day and Sunday at Piedmont springs.

—Mr J. H. Usher will have a target shooting at Dwight Saturday afternoon.

—Miss Margaret Thomason of York visited her nephew, Mr J. T.
Thomason and family this week.

—Married, Sunday, Jan 22d, 1905, by Rev R. J. Blackmon, Mr Marion Blackmon and Miss Ida Aegler, daughter of Mr Van Heg-ler of the Primus section.

—The net proceeds of the basket supper at Unity amounted to the necessary amount to secure the school library which will be purchased at once.

—Rev B. Frank White spent from Saturday until Monday with his brother, Rev J. M. White at Unity. He was en route from Moundville, W. Va., to Franklinville, N. Y., where he has accepted a call to preach.

—Misses Jessie Porter, Mame and Bess Jones, Julia Gregory and Bess McManus of this place, and Miss Susie Bell of Heath Springs, students of Winthrop College, spent from Saturday until today at home with their parents.

—The election for a special tax levy of four mills for the Oak ridge school in school District No 51 resulted in favor of the levy, the vote being 12 to 1.

—Young Sam Tillman, son of Mr E. D. Tillman, had three fingers of his right hand caught in a job press at the Enterprise office last Thursday and badly mashed.

—Mr. Ludie Blakely father of Rev. H. B. Blakely who was passor of the A. R. P. church here several years ago, died at his home at Ola, S. C., on the 20th of January after suffering for several weeks from a stroke of paralysis.

—Magistrate L. J. Perry, the new magistrate for the cotton mill, opened up office there Monday. Mr J. B. Connor will be his constable and also special constable for the mill. Mr J. T.
Hunter, Jr., will be appointed constable for Magistrate Caskey to fill the vacancy made by Mr. Con-at the mill.

—We forgot to report in our last issue that the thermometer fell to 12 degrees last Thursday night and that the water froze in The Ledger's gasoline engine, bursting the cylinder water jacket and the cap of the cylinder head.
Mr Harper repaired the damaged parts so that it would be difficult for an expert to tell where the engine was damaged.

—The Charlotte News says that since Jan 1st only 241 bales of cotton have been sold in that city while during the same time last year 2,197 were sold there. Since Sept 1st, 4,000 bales less have for their own amusement.— Waxhaw Enterprise.

Death of Mr W. H. Taylor

A telegram received here Monday morning announced the death of Mr W. H. Taylor at his home at Newport, in York county, after a protracted illness.
Mr Taylor was a son of the late J. N. Taylor of this county but had lived in York county for a number of years. He was about 63 years of age and was twice married.
His last wife with three children survive him. His remains were interred at Ebenezer church near Rock Hill. His three surviving brothers, Messrs S. D. J. Everett, and Jno D. Taylor, of this county, went over to Newport Monday to attend the funeral and burial.

Death of Mrs J. A. Steele

Mrs Martha Caroline Steele, wife of Mr J. A. Steele and a daughter of the late Jas F. Snipes, died at the home of her mother near Wildcat last Friday after an illness of nearly a year. She was about 29 years of age and leaves her husband and five children surviving her. She was a member of Bethlehem Baptist church. Her remains were interred at Union church on Saturday.

OBITUARY

Upon having been sick for several months and while surrounded by all of her immediate family and many relatives and friends Mrs W. A. Shute, in the 74th year of her life, at 10:30 o'clock Jan 21, 1905, passed quietly from this life into the dreamless sleep that knows no waking until the resurrection morn.

Mrs Shute was a native of South Carolina but has lived in Mississippi since 1857. Since her girlhood days she has been a devoted member of the Baptist church and for fifty odd years a faithful wife and loving mother.
She lived a life of consistent christian duty and the esteem in which she was held was testified to by the some 200 people who attended the funeral at the family home and the burial in the family grave yard. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her loss but they have the consolation of knowing that she is reaping the reward of a life well spent.

Legislative Dots.

Representative Foster and myself agreed to take it time about in reporting for you the proceedings here, and in the regular order this is my week to send you a communication. The writing is being done under very adverse circumstances, however, as I am at home, sick in bed, in the clutches of the gripe or something closely akin to it.
My letter will therefore have to be very brief for this time.

Up to this time more than seven hundred bills have been introduced and the end is not yet in sight. A great deal of work has been done, but only day sessions have been held thus far. Should the committees get well enough up with their work it is likely that night sessions will be commenced early in this week.

The proposition to change the South Carolina college to University was killed in the House.

Josh Ashley's bill to abolish the Immigration bureau has been up for discussion. Discussion on it will be resumed Tuesday. Our prediction is that his bill will not pass.

The amendment to the Constitution to allow special legislation in the matter of road working has been ratified. The Lancaster delegation will soon get together and prepare a bill for Lancaster.

The Judiciary committee of the House has advised against the ratification of the biennial sessions amendment. Their claim is that it is very imperfect and will cause no end of trouble.
They think it would be better to start the whole thing over again.

Representative Foster's bill to allow the Heath Springs school district the privilege of voting as much as a five mill special levy for school purposes has passed to a third reading.

Governor Heyward and Lieut.
Governor Jno. T. Sloan were inaugurated last Wednesday.

On Thursday Judge Gary was re-elected and Senator D. A.
Hydrick, of Spartanburg, was elected to succeed Judge Townsend. Capt. D. J. Griffith was re-elected Superintendent of the State Penitentiary, and Messrs A. K. Sanders, J. G. Mobley and W. D. Kirby were elected directors of that institution.

Hon. Arthur Kibler of Newberry was elected a trustee of the colored Normal and Industrial school at Orangeburg.

Messrs J. M. Hood and W.
McD. Brown were in Columbia last week.

Attention, Cotton Growers.

A meeting of the Cotton Growers' Association of Lancaster county will be held at the courthouse Saturday, February the 11th, at 11 o'clock a. m. A large attendance is earnestly desired. An important and interesting feature of the meeting will be reports to be made of the proceedings of the New Orleans Convention by the county delegates who attended, Messrs Leeroy Springs, W. U. Clyburn and C. L. McManus.

A meeting of the farmers of Gills and Cane Creek townships will be held at the court house next Saturday, February 4th, at 11 a. m., for the purpose of organizing. Geo. W. Jones, Co. Sec.

The State gives the following synopsis of Senator Hough's speech in opposition to Mr. Raysor's compulsory education bill
last week:

Senator Hough said the principle was the foundation of his opposition to the bill. God has made with all nature the home and the government of the home.
Let the government of the home be the kingdom and the child its subject. His point was that compulsory education was incompatible with democracy. Senator Hough compared the South's educational progress with that of the North; the one depleted and ravaged by war, the other rich and prosperous. He thought that voluntary education would succeed.
