CURRENCY in the pocket DEPRECIATES. In the bank it EX-PANDS. A person with a $100 check in his pocket likely will go all day without cashing it. With a similar amount of currency there is a tendency to SPEND A LITTLE. The check remains intact. So it is with a bank account. A person likes to KEEP IT INTACT.

OUR POLICY

is to serve our depositors well and truly, holding their interests identical with our own; to give as generous terms as are consistent with sound banking; to welcome the small account as well as the large one; to be satisfied with small margins of profit in its business transactions, and to give its customers a fair measure of its success. This is always the policy of Death of Mr. D. Ike Shealy.

D. Ike Shealy, Confederate soldier, progressive farmer and high-toned gentleman, a resident of Peak, died suddenly of heart failure on the second floor of the Home National Bank building in this town at 6 o'clock Monday afternoon. Mr. Shealy drove to Lexington Monday morning in company with his son, G. Holly Shealy, a member of the registration board of this county, and had been in the best spirits. He had just left the residence of Frank W. Shealy, with whom he had eaten a hearty meal and had gone on the second floor of the building with George H. Koon, member of the Lexington County Dispensary board. A few minutes later he went into the building for his father, and he found him in a sitting posture with his head resting on his elbow. Dr. J. J. Wingard, who has an office in the same building, was hastily summoned and did all that medical science could devise, but life was extinct.

The deceased was about 68 years of age and leaves four sons and three daughters. They are: L. Magnus, Collie M. G. Holly Shealy of Peak, and Arthur I. Shealy, a telegraph operator at Ninety-six; Mrs. W. T. Shealy and Miss Ira Shealy of Peak. He is also survived by two brothers and three sisters as follows: W. B. and J. Andrew Shealy, of Columbia; Mrs. Drayton H. Long, of Little Mountain; Mrs. George Swetnam, of Newberry; Mrs. John Sumner and Mrs. Jacob Clarke, of Columbia. Mr. Shealy was a member of the 10th Regiment of the War Between the States.

Mr. Shealy was a prominent member of the Little Mountain Lutheran church, being an active worker. He was also a prominent farmer.

The remains were carried to his late home near Peak Monday night. The funeral will be held from his late residence at 10 o'clock this morning. The interment will follow in the family burying ground.

In the death of Mr. Shealy, Lexington county has lost one of her best and most useful citizens.

Jesse Shealy, a son of the deceased and a telegraph operator, died about three weeks ago, and the death of the father comes as a great shock to his family and friends.

Power Turned On.

The Parr Shoals Power Company at Parr Shoals was turned on last Saturday at noon for the first time, and on Monday, June 1, the company began to furnish power to a number of enterprises throughout the State. This is one of the most wonderful water-power plants in the entire country and has been completed at a cost of several million dollars.

The opening of the power company was celebrated with a big barbecue to which many invitations had been issued. On Friday night the employees of Mr. Edwin W. Robertson, of Columbia, prime mover in the undertaking and owner of the plant, gave Mr. Robertson a banquet in Columbia, which for beauty and elegance has never been equaled in the history of Columbia. The new plant will furnish power for plants all over the State, and will be the means of developing the natural resources of the State.

Mr. H. L. Parr, of Newberry, organized the first company with a view to develop the present plant, and to him much credit should be given.

The new plant is partly in Lexington and partly in Fairfield county and will add much to the taxable property of the two counties.

Children's Day at Hebron.

Children's Day was observed by the people of Hebron Methodist church, the Rev. J. P. Inabinet pastor, on Sunday afternoon, May 31st. The attendance was very large, and the program was a delightful feature of the meeting. The exercises by the children were especially pleasing, all of them reflecting credit upon themselves as well as their instructors, and the music was exceptionally fine. Mr. B. N. Sann is the faithful and efficient superintendent of the Sunday school and to his untiring efforts as well as the efforts of the several lady teachers, is due the success of the occasion.

Hebron is located in a thickly settled community. The people are liberty-loving and God-fearing, and they always take a pride in the affairs of their church. This annual occasion is always looked forward to by both old and young with a great deal of pleasure.

From Arthurs.

We are glad to see that our little town is growing more each day.

Mr. Jesse Hallman has opened a first class grocery and blacksmith shop on the corner of Main street.

Mr. Albert Smith, Miss Blanch Purkitt, Miss M. C. Spagner and sister were in town Monday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Melton Shull.

We are sorry to see the death of Mr. Jesse Hallman, which died Sunday.

Mr. Melton Roof, one of our old friends, was one of the graduates at Lexington High School last week.

A large crowd attended the singing at Rev. J. W. Fry's Saturday night.

Misses Viola, Della and Hattie Eleaser, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. J. W. Fry's.

Mr. Joe Kammer and Miss Ella Boye attended commencement Monday night.

We were all glad to see a nice rain Sunday afternoon. The Trio.

Deserved Praise.

We were more than pleased to hear several prominent and influential men in Columbia last week speak in highest terms of Lexington's candidate for Railroad Commissioner and avowed their earnest support. Mr. Shealy is a hustler, and his chances for election are A. 1. Watch and see if he don't "get that Eli!"

Edisto Dots.

A very pretty girl from Hopewell called on Little Johnny a pleasant visit last Sunday, and we hope that she may play the same trick on L. J. again soon.

Quite a number of friends attended the Rally Day at Pelion Saturday and they report having a jolly good time.

Miss Thomas, the admired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hydrick, of near Warner, spent last week with her cousin, Miss Addie Agnes Schoenberg.

Mrs. Martha Poole and Miss Nealie Peeler, the guests of Mrs. Mamie Hault, Monday afternoon.

Miss Johnson was the attraction of our teacher, Miss

Mr. S. C. Sumner and family from near Perry, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Abel L. Starnes and family.

Uncle Dick Peel and Mr. and Mrs. Jinks Jelfcoat, made a business trip to Swansea one day last week.

The stork called in at the home of Mr. M. C. Kirkland's a few days ago and left a very sweet baby. We used the word sweet because it's a little girl. Had it been a boy we might have said "a rascal!"

Mr. O. F. Cooper dined Sunday with Mr. J. H. Peel.

We were glad to have with us Sunday evening our friend, Mr. M. C. Laird.

Dr. Toole and Dr. Black, of Columbia, called on us one afternoon last week.

Wonder who was the guest Sunday of Miss Josephine Kirkland.

Mrs. Rena Sharpe was the guest Monday of Mrs. Ollie Schonberg.

We are sorry to note illness of Mr. A. M. Reed, but we hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. T. G. Knotts and sister, Miss Kittie, were welcome visitors' last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peele.

The crops around here are looking fairly well considering the drought.

Mr. Gordon Haulty, one of our best farmers made twenty-three bushels of wheat on one acre. Can any of you good readers beat that?

May 30. Little Johnny.

Mr. Dent Announces For Re-Election.

In this issue of the Dispatch appears the announcement of County Auditor W. D. Dent for re-election, as will be seen by reference to the announcement column. Mr. Dent is unquestionably one of the best county auditors in the State. He is attentive, honest and conscientious in the discharge of his duties, and he has made an enviable record for himself. He knows every phase of the many problems that come before him, and no man has ever made a better public official. The Dispatch bespeaks for him generous support from the voters of the county.

Columbia High School.

The faculty and graduating class of the Columbia High School have our thanks for an invitation to be present at the closing exercises at the Opera House, Columbia, June 4th. Miss Eva Louise Dunning is one of the accomplished young lady graduates.

Irmo Notes.

Will you please spare space for the news from our little town.

Everybody was glad to see the rain Sunday.

Miss Hattie Pearl Hook is visiting friends in Columbia.

Miss Mattie Smith has gone to her home in Columbia for a few months' stay.

All the folks enjoyed the party at Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Freshley's home Saturday night.

We are glad to see Miss Pearl Kyzer out again after several days illness. But sorry to learn of Mrs. Kyzer's being sick.

Mrs. O. F. Nnamaker and children are visiting relatives at Denmark.

Little Malcolm Freshley is spending a few days with his brother Preston. A. Friend.

County Com'rs. Met Monday.

The county board of commissioners met in regular session Monday. A large volume of routine business was disposed of. Nothing out of the ordinary came before the board for consideration.

Married.

At the residence of Ioor Hayes, magistrate, May the 7th, 1914, Mr. Clarence Alewine of Lexington county and Miss Fannie E. Clarke, of Aiken county, S. C.

Lost Fox-Hound.

Lost on last Thursday a white hound, rather slender built with a few small gray spots on his back, ears are white with brown specks. Reward for information leading to recovery. Rt. 2, Irmo, S. C. H. R. Dreher.

"STOP, LOOK, LISTEN!"

A LAWYER received $10,000 for suggesting that words to a railroad. That sign, "Stop, Look, Listen" saved the road many thousands of dollars in damages. It's a good sign. It's worth $10,000. Wise people are often warned by a similar sign on the road of extravagance. They stop in time. How about yourself? Think this over seriously. A bank account is the BEST KIND OF SECURITY at any time.

CHLORAZONE MALARIA

Malaria attacks the liver, kidneys and digestive organs, just as Rheumatism attacks the bones and muscles of the human system. Malaria is just as serious as any disease on the human calendar. Some of the symptoms are lassitude, a yellow tinge to the skin, the whites of the eyes slightly tinged with yellow. Poor digestion, lack of appetite, constipation, any of these symptoms are a warning and you must keep off chills and fever, with CHLORAZONE. Every bottle sold on a guarantee to cure, or your money back.
