The War

Fighting on a small scale ha continued in Manchuria, but with no material result, and there seems little hope of an armistice being signed any time soon. In fact, the desire of Field Marshill Oya ma to inflict a crushing blow upon the Russian army before peace be gottations begin makes a big but tle not altogether improbable, al though at this time it seems less likely than a week age. Nutber side is willing to make the idicitative to bring about a cessation of hostilities, and so the fighting on a small scale continues. The illness of Count Lamsdorff, the Russian Minister for Foreign Af fairs, has brought the peace negotiations to a halt, and the failure of Russia to announce her peace plenipotentiaries before this has created a feeling of distrust of her intentions in some quarters.

Russia is indeed in sore straits, for she had barley taken a step towards the ending of the war until civil strife had again broken out in Poland, where troops and citizens have been indeadly conflict. It would seem that things like this could not go on always for surely the Russian government must be honey-combed with corruption. Why Russia should at this time see; to delay the end of the war is a mystery. She has been practically crushed, and if the delay is persisted in she will be completely annihilated, so far as her fighting force in the field is concerned. - Charlotte Observer.

No Prohibition Ticket -Now.

Southern Christian Advocate.

We note that the Probibition party has been called to meet in Columbia to consider the question of "putting out a candidate." In the present stage of the dis. pensary situation we believe that it would be a serious blunder for the friends of prohibition to inject the dispensary into general State politics by baving an organized party and regularly nominating candidates. To do this of, marshalling the regular Democratic organization in defense of the disponsary, and calling to | its aid certain powerful influences. The dispensary is doomed, and the proper manner of its taking off has already been inaugurated, that is, county by county. Cherocke and Pickens have settled the matter; mass meetings looking to the same end have been held in Newberry and Greenville, a petition for an election is being circulated in Spartanburg Thimethod of getting rid of it will be perhaps a bit slower than the other; but in the end it will be moreeffective. Each county can de termine for itself, and the electon conducted in this way will not be connected with any man's getting into office. The people will be acting upon a general question of principle and will not be concerned with the personal interest of any special candidate We repeat, therefore, that, in our Indgement, it would be a mistake at present to put a general ticket in the field. It might bewell however, to have each candidate declare hivself on the dispensary question.

When the editor of the Medium had the honor of being a member of the senate he introduced a prohibition bill in which the drinking of whiskey as a beverage was made a misdemeanor and a punishment provived for doing so. The bill did not pass and to this day not a socalled prohibitionist or any kind of prohibitiouist ba spoken a word of approval of ou action. And when weighed in the balance they will always be found wanting.

Probably there is no prohibitionist in the State the kind of a fool to applaud a man for introducing a bill which he knew would not pass and which he did nor want to pass -Chester Lantern.

Perhaps you are unable to look after your daily work, maybe not well enough to give it a fraction of the time it needs.

Perhaps you're discouraged with life—never expect to get back your youthful vigor again—lost your ambition, take no interest in your business, no longer enjoy old pleasures, find home and friends less attractive. The above are the usual penalties of disease suffering.

Perhaps you've tried a dozen doctors and a dozen different medicines. Then given up with disgust. It's a common experience.
