SPEEDY PUNISHMENT GIVEN, CHES-TER NEGRO.

Chester, Nov. 4.—There was a case of speedy punishment on the opening day of the court of ses-ted house's reaking and larceny on the 30th of October. On the 1st of November he was indicted for the offence, pleaded guilty to the indictment, was sentenced to one year on the chaingang and began to serve his sentence before sundown of that day.

RECEIVED DEATH SENTENCE.

Chester, Nov. 5 .- In the court of sessions here today William Hardin, colored, was convicted of murder and sentenced by Judge Watts to be hanged on Dec. 16.

Hardin's crime was the killing of his father-in-law, Henry Sanders, in September last.

Rebecca Walker, colored, charg ed with the killing of her husband, Glever Walker, on Aug. 6th, was convicted of manslaughter. Her council gave notice, of a motion for a new trial.
