The Jefferson Homicide.

"You said you'd send me to hell, did you?" With these words, followed by two quick pistol shots, T. H. McMillan, a young white man, killed Peter Joplin, a negro, last Thursday afternoon, at Jefferson. The tragedy occurred in the store of Evans & Miller, and was witnessed by some half a dozen persons. Both shots took effect, one near the heart and one in the head, and the man died in about thirty minutes. There was no controversy whatever, except the words quoted above. The negro had been working for Mr. McMillan, and on the previous Monday the two had quarrelled over a settlement, and McMillan had received word that the negro had said that he would kill him on sight. Responsible Jefferson parties say that the threats had been so pronounced that the people were not surprised at the result, as Joplin was a boisterous man of bad reputation. McMillan is a quiet young man, about 21 years of age and unmarried. After the shooting he went to Chesterfield court house and surrendered, but is now out on bond. --Monroe Journal.

Homicide in Fort Mill.

Jake Dunlap killed Monroe Jones at Fort Mill last Sunday in a difficulty about a woman. Coroner Lupteiah held an inquest yesterday, and the jury seemed to think that the killing was justifiable. The reporter has been unable to gather the facts. Both parties to the homicide are negroes. --Yorkville Enquirer.

—Mr. H. J. Gardner had a hog to die Saturday that weighed about 400 pounds. There are several other hogs in the same side of sick town. It is thought that the disease affecting them is cholera. --Kershaw Era.

Spartanburg, Oct. 27.—At Greens this morning Ed Braswell and Thomas Stiles shot each other. They had a misunderstanding about a well which they were using. Both were shot through the body. Stiles' condition is critical. Braswell's father was in the city today to get legal advice.

KILLING NEAR DARLINGTON.

Darlington Oct. 27.—Last Sunday afternoon on the plantation of Mr. G. W. Powe this county, there occurred what appears from the facts learned to be a justifiable homicide. A negro, Murray Campbell, was advancing on Ruben Bull, another negro, with an open knife. In order to defend himself Reuben struck Murray in the head with a gun and fractured his skull. Murray died Monday morning.

THREE NEGRO CHILDREN MEET HORRIBLE DEATH.

Johnson, Oct. 26.—Yesterday on the Pagett place about six miles from here, a tenant house occupied by John Holloway, colored, and his family was destroyed with its contents by fire and three children burned to death, aged about 1 month, 2 and 5 years. Holloway and his wife, it is said, were in the field at the time the house was discovered in flames, which is supposed to have caught in a pile of cotton on the floor. The door was not fastened, but even the older child failed to escape.

BIDS FOR CONTRACT FOR NEW FEMALE COLLEGE BUILDING IN COLUMBIA.

The building committee of the Columbia Female college met last night and received bids for the erection of the main building at the new site two miles north of Columbia. The plans are by Mr. A. W. Todd of Charleston and call for a very fine building. Bids were submitted by contractors from New York to New Orleans, the figures ranging from $100,000 to $140,000.

The bidders were finally eliminated, with the exception of three firms whose offers will be taken up at another meeting this morning. These three are Grandby & Jordan of Greenville; Harlor & Co., of New Orleans and Burton & Co. of Richmond. --The State.

NEGRO IS IDENTIFIED BY INTENDED VICTIM.

Grenville, Oct. 27.—Rufus Jackson, colored, is in the county jail on the charge of attempting to assault Mrs. W. W. Brothers, a white woman, a week or more ago. Jackson was positively identified by Mrs. Brothers. It will be remembered that while Mrs. Brothers, who lives five miles from the city on the Piedmont road, was in a field gathering peas she was attacked by a negro who had a sack over his face. In the scuffle which followed the sack was torn from the negro, and he made his escape across the field. The vest found near the scene led to the arrest of Jackson.

BARN BURNED ALSO FOUR HORSES AND TWO COWS.

Blacksburg, Oct. 26.—The large two-story barn of Mr. W. F. Dye, near this place, together with several smaller buildings, was entirely consumed by fire yesterday morning about 3 o'clock. In the barn were a quantity of corn, fodder, peavine hay and other provender, improved farming implements, carriage and buggy, wagon, harness, four horses and two cows. Nothing was saved. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary, but no direct clue has yet been discovered. The loss is over $2,000 and there was no insurance on the property.

A CHALLENGE TO TILLMAN.

Spartanburg, Oct. 26.—Mr. C. P. Sims of the Spartanburg bar has addressed a letter to Senator B. R. Mr. Sims is an active advocate of the abolishment of the beer and liquor dispensaries, and is now prosecuting several of the local beer dispensaries.

ALDERMAN OLIVEROS ACQUITTED.

Aiken, Oct. 27.—The case against Alderman Oliveros, charged with accepting bribes, was taken up Wednesday afternoon.

The testimony differs very little from what was testified to before the committee of council. Counsel for the defendant endeavored to break down the testimony of Mr. Johnson.

When the State closed counsel for the defense stated they would offer no testimony. After argument the case was given to the jury this afternoon and in 20 minutes a verdict of not guilty was returned.
