Death of Mrs. Eugenia D. Hendrix.

It is a fact that the young can die and the old must die, and so it is that one by one, the old land marks are passing away. On the 16th of August, 1916, Mrs. Eugenia D. Hendrix died in her quiet home in the 88th year of her age, after a general breakdown and extended feebleness. "Aunt Genia" as she was known by her friends, was one of the oldest inhabitants of our town. She had a remarkable memory and while quaint in some of her ideas and ways she was a good and true friend.

She was the last of Mr. Ephriam Corley's immediate family; the grand daughter of granny Corley, who was the donor of the site of Lexington village, and her relationship was quite extensive.

Mrs. Eugenia Hendrix was the widow of Mr. W. Noah Hendrix, in his times a prominent citizen and a business man of this place. He preceded her to the spirit land many years ago. Her remains were interred in the Hendrix family burying ground by the side of her husband and son Kit, in the presence of many relatives and friends, Rev. L. A. Thomas officiating.

Aunt Genia is no more and rest in peace.

Now Well

"Theford's Black-Draught is the best all-round medicine I ever used," writes J. A. Steelman, of Pattonville, Texas. "I suffered terribly with liver troubles, and could get no relief. The doctors said I had consumption. I could not work at all. Finally I tried

Sharpe Hill. To Have A Fine School Building.

Sharpe's Hill, in the lower part of the county, is to have a new and commodious school building ere another scholastic year opens in that district. Messrs. J. Perry Goodwin, Jas. M. Spires, Ohn J. Rikard, trustees, have let the contract for the new school building to Mr. Wm. M. Furtick. The new building is to $1,200, will have two large class rooms, cloak rooms and other necessary rooms for the conduct of an up-to-date school. Sharpe's Hill has heretofore been a little one-room shack of a building—a sort of a building, a sort of a make-shift.

The people of this district have been working for a new school building for many months. The movement was started way last fall and winter, when a Ladies' School Improvement League was formed, with Mrs. J. V. Smith as its head. This band of women has worked hard and zealously in the interest of a new school building, and by giving all manner of entertainments a neat sum has been realized. Two teachers will be employed this winter instead of one, Prof. J. V. Smith having already been elected Principal. The people of the district have a just right to feel proud over their achievements, and they are proud. The Ladies of the community will keep up the fight in an endeavor to raise funds for equipping the new building.

Now that Italy has declared war on Germany she may expect the attentions of the Kaiser's own tutelary divinity.

WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

RUMANIA ENTERS WAR WITH ALLIES

GIVES NEAR A MILLION MORE TROOPS TO THE ALLIES GREAT ARMY.

GERMANY ANNOUNCES BREAK

Already the Troops of King Ferdinand Are Seeking the Plains of Transylvania Through the Eastern Carpathians Toward Kronstadt.

London—Rumania has thrown in her lot with the Entente Allies by declaring war on Austria-Hungary and almost simultaneously Germany has announced that she is at war with Rumania.

Already the troops of King Ferdinand are seeking entry into the plains of Transylvania through the eastern Carpathians toward Kronstadt, the chief city in Transylvania, and in the direction of Hermannstadt, evidently in an endeavor to press northward through Transylvania toward the Bulkowina and Galicia borders and to take in the rear the Austro-Germans trying to hold back the Russians from entering the plains of Hungary.

Nothing has come through to indicate what preparation has been made by the Bulgarians to offset a probable attack by the Rumanians along the Danube front or a possible attempt by the Russians at invasion by means of the Danube and through Domruja or by the Black Sea. It is estimated that Rumania will be able to throw nearly a million men into the field.

Rumania becomes the fourteenth nation to join in the war. Her intervention either on the side of the Entente Allies or the Central Powers has been awaited with symptoms of concern by both since the beginning of the great conflict. This is due not entirely to Rumania's military strength, but also to the strategic advantages of her geographical position and the fact that her entry into the struggle opens to the Russian army a gateway through Rumania to attack Bulgarians from the north while the Allied army, having its base at Saloniki, attacks them and their German Allies from the south.

On the other hand Austria has been accumulating military forces at Orzova prepared to attempt to force the "Iron Gates" where the Danube River touches the Western Rumanian border. Bulgaria is said to have stationed 10,000 or more troops along the southern bank of the Danube to protect her northern frontier from a Rumanian invasion.

TWO N. C. TOWNS ARE HIT BY SEVERE CYCLONE

One Man Killed at Salisbury.—New Mill Wrecked.—Big Damage at Spencer.

Salisbury.—One person killed; others seriously injured; property damage running into the tens of thousands; power companies out of business, and the city in darkness, are the results of the most severe cyclone that ever visited this section. High winds accompanied by much hail and a heavy downpour of rain came from the west at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, wrecking a path through the entire city.

The new damask mill of Marsh & Murdock in the western part of the town, recently finished, and the machinery installed ready for business, was completely wrecked. J. Will Calloway, a carpenter, aged 45, and Henry Whitlow, who were working near, took refuge in the brick mill building and were later taken out of the debris. Calloway had met instant death and Whitlow was badly hurt.

Spencer.—A storm of cyclonic proportions played havoc in East Spencer, demolishing a two-story brick building occupied by the general store of C. E. Fesperman and the Majestic theater, blowing down a number of other buildings and injuring a half dozen persons.

The most seriously injured is Mrs. D. A. Klutz, who was caught under a ton or more of falling brick

WAR GAME SHOWS URGENT NEED FOR AIR CRAFT.

Washington.—Commenting on the big naval war game played last week, Rear Admiral Benson, chief of operations, said the vital lesson demonstrated was the need of aircraft for scouting purposes and also the urgent necessity of adding bill and scout cruisers to the fleet.

Although the aeroplane ship North Carolina participated in the game as a scout, none of her hydroaeroplanes was regarded safe for use at sea.
