

rupt. But this new party, you see, is very much controlled by the scum which the agitation of the old ones has thrown off.

"With smooth dissimulation skilled to grace, A devil's purpose, with an angel's face."

I do not doubt the sincerity of the great mass of those who have been deluded into these lodges. I believe the mass of all parties to be honest; but I also believe that the great majority of their leaders are impelled by the hope of obtaining from a new organization the political promotion which they desired of receiving from the old ones.

You perceive, I have treated the movement of the "Know Nothings" as a direct attack upon the constitution itself, because I really regard the plea which acknowledges that the Catholics are to be excluded by voluntary associations bound by oaths, but decries that any "legislative enactment" is to be resorted to for that purpose, as beneath criticism.

I confess to you, my friend, that a few months ago, I looked with feelings almost of despair upon the downward course of our political affairs. My confidence, however, is restored; the South, always conservative, always jealous of power, and comparatively free from those sudden excitements to which the denser populations of the North are subject to, will vindicate the character which she has nobly earned.

Let, however, the result be what it may, if the present brings no thanks to you and others, who have stood by the principle of religious equality and freedom, the future, the not distant future, will be yours.

Jno. Forsyth, Esq., Editor of "Register," Mobile, Ala.

Sacrilegious. Of all the disgusting spectacles ever exhibited by unprincipled political demagogues, that of attempting to sustain and perpetuate their fraudulent and deceptive schemes of ambition by distorting the opinions and misrepresenting the views of departed greatness and worth, is the most disgusting and hateful.

Of all the disgusting spectacles ever exhibited by unprincipled political demagogues, that of attempting to sustain and perpetuate their fraudulent and deceptive schemes of ambition by distorting the opinions and misrepresenting the views of departed greatness and worth, is the most disgusting and hateful.

Political Amiability. When the Know-Nothings first came to the light of day, they indicated (as we construe the facts,) hostility to foreigners and detestation of Catholics as their asstant characteristics.

not stomach any course, however advantageous to them as a party, which even seemed to tolerate slavery. So they flew off in a huff and swore they would remain as they were, genuine Abolition Know-Nothings.

What Constitutes Riches. "To be rich," said Mr. Marcy, our worthy Secretary of State, "requires only a satisfactory condition of the mind. One man may be rich with a hundred dollars, while another in the possession of millions, may think himself poor; and as the necessities of life are enjoyed by each, it is evident the man who is the best satisfied with his possessions, is the richer."

To illustrate this idea, Mr. Marcy related the following anecdote: "While I was Governor of the State of New York," said he, "I was called upon one morning at my office, by a rough specimen of a backwoodsman, who stalked in and commenced conversation by inquiring 'if this was Mr. Marcy?'"

"Used to live in Southport, didn't ye?" I answered in the affirmative, and began to feel a little curious to know who my visitor was and what he was driving at.

"That's what I told 'em," cried the backwoodsman, bringing his hand down on his thigh with tremendous force; "I told 'em you was the same old Bill Marcy who used to live in Southport, but they wouldn't believe it, and I promised the next time I came to Albany, to come and see you and find out for sartin. Why don't you know me, Bill?"

I didn't exactly like to ignore his acquaintance altogether, but for the life of me, I couldn't recollect ever having seen him before, and so I replied that he had a familiar countenance, but that I was not able to call him by name.

"My name is Jack Smith," answered the backwoodsman, "and we used to go to school together thirty years ago in the little red school house in old Southport. Well, times has changed since then, and you have become a great man and got rich, I suppose?"

I shook my head and was going to contradict that impression, when he broke in: "Oh, yes you are; I know you are rich; no use denying it. You was Controller for—a long time, and the next we heard of you, were Governor. You must have made a heap of money, and I am glad of it, glad to see you getting along so smart. You was always a smart lad at school, and I knew you would come to something."

I thanked him for his good wishes and opinion, but told him that political life did not pay so well as he imagined. "I suppose," said I, "fortune has smiled upon you since you left Southport?"

Extensive Robbery and Arrest. Some time between the 5th and the 13th insts, the premises of Mr. Robert Flynn, Meeting street, were entered from the roof by the attic window, and a trunk in an upper room forced, and about $2,150 stolen therefrom. The loss was discovered on the 13th, by Mr. Flynn, who called in the assistance of officer Jowitz, and authorized him to take all proper measures for what was considered a desperate chance of recovering the money.

2. It will grow on very rich ground, from three to four feet high.

3. It is never injured by colds—no freeze hurts it. 4. It is never troubled by insects of any kind. It is never injured or retarded in growing by heavy rains, overflows, or ordinary drouth.

12. It enables farmers to have an abundance of rich milk, cream and butter, with beef mutton, kid, pork, turkeys, and chickens, for their table.

13. It will, followed up with our corn field peas, give to farmers the cheapest, the simplest, the surest and most paying plan to reclaim worn out fields, and fertilize those not yet so, which the ingenuity of man can devise.

14. It will sow its own seed after the first time, without expense or trouble, thereby re-producing itself through its seed on the same ground infinitum.

15. It does not spread or take possession of a field, so as to be difficult to get rid of, but can be effectually destroyed at any stage before the seed ripen and fall out, by being plowed up or cut, and the soil sown with a superior grass.
