

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Say! Have you a match!

Cotton is selling at 15c for new, and old at 15 1-4c., on the Lexington market.

From our recent visit to other towns, Lexington is the town of them all.

I have fought a good fight; I have finished the faith; but gracious how I have been deceived.

Mr. Geo. B. Bickley, of near Hilton, was here today and paid us a pleasant call.

Mrs. D. R. Haltiwanger and Mrs. Mae Lois VanOmer spent Monday in Columbia.

Miss Sarah Carter, of Chester, is the much admired guest of Miss Celeste George at the beautiful George home.

Mr. Geo. M. Caughman, as will be seen in his advertisement, is offering for sale his place about three miles from town.

Mr. Wade H. Spires, from the Pelion section, the champion bridge builder was in town this morning and gave us a pleasant call.

Second primary candidates are on the go night and day. Give them a hearty grip and wish luck on their trip.

Miss Leila-Jo Reynolds, of Atlanta, one of the music instructors of the Lexington High School arrived this morning.

Prof. Julius E. Sharpe has been "politicizing" in Lexington most every day this week, and the dear sweet girls have missed him.

Miss Aline Harman has returned home after an extended visit to her friends in Manning, Sumter and Columbia.

Mr. Pat Seay, Sr., near Providence, was in town this morning, prompt as usual, left his dollar for a renewal.

Col. Albert M. Boozer, a safe attorney of the Columbia bar, was in town one day last week on legal matters.

We sell the Cameron Steel Range and Stoves. See our line and get our prices.

Taylor Furniture Store.

Reeder Brothers will give another first class barbecue on September 8, and the public is invited to attend. This is one of the finest places in the county for a 'cue.

New Fall Dry Goods just open up at Wm. Platt's, Columbia. Everything new and pretty; the latest from the looms, and notions that are bound to please you.

Miss Emmie Mae James, an attractive young woman of Columbia and one of the most successful nurses in the State, spent the weekend with Mrs. D. R. Haltiwanger.

Mr. Willie Axson, of Charleston, S. C.; has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lever, also Miss Minnie Williams, of Newberry. They report of spending a very nice time.

Mrs. Ellen D. Seay, widow of Lee Seay, now residing in Columbia, has purchased a lot from M. D. Harman on East depot street, upon which she intends building a home.

Ladies, For your new hats and trimmings, the very latest for the season, is now ready for your inspection at Wm. Platt's, Columbia. Be sure you call and see before you buy. The prices are all right.

If the candidates would only keep up the their jolly, fellow-feeling with the hearty hand shake, we would all feel better, and the idea of so much deception would be removed.

We regret to note that Mrs. Lizzie Boozer will go to the Columbia hospital for an operation on Friday. Her many friends wish permanent and speedy recovery.

Mr. Geo. M. Caughman, one of the best teachers in the county, is coming to Lexington to teach in the new school.

Columbia, have returned home after having attended a horse party at the beautiful home of the Misses Barre, on College Hill

Miss Grace Harman, popular here and admired, after having spent almost all summer here with her relatives and friends, has returned home, Atlanta, Ga., to resume her studies at the Atlanta Girl's High School.

The people far and near on labor day, Sept. 4th should not fail to come to Lexington on Jubilee day. The town has grown from the ashes and her facilities for business are equal if not better than you find in many towns.

We were pleased to have a call from Mr. Roberts the sugar and coffee man, manager of the C. D. Kenney Co.'s store, Columbia, last Thursday, who came over to our town in his car. Mr. Roberts is a clever gentleman and one of Columbia's most popular business men.

IT'S HARD TO WORK

When Suffering From Kidney Ills Many Lexington People Find This to Be True.

What's so hard as a day's work with an aching back?

Or sharp "stabs" of pain with every sudden twist or turn?

There is no peace from the dull ache—

No rest from the soreness, lameness and weariness. If the kidneys are disordered you can't reach the cause too soon.

Neglect is often fatal.

Weak kidneys need prompt attention.

Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at once—

A tested and proven kidney remedy.

Lexington readers should find new hope in the following statement.

John J. Taylor, carpenter, Main St., Lexington, says: "I had a constant pain in my back which bothered me so that I could hardly work at my trade. At times, I was scarcely able to bend to pick up my tools. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, causing me to get up a number of times each night. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Harmon Drug Co., strengthened my back and relieved all symptoms of kidney trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Taylor had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Victory for the Allies may not yet be in sight, but Roumania's decision to join them was a subtle compliment to their prospects.

Mr. W. S. Reynolds suffered a long time with piles, dreading to undergo an operation which he had been informed would have to be done to be cured. Knows of others Dr. Register cured without the knife.

Lamar, S. C., Route 1, Jan. 10, 1916.

Dear Doctor:

After having suffered for a long time with piles, you may now add my name to your long list of cured patients. I write this in the hope that it may be the means of influencing some other sufferer to come to you at once and be cured. I used a number of salves and ointments but could get only temporary relief from them. I was under the impression, by the advice of physicians, that a surgical operation would be necessary before I could be cured, and this I dreaded, and went on suffering, until I heard of your curing some other cases without the knife. Knowing you from early boyhood, as we were raised near each other and were about the same age, I felt that I could rely upon you to give me an honest opinion. When you examined me you told me that you could cure me, and I am glad to make this statement for the benefit of other sufferers, with the hope that it will influence as many as possible to go to you. I am sure they will always be glad they did so.

Wishing you continued success, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

W. S. REYNOLDS,

Route 1, Lamar, S. C., Farmer.
