...eds one of Ken-
...hters.

...ton, Ky., Herald
...following account of the
...riage of Rev. R Lee Robin...son, formerly of this county, and
...who with his bride is now visiting
...his parents in the Sincerity section.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Thursday, December 22, at 2:30 o'clock at Eastwood the home of the brides parents, near Millersburg, Ky. The contracting parties were Rev. Richard Lee Robinson, of Camden, Ala., and Miss Anna Mae Marshall, a daughter of one of Kentucky's most prominent old families.

The reception hall, parlors and stairway were beautifully decorated in festoons of evergreen and holly, with ferns and white carnations, the prevailing color scheme, green and white, being relieved with the lovely clusters of coral berries lending to the whole delightful suggestions of the yule tide.

When the guests entered the reception hall they were invited to leave their autographs in the register of the wedding book, and, while gathering, sweet strains from the orchestra on the stairway leading above floated over all. At 2:30 o'clock, while Lohengrin's bridal song was sung by Miss Fanie Flenniken, of Columbia, S. C., with violin obligato by Miss Martha Pilcher, of Lexington, Ky., little Misses Margaret Robinson and Elizabeth Curle unrolled the ribbons and formed a path to the bridal bower. Miss Willis Marshall and little Miss Caroline McIntyre preceded the bridal party. The officiating ministers, Rev S W Reid, of Louisville, and Rev. G L Kerr, of Millersburg, came first, followed by the groom and his brother, Mr Arthur Robinson. The bride, attired in a handsome traveling gown of blue cloth and carrying a lovely bouquet of white carnations, was [illegible] her brother, Mr. Charles Marshall. Schubert's serenade was softly sung during the ceremony, and at the conclusion the happy couple left for Asheville, N C.; amid a shower of rice and good wishes from a host of friends.

The gifts were handsome and numerous. One hundred dollars in money from the groom's parents and a handsome case of silver from the bride's mother appeared among a number of others of cut glass, silver and money.

Tuesday before the ceremony the bridal party were charmingly entertained at an elegant luncheon. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. J A Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. M C Swinefood, Dr. and Mrs. O J Marshal, and Julia McKown, of Cynthiana; Mrs Turner Perry, of Owingsville; Mr. and Mrs. A C Gleer, of Chattanooga.

The bride is the handsome daughter of Mrs. Sarah Thorn Marshall, and is connected with one of the most substantial families in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky. She is admired and appreciated by her many friends because of sterling worth, cultivated qualities and lovable character, and their best wishes follow her to her new home.

The groom is a young minister of unusually bright prospects, having made an exceptionally fine record at Princeton. After a visit to his parents, at Lancaster, S. C., he will take his bride to his home in Camden, Ala.

Drank a Quart and Died

Nettie Williams, a colored wo... on the Springs place ...s west of town died ...ht from drinking too ...y. She had said she ...ting "dead drunk" ...d that night she drank ...t of booze with th... ...istrate Perry he... ...r body the foll...

W... OUT

...AIN SEEKERS!

$100 IN GOLD TO BE GIVEN AWAY.

For the next 30 days we are going to slaughter prices Right and Left on dry goods, Clothing, Shoes, etc.

Our object in cutting prices for the next month is to benefit the trade by giving them the best goods for the least money. Also to reduce our stock as much as possible by the 1st of Jan., as we are going to repair our building and make changes in stock by moving dry goods in lower part of building and groceries where dry goods are at present.

This will be an immense job to ... move ...

... SUCH ...

as we have at present and think it best to make such inducements to the public in order to make the goods walk about.

We mean business in what we say and all we ask is for you to come and inspect our stock and cut prices and you will be convinced that what we say is true.

So Come at Once and

Make Your Purchases

before the stock is greatly reduced and get the best advantage, for remember one month is a very short time.

THANKING EVERY ONE FOR PAST PARONAGE AND HOPING FOR MORE, WE ARE,

Yours to serve,

...king & Mercantile

...ASTER S. C.