

Regard Japan's Terms as Exceedingly Hard.

Cession of Sakhalin and Cost of the War Are Main Features.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 10. Reimbursement for the expenses sustained in the prosecution of the war and the cession of the Island of Sakhalin constitute the main features of the peace conditions handed by Baron Komura to M. Witte at the conclusion of the morning session of the plenipotentiaries in the general stores building of the Portsmouth navy yard. The word "indemnity" is carefully avoided, the term employed being "reimbursement" for the cost of the war. No sum is fixed, the amount being distinctly adjourned for mutual adjustment between the two countries after the Japanese expenditure has been ascertained. These are the two all important conditions and those which the Russian plenipotentiaries find absolutely unacceptable. Inacceptable as they are, however, it can be stated that these two principal conditions did not come as a surprise to the Russian plenipotentiaries. The friendly fashion in which Baron Komura explained the conditions before handing them to M. Witte, and the avoidance of the use of the word "indemnity" in the presentation of Japan's bill for the cost of the war without fixing a sum leaves the way open for negotiations and constitutes the main hope that a final agreement is possible. Certainly no danger of a sudden rupture no matter what the ultimate result may be, is precluded by today's developments. The other terms are substantially what the world expected and with one or perhaps two exceptions could probably be entertained as bases of negotiations. They included the following:

JAPAN'S DEMANDS.

The cession of the Russian leases to the Liao Tung peninsula comprising Port Arthur and Dally. The evacuation of the entire province of Manchuria, the retrocession to China of any privileges Russia may have in the province and the recognition by Russia of the principle of the "open door." The cession to Japan or the Chinese Eastern railroad below Harbin, the main line through northern Manchuria to Vladivostok to remain Russian property. The recognition of the Japanese protectorate over Korea. The grant of fishing rights to Japan in the waters of the Siberian littoral northward from Vladivostok to the Behring sea. The relinquishment to Japan of the Russian warships interned in neutral ports. Finally, a limitation upon the naval strength of Russia in far eastern waters.

As a whole the terms are regarded as exceedingly hard by the Russians. In addition to the two principal conditions which cannot be accepted under Mr. Witte's instructions those relating to the limiting of Russia's naval power in the far east and the granting of fishing rights upon the Russian littoral are considered particularly offensive to the amour propre of their country and of such a humiliating character as to be inadmissible.

NO FALSE CLAIMS.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. Sold by Funderburk Pharmacy.

Texas Mob Burns Negro At The Stake.

Outraged Citizens of White Sulphur Take Fiend's Life for Outrage Upon Society.

Sulphur Springs, Tex., Aug. 11. — Tom Williams, a mulatto negro, made an attempt to assault a young white girl in a pasture near this town about 6 o'clock this morning. Three hours later he was a blazing mass in the public square at Sulphur Springs. The whole proceeding was as orderly as such proceedings ever are. There was no excitement and the lynching was participated in by several hundred people. In less than four hours after the assault the tragedy had ended and the town had returned to its accustomed vocations and the incident was over.

On a farm about two miles southwest of town, Mary Childs lives with her mother and sisters. About 6 o'clock this morning she started, as was her wont, to the pasture to drive up the cows to the milking lot. She had found the cows and was returning with them when Williams accosted her. He took hold of the girl and the latter realizing her predicament, told the negro he had release her as her sisters were nearby. This evidently frightened the negro and the girl seeing that he hesitated set up a scream and Williams loosened his hold on her and ran off as fast as he could. The girl made her way home and told what had happened. Officers and a posse started after the negro and he was soon caught about a mile and a half east of town. He was taken at once to the scene of the attempted assault and was fully identified by his intended victim, who told in detail of her experience with him. The mob took the negro from the officers. As soon as the mob arrived at the public square the tools of its trade were provided.

From his head to his heels the negro was saturated with oil. A match was applied to the feet and a blaze shot high into the air. The mob stood by and watched the flames devour the negro. The fire was kept going for awhile but it soon burned itself out and the body was cut down. Then oil was poured on it and the blaze started afresh, the body was almost entirely incinerated. Then the mob dispersed and in half an hour no sign remained of the gruesome tragedy that had been enacted nor of the victim whose death had been encompassed so quickly after his crime.

The relatives of the negro were permitted to take what was left of the body. They scraped up the remains and took them away. Later they will be buried by them.

Sick Headache

When your head aches, there is a storm in the nervous system, centering in the brain.

This irritation produces pain in the head, and the turbulent nerve current sent to the stomach causes nausea, vomiting. This is sick headache, and is dangerous, as frequent and prolonged attacks weaken the brain, resulting in loss of memory, inflammation, epilepsy, fits, dizziness, etc.

Alay this stormy, irritated, aching condition by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

They stop the pain by soothing, strengthening and relieving the tension upon the nerves — not by paralyzing them, as do most headache remedies.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do not contain opium, morphine, chloral, cocaine or similar drugs.

"Sick headache is hereditary in my family. My father suffered a great deal, and for many years I have had spells that were so severe that I was unable to attend to my business affairs for a day or so at a time. During a very severe attack of headache, I took Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they relieved me almost immediately. Since then I take them when I feel the spell coming on and it stops it at once."

Seven Hundred Votes Ask For an Election.

Saluda, Aug. 12. — Petitions containing the names of 718 reputed qualified voters in this county were today filed with the supervisor by Mr. B. W. Crouch, asking that an election be ordered at once on the question of "dispensary" or "no dispensary" for Saluda county. There are a few petitions not yet returned but it is well known that considerably more than one-fourth of the qualified voters have signed those filed today.

There are said to be about 1,600 registered voters in the county.

Franchise Tax Brings Large Income.

The committee which was appointed at the last session of the legislature to examine the books of State officers is at work in the State House. Senator T. B. Butler of the committee said last night that the committee had been at work checking up the franchise tax. The State will realize from the tax about $62,000. Of this the railroads pay about $20,000. —The State.

A GRIM TRAGEDY

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose, relieves.
