The Lancaster Publishing Company Organized.

The stockholders of the Lancaster Publishing Co., the joint stock company gotten up the past week for the purpose of purchasing The Ledger, The Review and The Enterprise, their good will and printing plants and consolidating them into one newspaper in the interest of the town and county, met yesterday morning in the office of R. E. Wylie, Esq., and organized by the election of a board of directors as follows: R. E. Wylie, W. C. Cauthen, Leroy Springs, A. J. Clark and C. D. Jones. After some discussion as to the name of the new paper it was decided to call it The Lancaster News. The capital stock is to be $10,000, and the first issue of the new paper will appear Oct. 4th prox.

After the adjournment of the stockholders meeting the directors met and organized, electing R. E. Wylie, Esq., president, and Mr. W. C. Cauthen secretary and treasurer of the new company. Mr. Chas. T. Connors, who has edited the Review so ably for a score of years or more, was chosen as editor of the new paper, and Mr. J. M. Riddle, Jr., a promising young business man, who is also connected with the Review, was elected business manager.

The new enterprise will have the good will and best wishes of this editor who retires from the journalistic field after Oct. 1.

WHY Every Man and Woman Should Insure in The New York Life.

- Because it is the strongest company in the world.
  - Because its policies protect one million families.
  - Because it has over 390 million assets.
  - Because it has over 380 millions Reserve Fund.
  - Because it paid in dividends in 1904 over $5,000,000.
  - Because it is purely mutual. It has no capital stock.
  - Because its assets belong to the policy holders.
  - Because it does not invest in stocks and industrial securities.
  - Because its policies contain only one condition "payment of premium"
  - Because the insured leaves to his widow or estate a legacy and not a law suit.
  - Because its policies are incontestable and nonforfeitable.
  - Because it paid in 1904 $40,000,000 to its policy holders.
  - Because it is the best estate you can leave to your family.
  - Because it gives you the best protection and investment combined for the money.
- Because you can't afford to carry anything else when you can get the best.
