Happenings in the State.

As Chronicled by the Alert Correspondents of The Columbia State.

F. W. FOWLES SUSTAINS A HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE.

Charleston, Nov. 19.—The ginery of F. W. Fowles' sea island plantation on Wadmalaw Island was destroyed by fire early this morning, with a lot of cotton, causing a loss of $16,000, with no insurance.

THREE NEGROES DROWNED.

Beaufort, Nov. 18.—During the gale last Sunday morning it is reported that three negroes were drowned near the mouth of the Combahee river, resulting from the capsizing of their rowboat. A lighter containing 18 cords of wood also sunk and two other negro men had a narrow escape from being drowned.

GRANT WRIGHT CONVICTED.

Charleston, Nov. 18.—Grant Wright was today convicted of murder with a recommendation to mercy, for the killing of his wife. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Eloise Jenkins was acquitted of the same charge, making two murder cases disposed of in one day in the court of general sessions.

MILLION DOLLAR ELECTRIC POWER PLANT TO BE BUILT.

Union, Nov. 18.—Union county is to have another electric power plant with a capital stock of about $1,000,000.

For the past year ex-Mayor Macheth Young has been at work on the organization of this concern. Quite a good deal of work was necessary to complete the organization and to get the land and shoals necessary to build this plant, there being two other plants already located on the river in this county, namely, Lockhart mills and the Neal Shoals power plant.

It is said the plant will develop some 15,000 or 20,000 horse power and will supply cotton mills and other manufacturing concerns in this and adjoining counties with running power.

CHILD DIES OF HYDROPHOBIA.

Batesburg, Nov. 19.—A very sad death occurred here last night. Carrel Hook, the 11 year old son of Mr. J. W. Hook, died after an illness of about four days. It will be remembered Carroll was bitten about two months ago by what was supposed to be a mad dog. Every attention was given him by the local physicians and he was carried to a madstone and treated for some time, and he had seemingly recovered from the effects of the bite. For the last three weeks he had been in school performing his usual duties there. About four days ago he began to show symptoms of fever and complain of a pain in his arm. Drs. E. K. Hardin and W. P. Timmerman were faithful in their treatment of the case, but all to no avail. It is the opinion of those who saw the little sufferer, and of the physicians also; that his death resulted from the bite received on the 21st of September.

A Half Southern Says The President.

Saddened Rather Than Angered by Southern Attacks. South as Dear as the North.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Col. John S. Mosby received a few months ago, a letter from Judge Roulhac of Birmingham, Ala., commenting on the attitude of the southern people toward the president personally. Col. Mosby sent the letter to Oyster Bay as he thought the sentiments expressed in it by a Confederate veteran would be gratifying to the president. He received a reply which he did not publish during the campaign as he felt that the letter would be misconstrued. The letter is as follows:

Oyster Bay, N Y, Sept 10 1904 (Personal.)
"My Dear Col. Mosby:
"That is a fine letter of Roulhac's and I appreciate it. I have always been saddened rather than angered by the attacks upon me in the south. I am half a southerner myself; and I can say with all possible sincerity that the interest of the south are exactly as dear to me as the interests of the north.
"Sincerely yours,
(Signed) "Theodore Roosevelt

NOT A SICK DAY SINCE.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney trouble and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50, at Crawford Bros., J. F. Destroyed Russian Arsenal.

Tokio, November 18.—(3 P. M.)—A telegram from Moji reports the destruction of another Russian arsenal and magazine at Port Arthur. The Japanese discovered, it is said, the location of the arsenal and centered their artillery fire upon it. After dropping two hundred shells in the locality, they succeeded in blowing it up. The Japanese are widening their saps and are using them to move their guns followed.

The Russians continue their spirited sorties, using hand grenades in their attacks upon the saps.

Short in His Accounts.

According to a dispatch to The Greenville News from Seneca, J. R. Kay, treasurer of Oconee county is short about $2,000. Comptroller General Jones went to Walhalla yesterday to make a settlement and it was said that the amount of the shortage would be made good by the bondsmen. In the last primary Mr. Kay made the race for sheriff, but was defeated. Several days ago he tendered his resignation, although Governor Heyward declined to accept it until he had first ordered an examination of the books. There will be no prosecution, it is said.—Greenville News.

A great many of our readers remember Rev. Joe Mundy, of Statesville. Joe used to come to Monroe semi-occasionally and lecture Sunday afternoons in the court house. He was a past master in taking up a collection and in making sport of the amen corner church member. Joe has gone from the gutter to the pulpit and from the pulpit back to the gutter time after time, and has stood at about all the intermediate points all along the route. The last time we heard anything of the Rev Joe was in last Friday's Statesville Landmark, saying that Joe was trying to raise money to go to Keeley Institute to be cured of his great moral infirmity, and that he would deliver a lecture in the court house in Statesville on the following Sabbath and take a collection for the purpose of defraying expenses while in the booze hospital.—Monroe Enquirer.

The Liquor Business. The next reform in order in South Carolina is to get rid of the dispensary, and it needn't be replaced either by bar-rooms or state prohibition. License private parties under heavy bond to dispose of whiskey as the dispensary does—in sealed vessels containing not less than half a pint, not to be drunk on the premises and not to be sold between sunset and sunrise. Make the bond heavy and the license high. Take the state out of the mercantile business. Withdraw its capital from the wholesale liquor business. Reduce the constabulary and abolish the purchasing board. Eliminate scandal and corruption and substitute a simpler, better, more moral and practical system. Give every county the privilege of local option and let any which wish it have prohibition. The dispensary must go. Its manner of selling is good, but its manner of buying and methods of management are bad. Retain the good and reject the bad. The people of the state will demand of the next general assembly this great reform.—Spartanburg Journal.
