"1912"

There is something impressive to the thoughtful man or woman in the coming of a new year.

To them it is not simply a trick of the calendar, an arbitrary substitution of the next numeral, but a real milestone in the journey of life.

The desire to "turn over a new leaf" is spontaneous with most people, coming with a realization of the death of a big life period, and a keen sense of regret that in the passing many things have been done and left undone that should not and should have been.

This bank extends to all its customers and friends its most cordial greetings. To those who have not yet opened accounts with us we include with our good wishes for happiness and prosperity an invitation to do so.

If you have not saved during the past year, NOW is the time to "turn over a new leaf." Perhaps you are not familiar with the facilities of a bank. They make saving easy and systematic and show you in a few months that it is a sin of omission to neglect it. NOW is the logical time to start.

The bride-to-be is an accomplished young woman. Mr. Shuler is a leading business man of Brookland and a member of the House from this county.

Chris. Wise is Dead

Christopher Columbus Wise, Jr., died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wise, in Batesburg on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after an illness of about a month with typhoid fever.

"Chris." Wise was known and well liked by everybody in Lexington, he having resided here for the past several weeks with Solicitor George Bell Timmerman for whom he drove the big Marmon automobile. "Chris." was devoted to Mr. Timmerman and the big-hearted solicitor did all in his power for the lad during his illness.

He was in his 19th year—just blooming into manhood with a bright future before him, the idol of his parents and brothers and sisters—and his death is peculiarly sad.

His remains were laid to rest at Providence church, near Batesburg, on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the funeral being conducted by the Rev. S. O. Cantey, pastor of the Batesburg Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member.

A number of Lexington people went down to attend the burial.

The Ideal Theatre.

"The Ideal" Columbia's newest theatre, opened last week under the management of Mr. Warner. Montgomery is at the head of The Ideal, and this alone would be sufficient to guarantee the best. The motion pictures are excellent, the music is superb, the singing is fine and every feature is of the highest class. Attend the Ideal when you are in the city. The new theatre.
