Ogden Party in Railroad Wreck.

Four Persons Killed - A Number of Passengers Injured - Ran Into Switch Engine at Greenville -Two Dining Cars Burned.

Greenville, S. C., April 29 .-While rounding a curve in the yard limits of the Southern Railway at Greenville, and running at the estimated speed of 50 miles an hour, the special Pullman train bearing Robert C Ogden and 100 members of the Southern Conference for Education, crashed into the rear end of a freight train at 7 55 o'clock this morning, killing four persons and injuring a score of others. None of Mr Ogden's guests were killed.

The dead are:

Charles M Cope, white, brake man of the special, Columbia.

John Little, W W Cummings and J F Hayne, negro employes on the dining car St James.

The injured are:

Prof Henry W Farnan, Yale University, arm broken and cut on head, and Mrs Henry W Far nan, badly bruised about head and arms; St Clair McKelway, editor of The Brooklyn Lagle; Dr Julis D Dreher; Robert M Ogden, secretary to President Ogden Bishop W N McVickar, of Providence, R I; James Hanter, engi neer on special leg and arm brok en; Walter Kersbaw, electrician on special; Conductor Edward Ac'cer; John F McCoy, agent Pennsylvania Railroad; George Williams, waiter on diner, Wal-

The combination baggage and club car and two diners, together with the locomotive and a freight car, were piled into a heap, and in an instant fire broke out in the cooking end of the dine s. Di McKelway, Prof Farnan, Mrs Farnan, Mrs Threpe, Dr Dreher, and Robert Ogden, were eating breakfast in the second diner, which was torn to pieces. The floor collapsed and the passengers were picked up from the track. The seven sleeping cars behind the diners were left intact, but the shock sprung many locks, imprisoning the occupants, Seth Low and Mrs Low, Bishop Mc-Vickar, and others, were rescued when the doors were smashed open with axes. The passengers in the St James were quickly removed, but the three negroes could not be saved. They breathed the flames and died. When he saw that the crash could not be averted, Engineer Hunter, of the Og den train, applied the emergency brakes and jumped.

Practically all of the baggage, said to be valued at $12,000, was destroyed. It is claimed that a misunderstanding of orders led to the accident. The north bound passenger train to New York, had orders to take the siding at Paris a way station four miles north of Greenville. The freight, which was being made up here, was on the main line. As a result of the wreck, President Ogden abandoned his trip to other points, and the special left tonight for the East. Prof Farnan and wife remaining here in a hospital. Was Calm and Composed - He Met Death Bravely, Warning all Against Drink and Women.

Special to The State.

Manning, April Mack, the mulatto murderer, paid the death penalty in the jail enclosure today at 11.21 o'clock, dying without a struggle, and the body was cut down in 20 minutes and turned over to his relatives, who hauled it home in a coffin.

Mack was calm and composed on the scaffold and said he was prepared. 'He prayed for the officers and others and warned to the home, and when she reeverybody against liquor and women, which he said was the cause of his downfall.

It is said that his motive for killing old Dave Connors, his wife's stepfather, was because Connors had reported to Mack's wife some of his conduct proving that he was untrue to ber. After shooting down Connors in the road, Linton Butler, another negro, remonstrated with Mack, whereupon he gave Butler a load of shot in the arm and later in the day fired at another negro.

The murder occurred in December last, and Mack was tried and convicted in February.

Shot and Carved to Death.

Kinards, April 28. - Yesterday one Lomax Kinard and his wife, Ellen, quarreled on Mr. Andrew Johnson's place in the suburbs of Kinards. Ellen took an axe and cut his furniture to pieces and was making her escape in com pany with her sister and 6-year old child when Lomax overtook her. He ordered her to return fused to obey, he began firing upon her at close range. Four out of five shots took effect in different parts of her body. When she fell to the ground he attempted to finish his deadly work with his knife. He evidently meant to cut her throat, but she was laying in such a position that he failed to reach her throat, but cut a long gash in her face. He then stabbed her in the back twice and made his escape and is still at large. The woman died after about 24 hours, from interna bleeding.

Will Cost Little.

Special to News and Courier.

Lancaster, April 27 .- Mr. Law, the civil engineer who has been making a preliminary survey of the proposed branch railroad from Heath Springs to the quarry of the Southern Granite Company, reached the quarry yesterday with his surveying party. He makes the distance nearly seven miles, but thinks that the line can be shortened somewhat by going over it again. He finds that the grading will be very light, not exceeding 2 per cent. Two miles of the road will require no grading at all, being practically level. According to Mr. Law's preliminary estimates, the entire road can be built for $4,000 the mile.
