1.00 Lewis Howard, Cureton's Store 81. W. M. McMullen, Lancaster, Jno. J, Craig, Whenever mistakes occur in receipt any omission is made, the subscribers interested will please inform us, so that proper