ED. REVIEW: Please allow me space in valuable columns to eay a few words to the people this week. The time is momentous and work must be done. The time has come when every man must bestir himself. The work demands that all take ; part. Let every man arm himself with a pledge roil and see every other man that he can and get his name. All the people are united in this movement. Remember that there is no class or avocation that is not directly interested in this great work Therefore call on every one.

The original Brice bill came up for a vote on Tuesday night and by a vote of 31 to 68 the House passed the same. This bill gives a county the privilege of voting out a dispensary without being taxed. It is now thought that this bill will pass the Senate.

Josh Ashley does not force his bill to repeal the Immigration and Commerce Bureau. "A count of noses" indicates that there will be no change.

The ten hour labor law relating to the cotton mill operative will pass the house. There is a number of petitions before the house signed by operatives asking that the bill be killed.

An investigation of the books of Secretary of State Jesse Gantt shows carelessness generally and improper entries of money collected and disbursed.

The marriage license bills were killed after premoditation.

George E Prince of Anderson and T P Cothran of Greenville are in the race for judge of the tenth circuit. Both gentlemen are members of the house.

Solicitor J E Boggs of Pickens has entered the race for judge of the 10th circuit.

Josh Ashley made a good speech in opposition to the ten hour cotton mill operative bill. Josh said, 'dis is the devilishest bill ever you seed. It makes my ambition rise."

A number of the members, including Speaker Smith are sick with the grippe.

The General Assembly will adjourn on the 18th. We shall have been here forty days and forty nights or just as long as Moses stayed in the Wilderness.

The Senate killed the House bills prohibiting cock fighting and shooting matches for turkeys, chickens, etc.

Over 1200 bills have been introduced in the Assembly.

Many bills will die for lack of time to consider them, including the following: bill to prohibit sale of coco cola, board of pardons, county blood hound bill, several dispensary measures, repeal of lien law, execution of criminals in penitentiary, to fix term of Judges sixteen years, and several hund; ed others.

Mr. Beamguard's bill to punish violators of the Dispensary law by imprisonment and repealing punishment by fine was guillotined.

At a meeting of the Lancaster chapter U. D. C. the [following resolutions were adopted in memory of its much beloved and oldest member, Mrs. Geo. W.

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has removed from her home on earth, to her home in heaven, our friend and fellow worker, and

Whereas, we fully appreciate her generous help and faithful service to our chapter, and

Whereas, we know she loved the cause for which she labored. and that her life as a christian woman showed forth many noble qualities worthy of our remembrance and imitation. Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That while we feel her loss to this Chapter we submit to God's will, believing that she has only 'gone before," to receive the reward promised by Him to all those wao are faithful.

2. That through divine aid. and through the memory of her good and charitable life we aspire to greater efforts and nebler

3. That we extend our sincere sympathy to her family and pray that God will heal their wounded hearts.

4. That a copy of this memorial be sent to her family, also spread upon the minutes of our chapter.
