They propose making their dry goods emporium second to none in this section of the State. ## Deaths

A letter from Mrs. Nina Hood of Cairo, Ill., of date June 30, 1905, to a relative in this county announces the death of Mr. James W. Hood, which occurred of paralysis following a five-months illness of rheumatism. Mr. Hood moved from this county in 1867 to Kentucky, and will be remembered by a number of our old citizens, especially survivors of Co. I., 12th S. C. Regt., in which he served, making a gallant soldier, during the civil war. His remains were taken to his old home at Bethel, Ky., for interment.

—Mrs. Lea Nisbet, widow of the late John D. Nisbet of the Jacksonham section, died last Monday afternoon July 3, 1905 at the home of her son-in-law, Mr R. M. Wilson, at Kershaw, from a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Nisbet accompanied her daughter Mrs. Wilson, home on Thursday and was stricken with paralysis the following day, lingering until Monday. She was about 82 years of age and had suffered intensely recently from cancer of the face but had endured with christian resignation her affliction. She was a member of the A. R. P. Church and a devoted christian. Her remains were interred at Unity on Wednesday. Rev. J. M. White, her pastor, conducting the funeral services.

The following children survive her: Mrs. R. M. Wilson and Messrs. Harper, Pressley, and Jeff D. Nisbet.

Because it is the strongest company in the world. Because its policies protect one million families. Because it has over 390 million assets.

Because it has over 380 millions Reserve Fund. Because it paid in dividends in 1904 over $5,900,000. Because it is purely mutual. It has no capital stock.

Because its assets belong to the policy holders. Because it does not invest in stocks and industrial securities. Because its policies contain only one condition—payment of premium.

Because the insured leaves to his widow or estate a legacy and not a law suit.

Because its policies are incontestable and nonforfeitable.

Because it paid in 1904 $40,000,000 to its policy holders.
