OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some People We Know, and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event. It took place in Lexington. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word; To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at home is more worthy of confidence. Than one you know nothing about. Endorsed by unknown people. Henry C. Hall, grocer, E. Main St., Lexington, says: "My back ached incessantly. Mornings I was sore and lame and could hardly bend while waiting on customers about the store. I had headaches and dizzy spells, my sight was blurred and I was very nervous. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, disturbing my rest at night by causing me to get up a number of times. I couldn't walk across the room without holding on to something. Colds also settled on my kidneys. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Sawyer Drug Co. and they relieved me at once. I continued to use them until every symptom of kidney trouble left me. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills, however, when my back gives me any trouble and always get relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hall had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y., adv.

Sympathy For City

Chicago, July 25.—Acting Mayor Moorhouse of Chicago today received the following telegram from President Wilson at Windsor, Vt.:

"I am sure I speak the universal feeling of the people of the country in expressing my profound sympathy and sorrow in the presence of the great disaster which saddened so many homes."

A cablegram from Sir Thomas Lipton said:

"I am greatly shocked to see by the day's newspapers the catastrophe that has fallen on your city. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to those who have lost their dear ones. If you start a relief fund put me down for $1,000.

A message of condolence came from the organization of the General Slocum survivors of New York.

Man And Wife In Army.

A romantic incident of the war is told in the German papers regarding a charming couple who were recently to be seen in the streets of Warsaw. The one is a young Russian officer, who moves along with the aid of crutches and of the arm of a still younger looking Russian private. The youngster has an arm in a sling. Both were wounded in battle and wear the decoration of the cross.

The young soldier is the wife of the wounded officer and is the daughter of a Russian princess. These young persons met in a train en route to Warsaw recently and fell in love. The officer was on his way to join his regiment in Warsaw, and the young lady was going in the same direction to visit some friends.

The journey required more than two days and when they left the train the young couple sought a priest and were married.

As the young officer had to leave at once with his regiment for the front, the young wife enlisted as a private, donned a uniform and accompanied her husband to the front under an assumed name. It was in the battle of Rawak that both were wounded.—New York Herald.
