BLEASE AND MANNING WILL HAVE TO MAKE THE SECOND RACE

Bleas Holds Lead Over Governor But Lacks Several Thousand of Having a Majority

With something more than 108,000 votes heard from the results in the State Primary held Tuesday were in doubt in no case. Cole L. Blease, for two terms governor of South Carolina, led the race for governor, and will go into a second primary with Richard I. Manning, the incumbent, who is seeking re-election. Robert A. Cooper of Laurens ran third to Messrs. Manning and Blease. Mr. Blease's lead over Mr. Manning was 16,387, but lacked more than 8,000 enough to give him a majority, essential to nomination on the first ballot.

The vote, as tabulated at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, stood: Blease 49,925; Manning, 33,538; Cooper, 25,196; John T. Duncan, 242; J. M. DesChamps, 226.

In the other State office races there was little question of the result at the time, except in the contest for railroad commissioner, where a second race is necessary. James Candler is in the second race. Albert S. Fant of Belton, with 24,401 votes, gained the chance to meet Mr. Candler in the second race. The other candidates in the race finished in the following order: McDuffie Hampton, incumbent, 14,709; W. H. Kelly of Spartanburg, 9,028; W. P. Thrower of Cheraw, 8,327.

For lieutenant governor Andrew J. Bethea of Columbia won from Dr. E. C. L. Adams of Columbia, who was opposing him for reelection. The vote, as finally tabulated, stood: Bethea, 58,196; Adams, 34,321.

For secretary of state William Banks Dove of Columbia was victor over G. W. Wightman of Saluda, polling 51,876 votes to 38,587 for his opponent.

Sam T. Carter of Columbia was re-nominated for State treasurer over in Lexington today are as follows: A. F. Lever, candidate for congress, without opposition, was of course re-nominated. George Bell Timmerman was re-elected solicitor by a large majority. Sam J. Miller was re-elected sheriff over four opponents by a majority of 63 votes. W. D. Dent was re-elected auditor over two opponents by a large majority. There will be a second race for the following offices: Cyrus L. Shealy and Holly L. Harman for clerk of court. Dr. E. C. Ridgell and W. H. Sharpe for State Senate. Jas. B. Addy, T. Haskell Shull, S. E. Smith, G. B. Wingard, W. A. Oxner and L. W. Wise for house of representatives. C. E. Corley and G. C. Steele for supervisor. H. H. Haltiwanger and A. D. Martin for superintendent of education. Joe M. Caughman, Richard J. Hook, W. E. Lorick and S. Rufus Smith for county commissioner. Lewie Hall and Warren C. Weed for coroner. D. J. S. Derrick and C. E. Leapart for Treasurer.

NOTICE

To the Democratic voters of Lexington county:
As you know I was a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Education. This is one of the most responsible offices within your gift. My campaign was honest, fair and square and I take this method of thanking you from the depth of my heart for the handsome vote given me on the 29th day of this month. With your continued support I will win and educational interests of the county promoted.

A. D. Martin
