While standing at a telephone, in his office, in Talbotton, Ga., last Friday afternoon, A. T. Reider, of Sylvester, Colo., was killed by a stroke of lightning, that tore his body into pieces. No one was in the room at the time he received the stroke and when found by a servant, both legs were split in half from the ankles up and his arms were almost completely severed from his body.

Mr. Reider had been in Talbotton for some time, superintending the construction of telephone lines in that section of the state. He was well known in Atlanta, being the nephew of A. B. Trusston, civil engineer for the Southern railroad.—Atlanta Constitution.

Notice to School Trustees

Brutal Father Shoots his own Son.

Roberta, Ga., cor. Atlanta Constitution: A. G. Spillers, a farmer living about three miles from town, late yesterday afternoon, shot and painfully wounded his son, William, Spillers.

Miss Spillers, a grown daughter of A. G. Spillers, was assisting her father in packing peaches and asked that she be allowed 50 cts. Her father became angry and threatened to slap the face of the young woman, whereupon her brother, told Mr. Spillers he could not do so while he was present.

This so angered the father that he knocked the son down with an empty crate, got his gun and shot him. Fortunately, the shot were small and the lead entered the young man's left arm, one or two pellets entering the breast.

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes "I had a fearful cough, that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Mackey & Co., and Funderburk Pharmacy, druggists; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

BANNER SALVE
The most healing salve in the world.

The real hero is the man who brings home his pay check every week unbroken.

A girl who knows she is pretty likes to have her own good judgment confirmed by the men.

When the cat is away the mice will just as like as not go snooping around until they find a mouse trap.
